Introduction

It has been 42 years now since the start of the modern UFO era and 36 years since I first became acquainted with the subject reading Donald Keyhoe's book, "Flying Saucers from Outer Space". Perhaps it was my youthful experience with amateur astronomy or perhaps it was Keyhoe's book that first convinced me that we were not alone in the universe. There were so many stars in our galaxy and other galaxies that it seemed perfectly logical that other earth-like planets populated the universe. I used to wonder what inhabitants of other worlds were doing in their daily lives. Were they going to school, getting jobs, marrying, having children, watching television shows about life on other worlds? Had they advanced so far that they had solved some of the problems that plague us on earth? Would they come here as depicted in science-fiction and invade our world, making shambles of New York or Los Angeles or enslaving our minds and bodies?

I remember going to a Sunday afternoon matinee and seeing "THE THING (FROM ANOTHER WORLD)" and actually hiding behind the seat when James Arness ambled down the hall of the artic ice station. Was this what creatures of other worlds were like? Sucking blood from humans? Ugh! I did not want to believe that version of E.T. Then there was the "THE DAY THE EARTH STOOD STILL" which suggested that a master race of benevolent humans patroled space and kept law and order and could rid the universe of anyone who threatened universal peace. That was somewhat appealing, if a little overbearing.

But, what was the flying saucer reality? Were these UFOs just misidentification of natural or man-made phenomena as some scientists such as Dr. Menzel were claiming? At least 21% of Project Bluebook sightings were unexplained. Could these be alien spaceships?

Then along came the contactees. I was spellbound by the story told by George Adamski. He had met a man from a flying saucer on November 20, 1952 near Desert Center, California, and six people had signed an affadavit attesting to the event. Adamski took marvelously clear photos of bell-shaped scout ships and cigar-shaped mother ships that launched the scouts on earthly reconnaisance missions. If this was true, then the mystery would soon be solved I thought, and everyone would soon welcome friendly beings from other worlds who had much to teach us. However, a young boy believes that adults generally report the truth about their adventures and experiences, and only other little boys lie to you for some advantage of their own. I could not grasp the psychology of a hoax and could not see what was to be gained from such deception. Today, regardless of some nagging doubts, most UFO researchers have concluded that Adamski is the paragon of UFO hoaxers, that is until the Swiss watchman Billy Meiers came on the scene in 1975.

Meiers told stories similar to Adamski. Both Adamski and Meiers met with beautiful men and women from other planets who were flying benevolent missions to Earth. Not only were they advanced in technology, but in social and spiritual sciences and had achieved global peace and unlimited progress through sharing, cooperating, and constantly learning more about the universe. Here was the quintessential utopian model to guide us to a better planet Earth. Who, of a humanitarian heart and idealistic dreams, could fail to be captivated by such a vision? Only the many hard-eyed, skeptical UFO investigators and researchers who have striven to convince dreamers like myself that all of the magnificent photos take by Adamski, Meiers, Fry, Menger, and other contactees were nothing more than clever hoaxes and the answer to the UFO-ET enigma lies in another direction:the close encounter of the fourth kind, the abduction.

The abduction phenomena first came to public light when the book "INTERRUPTED JOURNEY" by John Fuller retold the tale of Betty and Barney Hill and their terrifying encounter with humanoid entities in the White Mountains of New Hampshire in 1961. The abduction scenario -- the sighting of a light or UFO, the capture by alien humanoids, the subsequent physical examination, the telepathic communications, the passionless treatment, the amnesia and missing time -- have become familiar to every UFO student since hundreds, nay, thousands of cases have come to light. Strange psychic phenomena is frequently part of the abductee experience in the post-initial-contact phase. More often than not, the abductee is continually observed, and harassed by his alien captors from there on.

These aliens did not seem as friendly as the ones who contacted Adamski and Meiers. I just cannot feel as much affinity toward space visitors who treat us more or less as if we were laboratory animals. Can we really learn anything from such creatures? Does this represent the UFO reality? Do pretty humans remain no more that the figments of a hoaxer's imagination, or is someone trying to convice us that one scenario should prevail over another?

Are there any correlations between a contactee (ala-Adamski type) report and an abductee report? Yes there are. Case in point - compare Adamski's (the earlier report from circa 1955) description of the interior of a scout ship with Sgt. Moody's description given in 1975. Both may be describing the same or similar vehicle with a central magnetic pole or shaft, crystal globes, three-ball undercarriage, and diffuse pervasive interior lighting. Coincidence? How could Adamski predict what others would eventually experience on different saucers? Hocus-pocus? Is there more to all of this than meets the eye?

Let us go to a third scenario that I will cover in these pages - the crash-retrieval cases. The idea that our military-intelligence complex retrieved disabled or crashed flying saucers in the American southwest first came to public consciousness with the publication of Frank Scully's book "BEHIND THE FLYING SAUCERS" in 1950. This book reported that a giant flying saucer (99.99 feet in diameter) was disabled by a powerful radar beam and came down in Hart Canyon, near Aztec, New Mexico and was examined by scientists and military teams which disassembled the saucer, removed 16 of its dead, tiny humanoid crew members, and carted it off to a secret underground facility. Later this book was debunked as the work of hoaxers deceiving reporter Scully into thinking that the government had solid evidence that UFOs were real and were manned space probes coming to our planet from an unknown source. Much later, researcher William Moore discovered that such an event similar to the Aztec event most likely occured in 1947 near Roswell, New Mexico and he has documented strong evidence that a crashed disk was recovered by military-intelligence and that four humanoid bodies were found not far from the crash site.

Over the past forty years, several hypotheses have been advanced to account for the UFO phenomena. Ball lightning, psychological phenomena, psycho-kinetically produced phenomena, visitors from another dimension, visitors from the hollow earth, and visitors from the future are just some of the many diverse answers that have been offered to explain the UFO mystery to skirt around what is viewed as scientific reasons that put severe limitations on the hypothesis of space travel. Numbers of extraterrestrial vehicles could not possibly be visiting earth in such a short period of time. After all there are logistical problems that prohibit the execution of such an ambitious enterprise.

Recent intriguing events have resurrected the spectre that is known to researchers as the Extraterrestrial Hypothesis. These events and the information produced are leading researchers to believe that extraterrestrial contact has already been established, not just between humanoid aliens and humans alone on a dark night, but between aliens and members of our government military-intelligence complex, and that ongoing communication and exchange is being carried out under an ultra secret umbrella project called AQUARIUS! Not only are the E.T.s or EBEs if you like (Extraterrrestrial Biological Entities as they are termed by government sources) coming to earth, but a portion of their population resides on earth in carefully guarded secret subterranean and subaquatic bases that further facilitate their goals and activities on terra firma.

And none of this makes headlines or the feature story on network TV! So where does the truth begin?

That is the begining of the extraterrestrial enigma. The Aliens have now invaded the bedrooms of America, seemingly passing their bodies and the bodies of their abductees through solid walls and windows. They read our minds with ease. What is the next step in the Alien agenda? And what new marvels of Alien Magic can we expect?

Chapter 1 - THE CALIFORNIA CONTACTEES

Some say it is the California sun or the Santa Ana winds that created the weird culture of the West coast. We inhabitants think differently. We think of ourselves as progressive and open to new ideas. It doesn't appear startling to us that a man from another planet would first have the sense to land in California and contact one of our progressive people known to other parts of the country as a kook or a nut. It is we who will have the last laugh.

I was enthralled when I first read the story of the Venusian who met George Adamski near Desert Center, California on November 20, 1952, an event witnessed and testified to by six people. There have been more fantastic stories than his since those early days. Adamski was not the first contactee I met. In 1956 I met Dan W. Fry who had started an organization he called UNDERSTANDING in El Monte, California. UNDERSTANDING had satellite units in many cities. The one in El Monte was designated Unit 1. I was elected the teenage vice-president of Unit 1 in 1957.

Dan Fry claimed he had taken a ride in a most unusual vehicle that he was invited to board at White Sands Proving Grounds in New Mexico on July 4, 1950. He documents this story in the book, THE WHITE SANDS INCIDENT. Dan seemed very logical and honest to me. I believed in his message that peace on earth could only be achieved when we reached a greater understanding among all the people of the earth and those who were not of this earth. Dan told me several times that A-lan, the man from space who had invited him for a ride on a pilotless vehicle, had maintained intermittent contact with him. He was fond of telling how an alien from space broke more than a dozen laws just landing a spacecraft and disembarking on earth. A-lan, he said, traveled as one of us, being human in form, under the guise of an international merchant, travelling from country to country and disseminating his wisdom without disclosing his identity. All this still seems very logical to me though I could not prove it to anyone.

Many biologists consider that human life is a product of the long evolutionary and chance process that is unique to earth and feel that it is extremely unlikely for humans to be found elsewhere in the universe. Unlikely, but not impossible given a planet with conditions similar to earth. Ancient astronaut theorists surmise that human life did not originate on earth in the first place, but was brought here or bred here by extraterrestrial colonists.

Whatever the truth concerning the evolution of humanity, it is a fact that many contactees and abductees have reported seeing humans, quasi-humans, or humanoid type entities on board saucers.

Not everyone agrees that the evidence proves the UFOs to be extraterrestrial spacecraft. J. Allen Hynek and Jacques Vallee have expressed their strong opinion against the extraterrestrial hypothesis. The contactees, if accepted as telling the truth about their conscious experiences aboard spacecraft, would constitute a strong argument in favor of visiting extraterrestrials. However, communication from extraterrestrials indicates that there is a possibility that they are not from the same energy-density reality that we are familiar with in our everyday experience. This complicates the whole picture somewhat.

In 1958 I met contactee George Van Tassel of Giant Rock near Landers, California. George hosted the popular spacecraft conventions on his leased airport property for many years. In 1958 I had also met George Hunt (Rick) Williamson, one of Adamski's six witnesses, John McCoy, and Ray and Rex Stanford. One weekend Williamson, McCoy, and engineer Carol Honey went to a location near Giant Rock in the California desert. Several people beside myself joined them in an experiment using a light-beam transceiver to attempt communication with UFOs. Contactee Bob Short was also present. Around dusk we started to transmit greetings over a microphone, modulating a light beam from a car searchlight pointed at the western sky. We were hoping to receive a voice signal in return. We tried for half an hour, but no reply was given. Suddenly I heard words in my head. The words said to look in the West for a bright blue flare. I whispered this message to John McCoy. A few seconds later Bob Short was asking someone where West was from our location. We all turned simultaneously while someone pointed to the western mountains where suddenly a large blue bolide lit up the sky, traveled over the mountains and disappeared leaving a dark cloud in its path!

The very next evening we gathered at Giant Rock with George Van Tassel. Rick and John were leaving for Phoenix, Arizona on a speaking engagement. While others were talking, I climbed up on one of the large boulders adjacent to Giant Rock and watched as Rick and John were having last words with Van. Suddenly, I noticed a pulsating white light approaching from the direction of the Los Padres Copper Mines to the North. As the light got closer, I was sure it was a scout ship and fancied that it would land. I got very excited and yelled for the others to see. Van was calm and cool and said in reply, "We see it. You don't have to yell".

Van and Rick watched the UFO, but went on talking as if such sightings were a common occurence with them. I remember earlier, in 1957, having seen a brilliant glowing-red disk hover over an El Monte, California hall where Rick gave a lecture about his journeys to South America. The rumor was that UFOs followed Rick from city to city on his lecture tours. This UFO was no exception. I learned from John later that it followed their car to the outskirts of Phoenix before going away.

My frequent experiences with the contactees convinced me that many of them had a strong communication link to the occupants of the saucers. Another UFO contactee, Doris LeVesque, a resident of Yucca Valley, California, used to call in the UFOs for fly-overs when I first met her in 1957. Many of the contactees showed me evidence more convincing than I have seen from those who report abductions, and have presented a strong case for the extraterrestrial hypothesis.

Who were these contactees and what were they like?

George Van Tassel was a down-to-earth person, born in Jefferson, Ohio in 1910. He was very earthy as was George Adamski. George was not like your modern-day channeler. None of the contactees were. After leaving high school, he worked 4 years as a flight mechanic for airlines at Chicago and Cleveland. In 1930 he came to California and was employed by Douglas Aircraft at Santa Monica for 8.5 years. He left Douglas and went to work with Howard Hughes in 1941. Connected with flight testing for Mr. Hughes in the desert near Barstow, Ca., he acquired a desire for the peace and quiet of the great open spaces. After 2.5 years with Mr. Hughes, he went to Lockheed Aircraft at Burbank, Ca., for 4.5 years flight test work there. While there he came to a decision to live in the peace of the desert, after almost 20 years of aircraft experience.

He leased an abandoned airport at Giant Rock in 1947 and by 1951 had gathered together a small group who had a sincere interest in the greater secrets of life and the desire to understand phenomena that could not be explained by mundane science. Van found that he could go into a trance and contact beings from other life levels. A group of these beings were using a technological means of communication, a tensor beam of high frequency that caused audio and visual output in his brain. If this beam was not carefully focused, it would cause a burning sensation in different parts of his body. Van called this new method of communication "channeling" as he said it was like tuning in a television channel to decode the electromagnetic signal, except in his case his brain was the receiver. Various entities announced that they were the operators of the spacecraft we saw in our skies that our people called by the ridiculous name "flying saucers".

In 1952, it was difficult for many people to accept alien visitation and much more difficult for them to believe that an ordinary citizen living in the remote desert had established contact with them.

Van Tassel reports that on August 24th, 1953, the night of a full moon, a scout ship with the same configuration as that photographed by George Adamski came to a near-landing at around 2 a.m. while he was sleeping outdoors in a sleeping bag and woke him in an instant. He lit a cigarette, then sat up to see a man standing about six feet away from the foot of his bed. This was not uncommon in the desert as people had car trouble frequently on the dusty desert roads. Beyond the man he could see the glowing scout ship about a hundred yards away hovering about eight feet off the ground.

The man said, "My name is Solgonda. I would be pleased to show you our craft". Van tried to wake his wife, but the man seemed to have her under some kind of mysterious mental control, an event that is commonly reported in abduction scenarios. Solgonda escorted Van to the ship. Van stepped on a glowing spot on the sand and rose slowly into the air through an entry hatch on the bottom of the 36 foot scout craft. This lifting beam has been mentioned by numerous abductees, but was first reported by contactees. The lighting inside the scout had no source such as our light bulbs, yet everything in the cab of the craft was evenly illuminated. Van saw three other men standing by controls and all were about 5 feet 7 inches tall. Solgonda conducted a tour of the small craft and showed Van celestial navigation instruments. One apparatus had transparent tubes filled with colored liquids that had various levels. Hal Wilcox, a contactee who lives in Hollywood, Ca., reported seeing the same apparatus aboard the scout ship he rode on to another planet in 1966, but he had no idea that anyone else had mentioned this to me beyond him. Van was also taken below the main deck of the cab where he was shown the magnetic motor and counter-revolving rotors that produced the propulsive force that surrounded the craft. Twenty minutes after he had entered the craft, he was back at his bedside. All the time he was aboard the craft, Solgonda demonstrated the amazing ability to read his thoughts and voice a reply before Van could voice the question. Van had felt a queasy sensation in his stomach after the tour and asked Solgonda if he would be okay. Solgonda replied that he would, then tapped a crystal device around his neck and promptly disappeared. A moment later, the craft rose into the air and took off in a northerly direction.

Two days later Van checked the spot with a compass where the ship had hovered. When walking into the spot, the compass needle deflected 10 degrees to the east, and when walking out of the spot, it deflected 5 degrees to the west.

Dan Boone, later Van's son-in-law, lived on the Giant Rock property. He was awakened at 1:55 a.m. that same morning by the pulsing hum of a generator, but found that he could not rise from the sleeping bag as some force seemed to prevent him from moving.

Dan Boone had many contacts of his own but would not tell the public. He did confide some of these experiences to me. He told me how he had met two men and two women in a Yucca Valley liquor store who were asking directions to Giant Rock; Dan overheard this and offered to lead them there. When the four arrived, Van was preparing to start one of his Saturday night sessions in the hollowed-out room under Giant Rock. The leader of the four was a tall dark handsome man who later introduced himself as Venudo. Venudo sat on the ottoman near Van and Dan. The others sat on a couch across the room. About thirty people were present for this session. Venudo took out a crystal device, identical in appearance to the one worn by Solgonda, and proceeded to demonstrate it by tapping it and disappearing from view. Dan asked Venudo to repeat this performance and reached out to touch his shoulder when he disappeared again. Dan found Venudo invisible but tangible. I interviewed Dan and another female witness about three years after the event and when Saturday night sessions were a thing of the past.

In 1959, I met Harry Mayer who said he had an encounter with a blond Venusian girl named Mary at Giant Rock. Harry was interested in the stories surrounding Giant Rock, but he was such a down-to-earth guy that it would be hard to question his sincerity. This girl had a chocolate ski-type uniform on and at one point grabbed Harry with the strength of ten men. She was only 5 feet 3 inches tall and Harry was 6 feet 4 inches tall. She merely did not want him to chase after the globes of light that were appearing and bobbing around over the Giant Rock runway. Harry used to inveigle me to go out there many times for the chance of making contact with his mysterious Mary and he was very serious about this undertaking.

In 1977, a year before Van Tassel died, I brought abductee Brian Scott out to meet him. Van told us about Venudo, adding a few details not related by Dan, and told us that Venudo had a hybrid son from mating with a female from earth. He showed us a photo of Venudo and had medical records of the birth of his son. It was the fourth such photo shown to me by a contactee of an extraterrestrial human. The face was very handsome and perfectly symmetrical with an even hairline, translucent skin, and penetrating eyes. Venudo was from Venus. It was now common knowledge that Venus had a hothouse temperature, extreme atmospheric pressure, and a toxic carbon dioxide atmosphere impossible for humans to live in unprotected. Van knew this but never changed the story of what he was told just to make it more credible. None of the contactees ever changed their tune in this respect. The contactees' descriptions of the human-type visitors and their peculiarities had a high degree of correlation. Perhaps these Nordic visitors are only using Venus as a base. I am sure they exist, but I am not sure of their nature or origin.

Bob Short is a contactee who met Van Tassel at one of his Saturday night sessions. During that session, Bob thought he had fallen asleep, and upon awakening apologized to the people present. However, they informed him that a voice had spoken through him. Thus Bob's career as a channel for the space visitors got started.

While Bob was out for an evening stroll in Joshua Tree one evening in 1957, he saw an orange ball of light come over a low hill, then saw the object emitting the light come to a soft landing in the sand a few yards ahead of him. It looked like one of those ubiquitous bell-shaped scout ships that several contactees reported. When a hatch opened in the side of the scout, and a dark form appeared, Bob got panicky and wanted to run (an emotion usually reported by abductees), but his curiousity kept him glued to the spot. When the form got within a few feet, Bob recognized that it was a man with shoulder-length hair and penetrating eyes. The man reached out and touched the palm of his hand to the palm of Bob's hand and bid Bob peace. He simply said that they had landed for a moment to make a minor adjustment to their craft. The man who identified himself as Sutko continues to communicate with Bob through the tensor beam.

Bob's communicators make themselves known to witnesses by occasionally announcing a fly-over and then making a precisely timed fly-over.

Bob was channeling to a group of fifty or more people at a Giant Rock spacecraft convention one evening in October 1967 when the voice announced that they (the space people) were at an exact latitude and longtitude north of our position and had released two reconnaisance vehicles that would traverse our area in four minutes. I remember being skeptical of this pronouncement and walking away from the group before they would grow disgruntled. Exactly four minutes later, to the second, two metallic disks flew over Giant Rock heading south sporting bright rotating lights centered on the bottom hull. By rough estimates, they were about twenty feet in diameter, traveling under one hundred miles per hour at roughly 200 feet altitude toward the south end of the runway. I thought they were going to land as they descended, but then they executed right-angled turns and flew silently back over our heads and faded out of view as they ascended to the north. I was astonished by this whole display and was convinced that what I saw were sophisticated machines, the coming of which was announced precisely in advance by their operators through a human channel. I cannot to this day conceive of how this event could be hoaxed, and subsequent acquaintance with Mr. Short has ruled out this possibility very thoroughly.

Events such as these beg for further scientific inquiry. Repeatable communication experiments using a contactee such as Bob could yield valuable results. Yet, I have not found any ufologists who take this seriously enough to investigate.

In April 1976 I again found myself at a spacecraft convention also attended by Mr. Short at Tonopah, Arizona. This time Bob showed me a typed message at one o'clock in the afternoon that stated that a fly-over would take place that night at 10:30 p.m. Bob started his channeling at that time and, as if on cue, an unidentified blue light appeared south of Ursa Major traveling slowly and at high altitude. A second blue light appeared coming south on a collision course with the first object. They came within kissing contact, then stopped to hover for several minutes before fading out. I could see both lights clearly on a dark shape through 7x50 binoculars. A faint blue cone of light appeared to descend from the objects to a point over Bob's head. Was this the tensor beam? Of course, we don't know. There were about fifty witnesses seated around Bob at the time, including my wife and step daughter.

The contactee experience has its own characteristics. Some of these characteristics are shared with the abductee experience, but most are unique to the contact scenario. Contactees are not usually believed by ufologists and are often accused of spreading religious messages that are anathema to the scientific investigator. While this is not true in all instances, it has proven to be a stumbling block to inviting investigation. It may be possible that the contactee was selected by someone on a missionary mission.

Western civilization has a history of sending missionaries on expeditions to instruct aborigines.

The typical contactee scenario generally goes like this:

1) The contactee usually has an urge or impulse to go to some remote locale. There is an air of expectancy.

2) The contactee is greeted by a human extraterrestrial being from a machine-like craft either in full daylight or darkness and is usually spellbound by the event.

3) The human occupants communicate with the contactee on a telepathic and verbal level, seldom have trouble with our languages, and demonstrate a thorough knowledge of the contactee's personal history. The contactee is taken on a ride or a tour and is never examined in the way abductees report being examined.

4) The contactee experience is fully conscious from the beginning to the end. There is no "missing time".

5) The contactee is usually given a message or a project to accomplish. A common message given in the fifties was "you are upsetting the balance of nature". Contactees report being cordially invited, not abducted aboard spacecraft.

Objections to the contactee experience are many. Here is a short list of some of the criticisms:

1) The contactees take clear photos of spacecraft suggestive of photographing models with the intent to provide false evidence to support their claims.

2) Contactees have specified the origin of their visitors as planets in our local solar system such as Venus or Mars. Scientific evidence proves these planets are not suitable for native unprotected human life - at least on the planetary surfaces. It is possible that humans with an advanced technology could live on some solar planets in protected habitats, but this is not clear from the contactee claims. Also, contactees often state that these visiting humans live in a different frequency-density-dimension on these nearby planets - this is beyond being a testable hypothesis as the source of these beings. Alternatively, these beings could be deceiving their contacts for some unknown reason.

3) One of the primary objections to contactees is their apparently evangelical zeal to spread religious messages to the public. This feeds back to the contact as adulation and attention and encourages them to elaborate on what might have been a legitimate experience.

4) I have found very few contactees interested in veryifying their experience to skeptics. They know it's true, but are unwilling to explore the issues further.

5) Some ufologists object to the report that visitors from other worlds are human and stand by the biological concept that humanity is a consequence of a fortuitous chain of random biological events peculiar to earth and that the conditions which led to human development are unlikely to be duplicated elsewhere in the universe.

These are legitimate objections to the contactee experience, but we must also consider the contactee report in terms of evidence and witnesses. Since I have personally witnessed evidence in favor of contactee-ETI communication, then I am arguing for the ufologist to consider future contactee cases as potential objects of investigation.

Since the range of legitimate UFO data varies widely and is regulated by the background and opinions of the individual investigator, the inclusion of the contactee case would constitute about the widest possible scope of acceptance. Perhaps the contactee cases will prove to be false and we will learn a little more about humans, but if just one contactee case proves true, then the door is open for further consideration and insight into the elusive mystery of the UFOs.

Here is a partial list of contactees who have experienced electronic communication and/or on-board contacts with human entities given with the date of their initial reported experience. All contactees were repeaters except one.

Chapter 2 - ABDUCTIONS AND ANOMALIES

Do UFOs travel outside of linear time? What is linear time? Are there parallel universes where time runs at a different rate than that which we take as normal? As we probe deeper into the UFO phenomenon, these questions take on a new reality.

One of the strangest UFO abductions on record happened to Corporal Armando Valdes on April 25, 1977 when an oval-shaped UFO descended to hover near a secret Chilean Army Post at Pampa Lluscoma, close to the Bolivian border. Corporal Valdes went to investigate a violet light that suddenly appeared at 3:50 AM. When the corporal returned in 15 minutes, his mind was blank, his calendar watch had advanced by 5 days and he had a sudden, five-day growth of beard on his face! What happened to corporal Valdes? Could he have literally moved five days ahead in time while the rest of the world only passed through fifteen minutes?

This story brings to mind the "twin paradox", a thought experiment based on the theory of special relativity. The theory predicts the existence of a time dilation effect. As a spaceship travels away from the earth and attains a velocity of 90 percent of the speed of light, an observer on earth will note that time on the ship will be running only about half as fast as that on earth. Even biological clocks will run slower and the crew of the ship will age only half as fast as the people on earth.

Suppose that our spaceship departs on a journey to a nearby star and maintains a velocity of 90 percent of light speed (.9c), and the twin of an observer on earth is the pilot of the spaceship. When the pilot returns to earth, he will have aged about half as fast as his twin on earth, and will actually be younger. The two, together, may not look like twins anymore.

Corporal Valdes, however, appears to have aged faster than his fellow soldiers. His biological clock was speeded up, not slowed down relative to his compatriots. Rather than a time dilation effect, we seem to have a time compression effect. Could it be that corporal Valdes' velocity somehow slowed, or his time pulse rate increased?

If all objects in the universe were simply enduring, but not moving, we would be hard pressed to invent time. Our measurement of time is based on movement, primarily the movement of periodic systems such as planets, pendulums, and atoms. The period of a regular oscillator can be made a standard unit of time. The time dilation effect, according to some hypotheses, is due to the retardation of oscillator movement by the drag or resistance of space. This postulates that space has some substantial properties. If an oscillator is brought into proximity of a strong gravity field such as a black hole, the oscillator will slow down. We can postulate placing an oscillator in a counter-gravity field and assume that the oscillator runs faster than normal. This serves as a basic model for time compression. Further, a parallel universe with a different density of matter may have faster oscillators relative to our universe and someone going from our universe to the parallel universe would suffer accelerated aging upon return to earth-normal universe.

Of course, we do not know what really happened to Corporal Valdes, but we do know that some odd phenomena affecting time has occured from contact with UFOs.

About ten years ago a few scientists and engineers, who worked for NASA and shared an interest in UFO abductions, came together to form a group they called Project VISIT - Vehicle Internal Systems Investigative Team. They studied about 130 cases of UFO abductions with the goal of constructing a model of UFOs, their operation, and the entities who crew UFOs.

They found:

> UFOs have bright interior lighting
> Abductees undergo a medical-type examination with apparently highly sophisticated equipment
> Burns are suffered by many abductees
> Time loss - from 20 minutes to 3 hours is common

Project VISIT member, Dr. Richard Niemtzow, described the crew members as four feet tall, hairless, grey in color, with no nose, a small mouth and large slanted eyes. The grey humanoid is emotionless and communicates by telepathy.

The Greys have earned a reputation quite different than the Nordic blondes and other reported species. Most of the abductions are done by Greys and by more than one variation of Grey. The Greys do most of the biological intervening on abductees. Tans, Whites, and Blues have also been reported by abductees. I have personally had some sort of encounter with what I call the Whites. They are small with extremely white skin and black wrap-around eyes.

Two significant abductions took place in 1975. The first was Sergeant Charles Moody who was taken aboard an unidentified alien vehicle near Alamogordo, New Mexico on August 13 and the second was Travis Walton near Heber, Arizona on November 5.

Sergeant Moody went out for a drive after mindnight on the morning of August 13 for the purpose of viewing the Perseid meteor shower. He had taken a dirt road to an uninhabited area of the desert away from the interfering lights of Alamogordo. He was startled to see an unidentified aircraft, about twenty feet wide by fifty feet long, wobble in for a landing. Moody decided to make a quick exit and put the key in the ignition and attempted to start his car, but it wouldn't start. Beings about five feet tall with large heads, thin lips, round eyes, and hairless took Moody aboard their craft. He relates a number of items that correlate with similar descriptions given by the early contactees (Adamski, Van Tassel, etc.):

>The leader knows his name and could read his mind
>The lighting is indirect (diffuse)
>Spherical crystals used in energy for propulsion
>The existence of a mother ship

The aliens told Moody that they had a problem with our radar because it interferred with their navigational device and jammed their control. This statement is of paramount interest when we consider the cases of crashed disks found in New Mexico in the late 40s. It is rumored that the disks met their destruction because of interference caused by our radar emissions. Today, we seem to be losing some high-tech helicopters for the same reason.

Travis Walton's abduction is significant in two ways. He encountered beings similar in appearance to the ones encountered by Moody, and also encountered a sandy-haired Nordic blonde type who had golden-hazel colored eyes. Early day contactees met similar sandy-haired Nordic aliens who passed on messages of peace and brotherhood. Rather than looking at some of these cases as hoaxes, perhaps they should be evaluated as part of an early ploy to make contact with earth humans. The books should not be closed on some of these early stories yet. Stranger events have occured since the 1950s.

On December 3, 1967, Patrolman Herb Schirmer, of Ashland, Nebraska was abducted by another alien group. Schirmer was told that the alien ship operated through reversible electro-magnetism.

Schirmer was told that the alien ships were "knocked out of the air by radar" and that this was somehow due to ionization (by radar?). Like Moody later, Schirmer was told the craft he was aboard was an observation craft, and that such craft were carried aboard a mother ship.

Schirmer also described a disk-shaped object about six-feet in diameter used for remote-controlled reconnaisance and surveillance that transmitted sound and pictures back to a viewing screen. Adamski and other contactees reported seeing these same remote scanners aboard mother ships in 1955-56. Coincidence?

Schirmer also witnessed how the aliens drew power from a power line using a rod-like antenna. A similar mechanism was seen by contactee Russell Grissom of Phoenix. He described the device as a pitot tube extending from the saucer to the power line.

Bill Hermann, an abductee from Charleston, South Carolina was told in 1979 that radar emissions from earth installations can interfere with "Network" vehicles. Physicist Paul Bennewitz of Albuquerque also claimed contact with the "Network". These contacts reveal that the Greys belong to an organization they refer to as the Network in our language. Other organizations said to exist are the Alliance, the Assembly, and the Confederation.

The most remarkable abductee I met and investigated was Brian A. Scott, a design engineer who underwent six abductions over a period of five years. I first met Brian in 1976 and was impressed by the amount of data he allegedly received from beings from another solar system. This was unlike other cases I had studied in the volume of data that Brian supplied far exceeded the norm.

Brian had first seen a strange ball of light on his 16th birthday, on October 12, 1959. The glowing orange ball came to within a foot of him, then darted skyward, leaving the youthful Brian dumbfounded. The ball of light returned many times later, and on one occasion Brian tried to repel the ball from his house using a broom stick.

Brian's first encounter with alien entitites took place on the night of March 14, 1971 near Apache Junction, Arizona. Apache Junction is located near the haunting Superstition Mountains. Brian lost two hours of time the night of the first encounter.

Brian had gone out to Apache Junction that night about 9 PM with his friend Nick Corbin to look for a good range for target shooting with a pistol. He had left the main highway and followed a dirt road for a quarter of a mile. He then parked his car to have a look around. His attention was riveted by the sound of an animal in the distance, but he could not see the animal. As he looked above the Superstition peaks, he was amazed to see a glowing oval object hovering above the mountains. He began to realize that what he was seeing was not a conventional plane or helicopter as it was too large and had a "funny kind of glow around the thing."

The object began to move toward Brian and, as it did, his first thought was to run back to his car and leave the area as fast as he could. Before he could move, the object positioned itself directly over his head and appeared now so large that it filled the sky above him.

The next sensation Brian felt was that of being lifted into the air. Fruitlessly, he reached out to grab something to maintain balance. A feeling of hysteria overcame him. He was being pulled upward by an invisible force through a doorway and was deposited in an outer corridor of a craft where he could feel the mixing of warm and cool air. He could see the lights of Phoenix directly behind him.

When Brian turned in the doorway, he was astonished to see that his friend Nick Corbin had also been lifted aboard this object. The two of them could only stare at each other. Brian could see some bright light coming from the interior of the craft.

Suddenly a door seemed to explode open and Brian could see four silhouttes framed in the light of the open interior hatch. Two of the creatures approached Nick and two approached Brian. Within seconds the creatures began to undress both Nick and Brian. Nick started a struggle to resist the creature's efforts. Brian, seeing any resistance as futile, cooperated with the creatures and finished undressing himself. Nick passed out as the creatures took him off in one direction, and then took Brian in a separate direction.

Brian was taken for a short walk and then turned to the left where he faced another door with a symbol on it. The creature on Brian's left reached out and touched the center of the symbol on the door, and the door opened.

The creatures were described as being 7-1/2 feet tall, grey in color, with skin that reminded Brian of the skin of an elephant, with large hands and a very bulky body. Their hands ended in 3 fingers and an oddly bent thumb. The creatures seemed calm and certain of what they were doing.

Brian was led to an inner room, taken to the wall where the creatures then released their hold on Brian. It was at that time that Brian thought about bolting for the door to effect his escape, yet he felt restrained to the wall by an invisible force. Brian found that he could only follow the movements of the creatures with his eyes as they stepped behind a rectangular lighted console. While this occured, an intense beam of light was directed at him from a box attached to a pole that ran from floor to ceiling. A cable ran from the box up the pole. Another creature stood behind the box, manipulating it.

Brian noticed that the entire room was filled with a mist and he could smell an odor he described as that of dirty socks. The mist or vapor seemed to linger on the creature's skin and was absorbed by it.

The box was lowered to the floor, at which time Brian could feel the sensation of warm and cold fluids running up and down his legs. He distinctly got the feeling he had urinated, and he felt strange in the pit of his stomach as the light of the box played over his body. As the light shone in his eyes, it caused a numbing sensation and gave Brian a headache. At this point, the creature extinguished the light and departed through a doorway, at which time another creature entered the room. This new creature was taller than the others, almost nine feet tall!

The new creature approached Brian and placed his hand on top of Brian's head. Brian felt as if thousands of thoughts were rushing into his mind. Brian asked the creature who he was and what he wanted. Brian could hear the creature reply, but its speech was rapid and slurred. The creature replied again, this time at a slower rate and in perfect English, saying, "There will be no pain of this." At this time all pain fled from Brian's body. He continued to ask the creature who he was, where he was from, and what he wanted. The creature replied, "I will tell you, and I will show you." Then Brian got the sensation of leaving the craft as if its walls melted away. He saw a holographic-type projection of domed cities on the surface of an alien planet. The creature explained that this was his old home planet before its destruction, and before the time of the virus that had mutated and killed his people. The hulky creatures were not as they appeared to be, but were wearing a projected "cloak of sorrow" in memory of the days of those who had gone before them. The cloak was also a biological shield against contaminants.

After the projected image disappeared, Brian found himself free from restraint and could move freely again. As the creature turned to leave, Brian still demanded to know who the creature was. At this point the creature turned to face Brian and said, "I lift the veil of projection." Brian saw the creature in his true form as a human being about seven feet tall with long red hair and piercing blue eyes. The being further said, "I am Voltar," then left the room.

Brian was escorted back to the first corridor where he had entered the craft. There he saw his friend Nick Corbin once again, and his crumpled clothes were left for him to dress. In a gentle motion Brian was lifted into the air and deposited back on the desert where he began to walk, looking for help. He noticed a light on the ground, which he discovered to be his own flashlight that he had dropped when he first sighted the UFO. As he returned to his car, he could remember clearly everything that had just happened. Later, after turning on his car radio and discovering it was now 11:10 p.m., and that he had been out and away from his car for two hours, he began to forget. Brian had over an hour's drive to get home to where he lived in Glendale. By the time he arrived home, he could only remember seeing a strange light in the sky.

Brian had five subsequent abductions with the last abduction occuring on June 22, 1976. Brian went through a post-abduction phase involving trances, automatic writings and drawings, and an experience of transformation on December 22, 1976 at the ruins of Tiahuanaco, Bolivia. After that time he was given ten projects to accomplish and has quietly disappeared to work on these projects to be culminated by December 25, 2011.

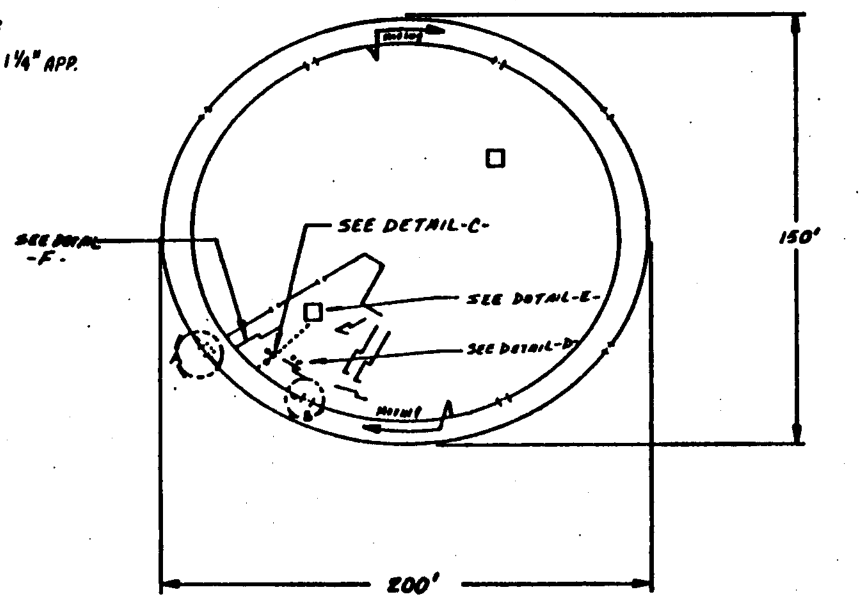

On May 8, 1981 I was attempting to fall asleep at my house on Marlette Street in Glendale, Arizona when, in a hypnogogic state, I noticed intruders had appeared in my bedroom door. I could not move, but I was aware of three entities in helmets at the foot of my bed. I seemed to be in a dream-like state, yet I was aware of the room, the bed, and the visitors. It was after midnight. The leader took off his helmet and I could see very white skin, and luminous, flashing, and moving black wrap-around eyes; the being must have been about 3-1/2 to 4 feet tall. He identified himself as Yamatrix. He said he had just come from the south, near Casa Grande. When I asked him where he was from, from "out there", he replied, "The Pleiades". When I asked him how it was that he was so mentally developed, he turned in profile to show me the shape of his bulbous head. Then, looking at me, I heard a sound, like a buzz go through my head, then I become fully aware and jumped to my feet. They were gone! The air was filled with ozone, a pungent smell that caused me to look for burned wiring until I realized it was a byproduct of their presence. The next day I discovered that a pulsating white light was hovering above Glendale at the time I was having this experience. A friend of mine who lived in Casa Grande at the time reported to me that he had seen a light that night and awoke in his trailer to a pungent scent of ozone! Dream or reality? I am convinced that I had some sort of visitation that night and they left me with a little more knowledge that night than I previously had.

I will be discussing more abductions and alien biological and psychological interventions in the chapters ahead. Recent events indicate the aliens are drawing closer to us, and as we near the 1990s we may witness increasing proof of their presence in our lives.

Chapter 3 - CRASHED SAUCERS IN THE DESERT

A memo written to the Director of the FBI from Guy Hottel of SAC, Washington dated March 22, 1950 (See Section II) states that an investigator for the Air Force describes three so-called flying saucers and their pilots which had been recovered in New Mexico. It is stated in this memo, released in response to a Freedom of Information Act request, that it was believed that a high-powered radar set-up in that area interfered with the controling mechanism of the saucers, a story we have also heard from abductees.

It has often been mentioned in conversation that it is difficult to believe that an aircraft or spacecraft flown by technically advanced races could be prone to interference or malfunction. A simple review of our own history of air crashes involving technically sophisticated aircraft such as the F-16 or B-1B bomber refutes that idea. In fact there is support for the idea that highly complicated electronic systems can be prone to malfunction when subjected to radio, radar, or microwave emissions. Electromagnetic pulse (EMP) from a nuclear explosion can cause havoc with electronic devices.

Random noise can occur in transistors and other semiconductor devices. Any electric device which must receive electromagnetic radiation will pick up radiated random noise as well as signals.

In a Los Angeles Times news article (Nov. 9, 1987) it was stated that routine radio waves can knock the Army's most advanced battle transport helicopters out of the sky. Transmissions from radio antennas, radar, and microwave towers can interfere with the wiring and electrical components of the Army's UH-60 Black Hawk helicopters and generate potentially devastating false commands. One senior Army aviator said "EMI (electromagnetic interference) is causing these aircraft to flip upside down and crash and kill everybody aboard.." The article goes on to say that the Soviets are perfecting a radio-wave weapon to exploit this vulnerability.

An electromagnetic aircraft such as a flying saucer probably uses extremely compact micro-electronic circuits or field coils that are susceptible to EMI. ECM (Electronic countermeasures) are deliberately used by our military to jam signals and introduce noise into electronic circuits. It is even possible that the military has developed EMI weapons for the purpose of bringing down alien spacecraft.

I first got interested in crashed saucers in 1953 when I read Frank Scully's book, "Behind the Flying Saucers". In later years the story in the book regarding the retrieval of a large saucer near Aztec, New Mexico was discredited and interest in crashed saucers subsided. But rumours kept popping up of other crash-retrieval cases. The most documented case is the retrieval of saucer debris and pieces near Roswell, New Mexico in July of 1947. By the late 70's interest in crashed disks had revived and Leonard Stringfield and William Moore began to gather information from a number of witnesses who wanted to remain anonymous in many cases. It began to look like the Air Force was hiding the world's biggest secret. Alien craft and alien beings had been recovered for analysis by some of our top scientific minds.

In 1977 I interviewed Guy Kirkwood for over four hours concerning his story that he had been on a UFO photo-recon mission for the Air Force back in 1956 when he was stationed in Colorado. His F-86 Sabre Jet had movie cameras installed and his squadron leader, a Colonel Peterson (who it turned out was a contactee) led them on UFO hunt missions in the skies over Colorado. Guy relates that they had three successful encounters and rolled the movie film. On the last of the three encounters, they (the squadron) were told to turn to a certain radio frequency and when accomplished, Guy heard a clear voice allegedly from the alien craft speaking in perfect English in reply to questions posed by Colonel Peterson. The voice communication allegedly lasted 22 minutes and revealed the origin and purpose of the mysterious craft. On one of the encounters, Guy relates losing instrument control (the electromagnetic effect) and having to fly an F-86 by the seat of his pants.

In 1980 I talked to ex-Navy seaman Wayne Henthorne who reported to me that he and a friend had encountered a strange sight near Globe, Arizona in January 1947. They were driving a jeep through an area that found to be blockaded by some sort of military patrol. Beyond a cordoned off location they could see a large saucer with a glassy dome sitting on some kind of landing legs. They were told to leave the area and say nothing about what they had seen.

Also in 1980 a Ms. C.M. had come into contact with a producer who claimed to be in possession of a 17 minute segment of film showing a retrieved saucer and 5 alien bodies. The segment of film had apparently been secreted out of Air Force archives and he wanted to show it to some interested researcher but feared being caught with what he believed to be very hot property. I attempted to connect

Ms. C.M. with researchers Wendelle Stevens and later Len Stringfield when I met Mr. Stringfield at the 1980 MUFON Symposium. Unfortunately, even though a telephone connection had been made with the frightened witness, he backed out of any meeting and eventually ceased all further contact. Rumors of films of this nature have circulated before, but as far as I know no one has seen such a film, nor do I know how he would convince anyone of its authenticity, but it would create a stir if a UFO organization or researcher ever managed to get their hands on one.

In 1981 I interviewed former Captain Creighton who told me how he took movie film of a UFO on a radar screen when serving at a base in Wisconsin, but his superior officer disposed of the film, not wanting to get involved with the UFO redtape.

In 1982 I interviewed a Ms. Sylvia whose daughter-in-law was stationed at Luke AFB in Arizona when a formation of unknowns flew over Phoenix and were tracked by radar at the base. Her daugher-in-law reported that some sort of communication was received from the UFO and recorded on digital tape which was later time-locked in a vault and picked up by a visiting General the next day.

In April 1988 while visiting Aztec, Dulce, and Albuquerque, New Mexico to investigate sites of alien activity, I ran across another man who had been stationed in San Antonio, Texas in the Army circa 1948 when he had been called out on an assignment to pick up fragments of what he thought to be titanium. The site of the crash of a mysterious object was 10 hours (approx. 500 miles) from San Antonio. This fellow had also seen a disk recently, which seemed to enter the side of the Monzano Mountains!

In 1988 I saw an article on an interview with a Dr. Perry from San Diego who claimed to have participated in a retrieval of what he termed a "Class 3" vehicle from Great Falls, Montana in 1947. He flew the craft in a transport to Wright-Patterson AFB. I called Dr. Perry and interviewed him on the phone, but he added little to what I had read in the article and he felt that he wasn't at liberty to disclose further data at the time. He seemed sincere.

A recent list of UFO crashes was published in the March 1989 Nevada Aerial Research News which was updated by Dr. J. F. Gille on January 7, 1989. I would like to reproduce some interesting data from this list. There are 31 crashes listed, data derived from some 11 printed sources. The first crash listed is the July 2, 1947 crash at Roswell with a body count of 6. The last one listed is May 1978 in Bolivia. I have a verbal report from Bill Steinman from a source in Albuquerque, New Mexico that a UFO crashed near Gallup, New Mexico in 1983 and was witnessed by a policeman in that town. The source said that alien pilots and Air Force pilots were found in the wreckage. If there is any truth to this report, it correlates with rumours that the Air Force is test flying alien craft from the Area 51 facility in Nevada and perhaps in and out of other test areas. Since most of these events are not substantiated, nor thoroughly researched, the authenticity of this list is in question. However, the list is a starting point for further research for those who wish to pursue a frustrating path of investigation. Most of the crashes occurred so long ago that tracking down witnesses just doesn't seem feasible.

Leonard Stringfield's UFO Crash/Retrieval Syndrome Status Reports gives an excellent accounting of various guarded testimonies and I recommend them highly for those researching the UFO coverup. So many testimonies cannot be ignored. There are too few researchers with any resources doing any looking in this area. Bill Steinman was a very persistant researcher in this area. Though heavily criticized for backing the Aztec retrieval story, he was never dogmatic about what he had found. He just kept digging until he felt he was up against overwhelming government secrecy and UFO research was just costing him too much of his personal life. I sympathize with him. He tracked down every lead I could give him far more than I tracked down anything he gave me. I hope the truth he pursued so diligently will be his to know someday.

According to Bill Cooper's release of information on the MAJIC file, Pounce is the project formed to recover all downed/crashed craft and aliens. Mentioned often by other sources is the existence of an Air Force team referred to as the Blue Beret Rapid Deployment Crash Recovery team. Project Pounce seems to be related to the activities of some other group, perhaps the Majestic-12 group or another who hires contractors to remove a vehicle, bury it in place or construct a structure to hide it while a survey team removes any valuable pieces from the crashed craft. An anonymously written document by someone who worked on this project is included in Section II and probably appears here for the first time. It is offered for information purposes only.

Our sources say that some of the saucers retrieved intact are taken to the flight test facility at Area 51 at Groom Lake in Nevada to be flight tested. The Alien Technology Center at Nellis AFB, Nevada may be just what it says it is. John Lear pointed out a facility to me at the back of the base that he called "A-2", a facility he was told houses some of the recovered alien technology.

The big prize behind all the secrecy is the alien technology. With it, we could conquer worlds!

Chapter 4 - ALIEN MAGIC OR ALIEN TECHNOLOGY?

A typical abduction case in 1969, 1979, or 1989 will include elements that seem almost magical to us. There are levels of reality in abduction scenarios that almost seem to go beyond common sense reality. In order to illustrate some of these elements, I would like to begin with another UFO abduction story that I investigated a few years ago. The participants were good friends of mine.

Back in 1980 when living in Arizona, I had been investigating a region around the White Tank Mountains, west of Phoenix, Arizona as a possible UFO "window" area. On the night of June 28, 1980 I had organized a field trip with cameras into the White Tank Regional Park. I was upset earlier that day because I could not make contact with Carla (not her real name) or her mother Lois. They had both expressed in an interest in going on the field trip. A group of us stayed in the park area until 11:30 p.m. that night when we decided to retire for coffee. A full moon was rising in the east behind scattered clouds. It was two days later when I learned that Carla and Lois had started out looking for us that night, but had become lost on the roads west. What we had gone to look for, they had encountered in a most unexpected manner.

Lois, her daughter Carla, granddaughter Lori, and their two dogs packed into their little Honda Civic and set out to find the park late on the night of the 28th. Somehow they had lost directions and ended up on the extreme end of Northern Avenue where the paved road turned into a dirt road. They had decided to proceed down the dirt road as the White Tanks were visible and appeared to be only a short way down the road, but a dead-end sign put a halt to their progress so they decided to park at an oblique angle on the road with their car facing southeast.

It was a hot night and Lois, Carla, and Lori were all alert and in high spirits. They had rolled all the windows down to aerate the car and Lori had crawled up front to situate herself between her mother Carla, who was driving, and Lois who had a full view of the White Tanks on the passenger side of the car. The two dogs were resting in the back seat. Lois called Lori's attention to what she felt were unusual lights at the base of the mountains. At this point, Carla started feeling uncontrollably drowsy. She asked Lois for the time. Lois replied that it was 1:44 a.m., then all of them fell fast asleep, even the dogs. The next awareness Carla had was hearing a voice she thought was her mother's saying "Oh, there is a car". Lois heard the same voice at the same time, but thought it was Carla. Lois glanced at her watch which now read 2:01 a.m. At the same time, Carla glanced out the front window of the car and saw what she thought was a beige-colored 1930 vintage Hearse drive past without a driver. A second later, Lois glimpsed the bright red taillights of the vehicle as it quickly headed down the road westward toward a gate marked "No Trespassing". They both realized they had not heard any motor sound or road sound, nor had they seen any dust kicked up in the vehicle's wake. Afraid at this point, Carla tried to start the Honda, but it initially failed to start. When she did get it started, she drove off in a cloud of dust, eager to leave the spooky area.

Later the next day Carla and Lois felt that something strange and significant had occurred to them during their 17 minutes of "sleep" on that dark deserted road. They went back to the same location to look for tracks from the mystery car. They found nothing at the site. Carla tried a meditation technique to aid her recall of the mysterious event and immediately saw images of helmeted little men. Lori remembered something too.

On June 31st I was notified of the incident by Lois. They knew and trusted me and wanted to find out further what happened. I asked if Carla was willing to try hypnotic regression, a technique I had learned when I was in college, and was told that she was. On July 2nd, I regressed Carla to the time of the incident. I suggested that she would be able to remember every detail of the incident clearly, but I refrained as much as possible from asking leading questions. I wanted Carla to do the talking. I was already familiar with other abduction stories and had investigated the Brian Scott case for a period of four years.

Carla recounted that after she had drifted off asleep on the early morning of the 29th, she awoke in a trance to see three small men dressed in diving suits surrounding her car. She was surprised by these suits as they seemed to be designed for ocean diving rather than special gear for breathing our atmosphere. The helmets had two-inch holes puncturing the surface. A ring-like lip surrounded each aperture. A gel-like substance glistened inside these holes.

Carla, Lois, and Lori all got out of the car. Lois said to Carla, "this is it" and all three of them bounced or floated over a three-foot irrigation canal filled with flowing water and moved off in the direction of a silvery dome that was some hundred yards to the south of the road.

A group of us had gone out later to inspect the abduction site and later it was filmed by Jim Yaoi of Nippon Television. The area is heavily thicketed; the three girls would have to have been moved by some sort of levitation, or they would have either fallen into the irrigation canal or become entangled in the brush at night. Inspection of the site revealed another dirt road some 100 feet south of Northern that could have been where the domed-object set down. No landing tracks were found.

Upon approaching the UFO, Carla could see another little man standing on the rim or lip that protruded approximately three feet from the bottom edge of the object. The dome had a silver-white sheen in the full moonlight. The little man pointed something at Carla that resembled a flashlight and a beam spread over her body. She felt that this was a purification process. A rectangular opening appeared in the side of the dome and Carla entered the UFO, but does not know whether her mother and daughter followed.

Carla counted five little men inside the first room she entered that she describes as the control room. This room was filled with buttons, display screens, and vari-colored lights, especially yellow lights. From this main control room she was directed up a ramp toward a wall. She describes the sensation of floating up the ramp. Wherever she places her hands or feet, she feels an electrical tingle and the area glows as if it were pressure-actuated plates. At the end of the ramp, she hears a sound and another door opens into a second room filled with bright blue lights.

In the second room she encounters a very tall man (more than seven feet tall) whose face is covered with a veil with designs and symbols on it. She sheds her clothing and the man directs her to recline on an L-shaped table. The table is anchored and suspened from the ceiling of this second room. Carla describes a place where she is to insert her feet. As she does so, she feels an electrical tingle and the foot plate begins to glow. The tall man forms words inside her head. He says he is adjusting her energy centers and that this is necessary for the critical functioning of her faculties. Carla feels pain in her ear during the adjustment process. Afterwards, he has her get off the table, dress, and sit in a chair that is in the center of the room.

Carla calls the tall man her "father". This does not seem to make much sense, but she insists that she is related to this being. He has come to warn her that time is short and that she had volunteered to assist him in a mission on earth and must work on improving her condition. He waves his hand and a shelf of books appears and she is asked to pick one book. She does. The book is filled with charts and diagrams. He instructs her to read books of this nature in the future. He repeats that time is short to tell the people of earth about UFOs and their mission to earth. He says that she must now depart the craft, but she doesn't want to leave. She became very emotional when recounting the departure scene, but she was compelled to follow his directions.

As she was returned to the car by the little men, she turned around to look one more time, and the little men suddenly vanished. Carla had her feet dangling out the window when she had fallen into the trance, but upon awakening, her feet were planted on the floor of the car. It was upon awakening that she saw the mystery car pass in the night as if it were a moving hologram materialized by the same force which had materialized the shelf of books on the craft.

Lois, Carla, and Lori are very honest and sincere people. They were already somewhat versed in UFO lore when this incident occurred, but it is doubtful they fabricated this story based on anything they had heard or read before. A week later Carla and Lois reported having car trouble in northern Arizona and seeing an arc of white light over the road at midnight. They could not see the source of this strange light. Both Lois and Carla experienced weight loss after the event and continue to experience major changes in their lives.

This case is typical in some ways of other abduction cases I have investigated, and atypical in other ways. Carla, herself, could have been some hybrid of the alien man who abducted her. Lois considers this a possiblity. Whatever the case may be, it seems that the aliens are getting more brazen in abducting whole families and perhaps the time is growing short to that day when we will begin to understand the purpose of their mission to earth.

There was nothing malicious or frightening about this experience and it seemed to involve both elements of magic and technology. The projected appearance of the old hearse and the projected appearance of a library shelf full of books seem to be accomplished by the wave of a magic wand. But if we invoke Clarke's thesis, then this might be seen as a further demonstration of an advanced technology. We have become familiar with the idea of a hologram and how an image can be projected in space through the process of transmission holography. As we rotate around the field of projection, the hologram takes on a life-like quality of its own. But holograms are not something that you can mistake for a real object as reaching out to touch one dispels the illusion promptly. If we extend our concept of the hologram to include other senses, we can begin to understand how these projected images could be touched by Carla. We may not understand the technological process that makes this possible, but another contactee suggested to me that the process might result from the physical stimulation of the brain to induce it to see a sort of controlled imaginal hallucination rather than a physically projected image. She called the resultant object a vibragram. Such an idea has frightening implications. Aliens who can control our senses to such a high degree could also control our behavior to a very high degree. Let us hope that if such technology exists that is in the hands of a benevolent species.

Some will question whether the little guys, the saucer, and all the objects experienced by Carla are real as opposed to projected objects. That would be difficult to answer. However, there may be some tell-tale clues that open the door to an answer. The projected Hearse did not make motor sounds or road noise as a real car would do and the persistence of the image against the background seemed limited in time and space.

Another oft reported phenomena is the seeming passage of the aliens through closed windows, closed doors, or the walls of a house. Sometimes the abductee reports being taken through the wall or window. In the case of Jayne, she awoke at four in the morning to see tall entities with bright lights pass through the locked sliding glass doors of the second-floor balcony of her apartment. They announced that what they had to do would not take long; then she blacked out and awoke two hours and forty-five minutes later. She found marks on her body and finger nails clipped (except for one!). If these entities are physical, their passage through a solid barrier seems magical. It is as if their entry into the apartment took place via a higher dimension of space where the wall was no more of an obstruction than a line is to the passage of a solid object. A further possibility is the existence of an energy dimension. This idea, which has been around for some time, posits the possibility that matter vibrates at different frequencies and that matter vibrating at a higher speed would pass through our material world as light passes through glass.

Of course what we have not touched upon here is the technology of alien spacecraft. Entire books have been written about UFOs and anti-gravity. I have researched, experimented with, and collected papers from many sources on this highly interesting subject. One of those papers will be included in Section II for those who have a technical bent.

Various sizes and shapes of UFOs have been observed since the early years. Disks, cigars, spheres, cones, deltas, boomerangs, and bells have been seen. Disks have been observed exceeding an estimated 20,000 miles per hour within the atmosphere, a velocity that would disintegrate any known aircraft. Disks have been observed to hover and gently rock or sway when hovering. Tiny disks no more than a foot in diameter and cigars estimated to be a quarter-mile in length have been seen. The manufacturing effort to build huge mother ships would be enormous and would not go undetected if built on earth. Disks have been seen to execute right-angled turns, a manuever which would squash a pilot--human or alien--unless the disk drive were anti-inertial.

Scientist Kenneth W. Behrendt publishes a technical newsletter called AURA (Annals of Ufological Research Advances) in which he attempts to explain various characteristics of UFO flight dynamics. He calls his theory Anti-Mass Field Physics. Kenneth is a recent addition to a line of scientific speculators who have postulated various theories regarding saucer dynamics. Leonard G. Cramp wrote two books on his theories, the first one called "Space, Gravity, and the Flying Saucer" and the second called "Pieces of a Jigsaw". Most theories regarding UFO flight dynamics involve electric, magnetic, and gravitational field physics.

As you will see in the following chapter several aircraft companies showed an interest in gravitational field physics and hypotheses on how to overcome gravity through the use of field drive mechanisms. Most--if not all--of the observed flight behavior of UFOs has been convincingly explained by some of these theories. Lone inventors have claimed success in producing mass levitation through the generation of electric and magnetic field interaction. The electromagnetic effect--the stopping of automobile motors in the vicinity of UFOs, or the disturbance of aircraft instruments under the influence of a UFO--is attributed to the intense magneto-hydrodynamic forces generated by the UFO motors. All of this illustrates the idea that UFO technology is not entirely beyond our comprehension. The UFO provides us with a wonderful stimulus for furthering our scientific research. Any scientist convinced of the reality of these alien objects cannot help but be fascinated by the alien's magical technology.

Chapter 5 - IS THERE A SECRET U.S. SPACE PROGRAM?

While our civilian space efforts continue to use an already obsolete rocket shuttle technology to boost payloads into earth orbit, it is clearly possible that a secret military program using advanced nuclear-powered magneto-hydrodynamically propelled spacecraft has already engaged in classified military missions to orbital space and perhaps to other bodies in the solar system.

The advanced technology demonstrated by UFOs apparently has been looked into--and perhaps successfully replicated--by some of our world's leading scientists. The legacy of World War II--rockets and atom bombs--established a new level of importance for military technology. Wars of the future, it was widely believed, would be won by the power of advanced military technology. At the end of World War II, Werner Von Braun and 127 other "V-2" rocket scientists and technicians arrived in Boston on September 20, 1945 and were taken to the White Sands missile base to begin work on rockets for the U.S. Army. They launched the world's first two-stage rocket, using a salvaged V-2 mounted by a smaller booster rocket. While the rocket scientists launched their rockets, flying saucers overflew their activities on August 29, 1949. Observation made through a photo theodolite showed the UFO to be egg-shaped, fantastic in size, and traveling at possibly three to four miles a second! (1) Perhaps UFOs like this were an inspiration to the rocket scientists toward achieving something better than a chemical-burning booster rocket.

Advanced aerial technology was more than just a bright idea; it was a military imperative. According to an article from the New York Herald-Tribune of Sunday Nov. 20, 1955, a number of America's top scientific laboratories and research centers were then deeply engaged in gravity research. Not only was pure research conducted at scientific centers such as the Institute for Advanced Study at Princeton, New Jersey, but practical research at several aircraft companies which included the Glenn L. Martin Company at Baltimore, Convair of San Diego, Bell Aircraft of Buffalo, and Sikorsky division of United Aircraft. Martin Aircraft put under contract two of Europe's leading theoretical experts on gravity and electromagnetic fields - Dr. Berkhard Heim of Gottinger University and Dr. Pascual Jordan of Hamburg University (2).

"Spaceships capable of accelerating in a few seconds to speeds of many thousand miles per hour and making sudden changes of course at these speeds without subjecting their passengers to the so-called 'G-forces' caused by gravity's pull also are envisioned", the article states. "These concepts are part of a new program to solve the secret of gravity, and universal gravitation already in progress in many top scientific laboratories and long-established industrial firms of the nation." (italics added) It seems such experiments had already become a part of some wide-ranging national program to duplicate the aerodynamic feats of the mysterious flying disks; if these disks were not taken seriously, then why was such an intensive study initiated to duplicate their incredible flight characteristics?

Michael E. Gluharff, son of the designer of the Sikorsky helicopter, believed that an atomic-electronic flying disk would be able to control its acceleration to any speed, and radial electronic beams around the saucer's rim (a beamship?) would be operating constantly to sustain flight by acting against gravity. U.S. aircraft have already worked with nuclear fuels and equipment to cancel our gravity instead of fighting it, according to the article.

Could one of these atomic-powered craft have gotten out of control as described in the Cash-Landrum close-encounter in Texas in 1980? Betty Cash and Vicky Landrum reported witnessing a fiery-looking object hovering over Texas highway 1485 on Dec. 29, 1980. Red-orange flames were emitted by the UFO. Intense heat and loud roaring noise terrified the ladies and Vicky's seven-year old grandson, Colby. When the UFO rose and moved away, it was pursued by more than twenty unidentified helicopters. Betty Cash came down ill the next day and suffered from heat or radiation burns. She lost hair, and experienced nausea, vomiting, and conjunctivitis--all symptoms of radiation exposure. Vicky and Colby experienced milder symptoms. John F. Shuessler, a NASA engineer and MUFON investigator looked into the case in detail and even contacted a lieutenant at the Pentagon in an attempt to trace the origin of the mysterious helicopters. Mysterious black unmarked helicopters have also been spotted around sites of cattle mutilations. UFOs have been seen around cattle mutilation sites as well. There seems to be a close link between UFO activities and mystery helicopters. The Cash-Landrum case remains unresolved to this day.

In the early fifties the American scientist T. Townsend Brown was working on problems of electrogravitics. He constructed disk-shaped capacitors with a propulsive movement in the direction of the positive electrode, so the higher the charge, the more intense the electrogravitic field. With a charge of several hundred kilovolts, a small two-foot disk would reach speeds of several hundred miles per hour! Brown applied for a patent on his Electrokinetic Propulsion System in May 1952, stating in his application that his "invention utilizes a heretofore unknown electrokinetic phenomenon which I have discovered; namely, that when a pair of electrodes of appropriate form are held in a certain fixed spaced relation to each other and immersed in a dielectric medium and then oppositely charged to an appropriate degree, a force is produced tending to move the pair of electrodes through the medium." In other words, the apparatus becomes an electric flying frisbee propelled by a fixed pair of highly-charged electrodes.

T.T. Brown was not the only inventor to apply for a patent using electric, magnetic, or electromagnetic modes of propulsion. W.J. Coleman took out a patent for electrostatic propulsion in January 1963. H.C. Dudley was granted a patent on electrostatic control and propulsion in June 1963. G.A. Hill suggested using an ionized boundary layer as a fluid pumping system in his patent dated June 25, 1963. W.A. Rice had a similar idea utilizing an electrolytic cell in his patent of October 1963. G.E. Hagen invented a kind of flying electric grid patented in February 1964. J.F. King Jr. patented a magneto-hydrodynamic propulsion apparatus in May 1967, and E.C. Okress patented a quasi-corona aerodynamic vehicle in September 1969.

Most of these patents suggest modes of propulsion that have been theorized as propelling the mysterious flying disks that have been visiting earth's atmosphere since 1947, or before. Since then, we have heard rumors, with testimony by first and second-hand witnesses as recounted in an earlier chapter, that alien craft have crashed or come down by remote control at various remote locations. Pieces of alien craft or whole alien craft and alien bodies have been recovered by military teams and transported to Wright-Patterson AFB in Cincinatti, Ohio or some other secure government installation. If only a few of the reports of recoveries are valid, then we can be sure that the Air Force Foreign Technology Division (or now named Alien Technology Division) made a thorough study of the extraterrestrial spacecraft technology and would have assessed how to duplicate the alien technology for the purpose of gaining an unprecedented military advantage. Some say that the acronym UFO then stands for "UnFunded Opportunities".

The principle in warfare of holding the high ground to achieve a tactical dominance is no better exemplified than in the tactical jet fighter. Its speed, manuverability, and weaponry make the jet fighter the eagle of the sky. The only craft that could threaten its dominion is a flying saucer. Jets such as the F-14 and F-16 can travel at velocities of Mach-II (twice the speed of sound), reach altitudes greater than 50,000 feet, roll, dive, and bank, but high G-forces limit the performance capability of such jets. Saucers, on the other hand, seem impervious to G-forces, can hover, meander along, travel vertically, execute right-angled turns, and accelerate at tremendous velocity with seeming ease.

The Pentagon has long carried on a hidden military agenda for the uses of the near-earth space environment. The Air Force, Navy, and CIA all had space programs under development by the mid-fifties. The Air Force Space Division and Ballistic Missle Office has long had a vested interest in the space shuttle for boosting reconnaissance satellites into orbit for the super secret National Reconnaisance Office as well as its potential for lifting orbital pieces of SDI hardware into space. A top-secret project even vaster in scope than the Manhattan Project could conceivably give us unearthly power over any foe on earth. The flying saucer has become the symbol for that new power, but it appears that the technology itself commands far more attention and exploration than a mere symbol within the hidden reaches of our military-industrial complex, and accidents have been documented.

In April 1984 Lt. General Robert Bond, Vice Commander of the U.S. Air Force Systems Command was killed while test flying a secret aircraft over the Groom Lake area, a top secret facility located about 100 miles north of Las Vegas, Nevada. (3) This facility is designated "Area 51". The Systems Command reputedly uses this facility to test fly spy planes, such as the SR-71 Blackbird or its successor, the Aurora. According to the February 1988 issue of Gung-Ho magazine which ran a feature article on Area 51, some of the craft being flown out of that test facility would make George Lucas drool!

One of allegedly top secret documents making the rounds in the UFO community refers to a sub-project Snowbird under an umbrella project Aquarius that was established in 1972. Its mission was apparently to test fly a recovered alien aircraft, and the paper says the project is continuing in Nevada.

In the early 1960s a radio technician working at Area 51 reported seeing a saucer on the ground. It was some 20 or 30 feet in diameter, he said, and when it flew, it moved silently through the air. The technician also viewed a number of wooden shipping crates marked "Project Redlight". (4) That project may have been a forerunner to Snowbird.

Presently, the Air Force is trying to acquire 89,000 acres adjacent to the Groom Lake facility and to place the nearby Groom Mountains off limits to the public. (5)

Before and after the TV documentary "UFO Coverup - Live", there had been talk of an underground alien base located in the vicinity of the Groom Lake test site known as "Dreamland". Alien bases will be discussed in a later chapter. This adds a whole new dimension to the idea of a secret space program and hints at fantastic secret programs that take us more than one step beyond.

A friend of mine once moved to Riverton, Wyoming to escape from terrifying mysteries he encountered in New Mexico. He said that locals at Riverton asked him, "Are you here to work at the secret space project out at the jet airport?" Saucers were seen close to the ground in Riverton. One day my friend's truck broke down and he had to hitch a ride to town. A black Lincoln pulled up and a man dressed in black gave him a lift. The dashboard looked like a computer console. The MIB knew exactly where he wanted to be left off in front of the post office, but my friend had never told him.

Rocket scientist Willey Ley, who was one of the world's outstanding authorities on rockets and trans-stratospheric flight, firmly believed that flying saucers were either a U.S. military secret, or were from another planet. (5) Many Ufologists in the U.S. favor the extraterrestrial origin of flying saucers and many have come to accept the probability of a coverup. If we are to solve the flying saucer mystery in the near future, we need to know what the government has discovered concerning the origins of these craft. Pilots have lost their lives and innocent citizens have been terrorized by the UFO phenomena. Flying saucers are serious business, and the public should be told the truth. This does not mean they will be told the truth.

As this book goes to press, we have learned that a theoretical physicist has come forth--in an interview on Las Vegas Television (Channel 8) on May 15th--with a statement about his involvement in the test flight project flying recovered alien space craft at a Groom Lake Facility designated S-4, which is just south of Area 51. He stated that the project had nine saucers in its possession, and at least four or five of these saucers were fully operational. He further said that the saucers used gravity propulsion and an anti matter reactor as an energy source, and that this project was funded out of the SDI budget. He stated that the project was under the control of the U.S. Navy. When asked whether making this information public would cause problems for him, he stated that he had been charged with espionage and that his life and that of his wife had been threatened, but it was his belief that keeping this information from the public was a crime against the people and the scientific community.

Many interests are at stake. Certain people feel its better if the public is left ignorant. We need to know the consequences of choosing ignorance over enlightenment.

Chapter 6 - ARE THERE ALIEN BASES ON EARTH?

Contactees often told stories of alien bases on the moon and the earth. Witnesses have told of sighting glowing disks going into mountain-side entrances. The lure of alien bases under the earth or underwater has increased in recent years with rumors of underground installations in New Mexico and Nevada and possibly elsewhere.

In 1980 when I lived in Glendale, Arizona I received a call from my friend Walter Baumgartner who published a magazine of limited circulation called "Energy Unlimited". Walter was a natural technologist. He said that he had started working for a physicist by the name of Paul Bennewitz at Thunder Scientific labs in Albuquerque, New Mexico. He then proceeded to tell me the fantastic story that Mr. Bennewitz had succeeded in communicating with aliens at an underground base situated near Mt. Archuleta in the town of Dulce that was close to the Colorado border and situated on the Jicarrilla Apache Indian Reservation. He told me that these little grey aliens were abducting and implanting people with a device inserted at the base of the skull for the purpose of monitoring and controlling humans. He said that the government knew about this and was involved with alien activities. He also stated that the aliens feared our nuclear weapons and nuclear radiation. He told me that Paul was working on a weapon that would be effective against these aliens.

I had trouble believing Walter at that time as I had few reports of menacing aliens. I was sure that most of our extraterrestrial visitors behaved in a friendly , or at least non-menacing, fashion. To believe that an alien menace existed in our midst was frightening and to believe that someone had evidence of this was alarming. Maybe this man Paul Bennewitz was just a story-teller. But Walter assured me that Paul had established contact with the aliens over his computers and had a small device that received video from the alien transmission. I trusted Walter's testimony as I knew him to be an honest man, but I felt that he had come into contact with something insidious and should think seriously about discontinuing his pursuit. I do not think he accepted my suggestions very readily at the time, but later he did break off with Paul and has not discussed it with me since.

In March 1988 I heard about Bennewitz and the Dulce facility again from John Lear. At the time I was putting in weekly calls to Bill Steinman who informed me about Lear's report concerning a secret alliance between the U.S. and an alien nation. During that month I was checking out other sources on the Aztec crash and called Linda Howe to question her on what she saw listed in a government briefing paper. She confirmed to me that she saw the Aztec crash listed in the paper. She had had contact with a Richard Doty, an agent with the Air Force OSI at Kirtland AFB in Albuquerque. Doty showed her the briefing document. She told me that she hoped that the public would be responsible enough to face the truth. When I received the "Dulce Papers" in the mail I started to see the implications of alien bases and felt like I had just entered the Twilight Zone.

I was curious about the Greys as they were called. I remembered that a man named John Randall had published some material on these entities in a booklet called "Cars From the Stars". I called John on the phone. He said that years ago an Army Major introduced him to an engineer who claimed he was from another planet from a system circling the star Archenar. John drove this man around for a few days, then finally drove him to a private ranch in Minden, Nevada where the engineer met his crew who were working on the repair of their spacecraft motor. When they had it repaired, they took off. Before this strange engineer departed he told John about the Greys from Zeta Reticuli. He mentioned four species and indicated that one of them was dangerous and out to enslave humans, but were afraid of our individual autonomy and our use of nuclear weapons. This is exactly what Walter had told me earlier. I was fascinated. John told me that they had enslaved five other planets and were working on ours. More UFO fiction? Perhaps this called for a little more serious investigation. I checked on Archenar and found it was listed as a spectral type B5 at approximately 114 LY distance from our sun.

The Dulce papers consisted of some drawings of entities in vats and artificial wombs and drawings of bizarre patterns. The drawings were said to be based on photos and a video which had been stolen from the base by someone who worked there for the government and who escaped when he found out he was no longer in agreement with the activities being conducted at the base. Little did I know that this individual would later make contact with a friend of mine and pass him detailed information that will appear later in Section II. I knew that this report of Dulce was going to require analysis to sort out fact from fiction, but it was hard to know where to begin.

By March 22, 1988 I had obtained John Lear's address and had decided to visit him and question him concerning what he knew about the Dulce Base. I was already planning to check out Dulce on my two-week vacation in April as well as Aztec and Albuquerque for information.

I listened to a tape again of an interview with Robert S. Carr. He believed that the retrieval from Aztec was taken to Edwards AFB only a few miles from where I live. He believes that President Eisenhower saw the disk at Edwards in 1954, and that he wanted to know three answers: 1) Where do they come from; 2) How do they fly; and 3) Why are they here. Good questions. Carr, himself, had met the little men from the UFOs at his home in Florida. By the time I had written to him in 1988 he was ill and refused to correspond further about his earlier statements.

On April 1 and 2, I spent 24 hours visiting with John Lear at his home in Las Vegas. He took out a stack of papers and had me peruse them at my leisure. His study room had walls covered with aircraft photos and certificates. There was no doubt in my mind that John loved flying. John is a soft spoken individual and frequently, while visiting him, I have watched him putter in the garden. We discussed Area 51. John had some long distance photos of the Groom Lake facility. The one thing that stood out in one photo was the radio telescope pointing straight up in the midst of a group of buildings. This scope was probably tracking any overhead spy satellites. He showed me the reference in the February 1988 issue of Gung-Ho magazine that insinuated that spacecraft were being test flown from this facility. John heard rumours that the Grays had a base under the Groom Mountains. This is the one we believe is called DREAMLAND. One of my sources (a leak) says DREAM is an acronym that stands for Data Repository Establishment and Maintenance. John told me the story of Mr. K whose son Robert was trapped inside a joint human-alien underground base in Utah. This Robert had apparently worked at Dulce Base at one time. Mr. K felt like he was being given the run-around by the military in his attempts to locate his son.

The alien bases were beginning to sound real, but how does one get proof of their existence? I have often thought that finding an alien base would be a good way of establishing communication with the aliens and of finding out more about them. The idea is not absurd. If the aliens have had long-term projects concerning earth humans, it seems logical that they would have established bases of operation preferably hidden from sight where they could conduct their observations in relative safety. Bases could be maintained for generations.

When I got back from Vegas I talked to my friend Jason about New Mexico. He said he had worked for a company that made radiation detectors and he had heard that a clean A-bomb was used to blast out a cavern underneath Dulce (circa 1972) and, shortly after, the cattle mutilations started in that area. Tom Adams and David Perkins investigated the first mutilations. Later state patrolman Gabe Valdez and retired scientist Howard Burgess got involved. A black helicopter dropped one of the animals near the investigator's campsite. Animals were also found in flowing water. UFOs were seen as well as unmarked helicopters. Jason also witnessed a 6-1/2 foot reptoid appear in his home that wore a belt with an amber light on it. His ex-wife encountered a light in the backyard and may have been abducted. That's when he decided to pull out of New Mexico.

Got a call from my friend Randolph later. He had been tipped off indirectly by some guy who works out at Edwards AFB that they were test flying a saucer that leaves an orange and blue trail and exceeds 15,000 mph in flight. I scanned the skies at the time designated, but it was so windy on that particular night that I could see little or nothing.

I learned that there were a few technical people who worked at Sandia Labs in Albuqerque who were interested in alien activity. One man I talked to, C.R. knew a mysterious Colonel Ronald Blackburn who was reputed to have said that there were 600 aliens at the Groom Lake facility in Nevada. C.R. had investigated a UFO crash case near Gallup, N.M. in 1983. This one was also investigated by Tommy Roy Blann. I heard of a Colonel Edwards in Albuquerque who knew the AFOSI agent Richard Doty. Doty had talked to some investigators about the government cover-up. Why? I didn't know.

On April 14, 1988 I talked with Bill Steinman again to see what progress he was making on finding out more about the crash-retrievals and the alien bases. I had given Bill a tip concerning a meeting I knew had taken place in early 1984 between General Glenn Miller, two friends of mine from Arizona, and film producer Robert Emeneggar. Miller had shown my friends photos locked away in a special room at Norton AFB. Hynek was there with them. I had learned that Colonel (USAF) William Coleman had authorized releasing 800 feet of film from Norton archives allegedly showing the landing of three aliens at Holloman AFB, New Mexico on April 25, 1964 and the film was seen by Emeneggar. A man named Robert Scott worked with Miller and had some connection with intelligence. Miller had his own contactee story to tell my friends. Emeneggar evidently has some inside contacts who knew the truth about alien visitors.

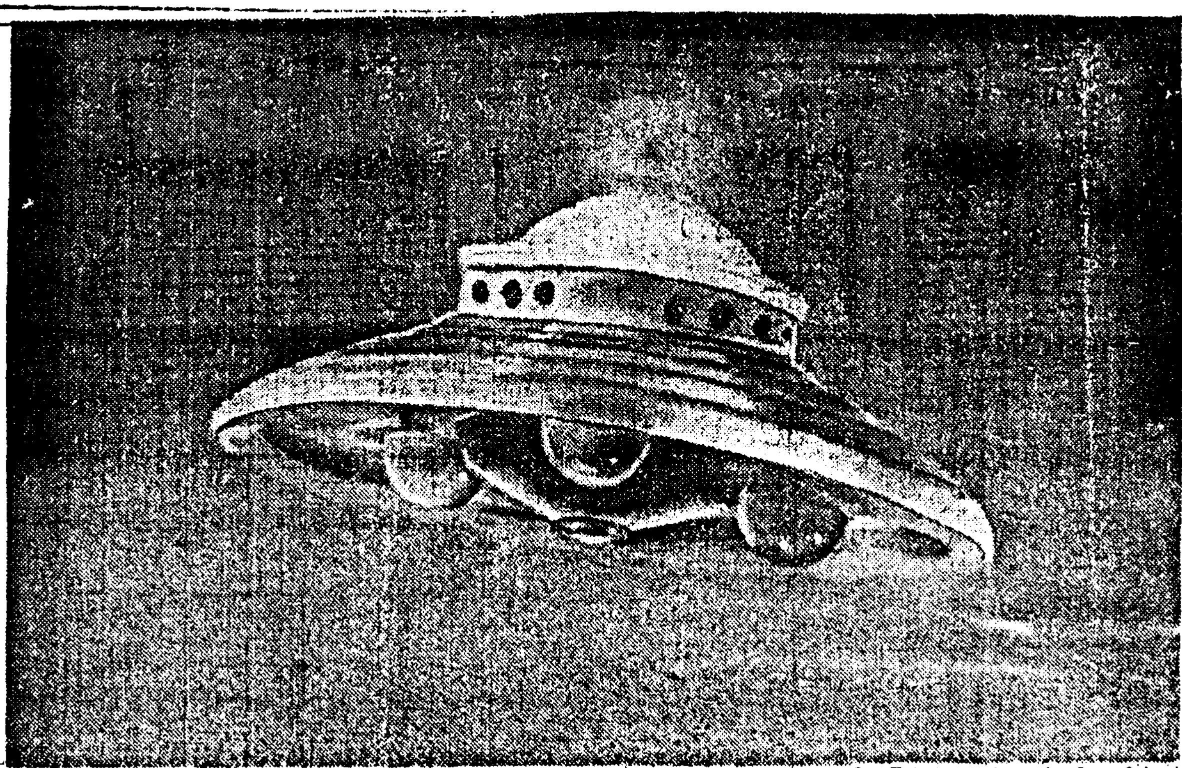

Bill Steinman had also mentioned that he talked to a man named Bill English who had read the 600+ page Project Grudge/Bluebook Report 13 that contained reports on alien autopsies, government communication with aliens, and photos of aliens. A Dr. Alfonso Lorenzo was said to be one of the medicos who worked with aliens designated as EBE-1 and EBE-2 (EBE is an acronym for Extraterrestrial Biological Entity). Perhaps the mysterious Colonel Blackburn knew what was going on from an inside view.

On April 19, 1988 my wife and I arrived in Dulce, N.M. at about 4:30 p.m. Dulce was a beautiful little mountain town sitting at an elevation exceeding 7500 feet. There was still snow on the ground by the Best Western Motel. I checked into the motel and called Gabe Valdez. He came over to see me about 9:30 P.M. We talked about UFOs and the cattle mutilations. He said that he had not seen any mutes since 1981-82. Had him read a letter written by Richard Doty in which Doty denies all involvement with UFO secrecy. He said Doty wasn't telling the truth. This proved true because Doty later started talking again. He told me that Doty wrote a report that stated that Paul Bennewitz was being investigated. Later Gabe offered us a ride around Dulce. He took us in his patrol car and showed us some of his routes. He said he saw glowing orange-lighted airships flying silently around the area frequently. He never saw these airships in daylight. We took a look at the Gomez Ranch, site of some of the mutes that took place in 1978. We asked about Bennewitz's belief that there was a secret underground alien base in the area. He said he believed about 80% of what Bennewitz said concerning alien activities in the area, but he definitely seemed to think there was a base in the area, but his idea of where it was located was different than Paul's. He thought that the base might be south of Dulce, closer to the Gomez Ranch. He said he had not found any entries to the base. He had found landing tracks and crawler marks near the site of the mutes. He invited me to come back sometime and climb Mt. Archuleta. Someday I would come back to Dulce, but I had no idea when.

I stopped in Albuquerque the next day and talked to two other people concerning Bennewitz. One had seen Paul's computers in action. Valdez had also used Paul's computer link to the alien base and had told me that an answer was typed out on a printer.

I wound up my trip to New Mexico with a visit to contactee Dan Fry in Alamogordo. He told me that he had researched the rumour concerning President Eisenhower's UFO-related visit to Edwards AFB in 1954 shortly after it occurred and had interviewed people who testified that the base was closed for three days during that period of time.

Explosive report from secret government files!

Expert reveals: Harry Truman was shown four alien bodies!

By RAGAN DUNN

A British politician says the U.S. government recovered the bodies of four extraterrestrials and the wreckage of their starship in 1947 — and he has the secret report to prove it!

"The United States has been involved in a massive cover-up of alien contact for better than 40 years," said the politician, who asked to remain anonymous when he gave copies of the document to reporters in the House of Lords.

"This is bigger than any mere Watergate," he added. "This is a cosmic Watergate — and it's time the truth was told."

The papers, signed by President Harry Truman who saw the dead aliens, were addressed to the most powerful figures in Britain.

Then Prime Minister Clement Atlee got a copy, as did Winston Churchill, King George VI, the Queen Mother and select members of the House of Lords.

The leaders' reactions reportedly ranged from shock and amazement to outright fear. The document itself stressed the need to keep the recovery operation secret to avoid "a massive religious backlash and worldwide panic."

It went on to describe the extraterrestrials in chilling detail.

"Four small human-like beings apparently ejected from the craft before it exploded and crashed in America's southwest," said the report.

"All four were dead and decomposed due to predators and exposure to the elements before their discovery.

"The beings were between four and five feet tall.

"They wore tight-fitting silver jumpsuits. Their heads were disproportionately large, with oversized brown eyes, slanted in the head.

"Their noses and mouths were mere slits. They had small holes for ears."

The document went on to say that pieces of the starship were strewn for miles. Analysis showed fragments to be a strong and lightweight metal but were otherwise inconclusive.

The report did not pinpoint the location of the crash, nor did it say where the bodies and fragments were taken.

But the likeliest destination was Wright-Patterson Air Force Base in Dayton, Ohio — where the bodies of four more humanoids were taken after a second starship crash 10 years later.

Though the U.S. Government has never confirmed either crash, UFO experts are convinced that both wreckage and bodies have been recovered and are still preserved.

In fact, a super-secret government agency, code-named PI 40, keeps tabs on alien visitors and briefs U.S. Presidents on UFO developments past and present, the British source said.

Gerber Pasche, founder and president of the Swiss UFO watchdog group, Alien Encounter, was appalled to learn of the cover-up.

He told reporters that the governments of the United States and Britain should be held accountable — and tried in the court of world opinion.

"The irony of all this is that everybody knows what's going on — we've known for years," he said. "Space aliens exist and have a deep and abiding interest in our planet.

"This is a concern of all mankind — not just superpower leaders."

Secret report from House of Lords!

I then went to Arizona to visit Wendelle Stevens and interviewed him concerning UFO Crash at Aztec. He told me that he had gotten interference in an attempt to publish that book. He told me that he had been visited on more than one occasion by men from some government service who asked him to desist in his investigation of crash-retrieval phenomenon as such stuff was really nonsense!

I visted with friends in Phoenix who confirmed for me their visit with Robert Scott and General Glenn Miller at Norton AFB. Miller wanted to get the truth out to the public but was being opposed. He is now deceased.

I came back home with no conclusions one way or another on the existence of an alien base in New Mexico. I called John Lear and he told me that the government was very involved in deep underground construction. He had heard of a project referred to as Noah's Ark that comprised over 96 deep excavated facilities that could be used in the event of global catastrophe. Was our government expecting one? Was it related to the aliens? What was going on here?

Shortly after my visit to Dulce some guy named Rick Edwards showed up intent on finding the Dulce facility. He spent a short while at it, then faded from the scene. Mr. K was still looking for his missing son and thought that he could have been taken to Dulce.

A lot started happening in October, 1988. I started investigating the case of a couple who had gone up to a plateau on the south side of the Tehachapi Mountains not far from my house. At two in the morning they witnessed a large flashing orb come up from the ground and rise slowing into the sky. They experienced about two hours of missing time. Under hypnosis performed by a local hypnotherapist who had taken an interest in UFO abductees, we had found that the man recalled having been taken to an underground facility that was jointly occupied by military personnel and aliens. He kept mentioning "the Colonel". He said little grey guys were present. He was afraid that his wife had been violated by these little guys. He seemed to experience many traumas while recalling this episode. My subsequent investigations revealed that there was a Northrup and NASA underground facility on the Tejon Ranch property in those mountains. NASA has a shuttle running from there to their underground quarters at the NASA-Dryden Rocket Test Site Area at the east end of Edwards AFB probably more than 50 miles from the Tejon site. Rumors around the Antelope Valley are that there are other tunnels around the Mojave desert area. There is also rumoured to be an underground city up at the China Lake Naval Weapons Testing Area north of our area in the vicinity of Ridgecrest. Needless to say, my interest in the skies now extended into the earth.

On October 26th at about 7:45 P.M. I heard a droning sound and thought that someone was flying an ultralight aircraft but could not conceive of anyone doing this at night: I was so tired that night that I did not go out of doors to inspect. I should have. I had seen a pickup truck shining a spotlight toward the rear of my 10-acres while driving slowly past my house. Later I found out from my neighbors Ken and Katy that they had seen two of giant boomerang wingships, similar to the ones that overflew the Hudson River Valley, slowly drone at low altitude directly over their property. Ken, who lays concrete for a living and is used to estimating sizes, said that the wingship was fully twice the width of their property or approximately 660 feet tip-to-tip! A number of chaser lights trailed the two big ships which headed directly over the Tejon installation and were later seen by witnesses in Fresno. These ships were travelling too slow to be flying as we know it. They could not have been stealth jets as they would have been gone in seconds. I include a copy of the local newspaper article on this sighting in Section II. About a week later I found that a man reported 17 landing circles on his property in three points, directly under the flight path of the big V's. Had the chasers landed? The circles were about 30 feet in diameter. I tried to reach the site to check out the area with a geiger counter, but never did reach it before the rains came.

On October 27th a UFO abductee, D., contacted me with the news that she was hearing a synthesized voice over her stereo equipment. She held the phone up to the stereo speakers and I could actually hear a voice that sounded like a computer-synthesized voice talking. She had presented me with other witnesses who had heard this voice in a variety of circumstances.

On October 31 I was hypnotized for the first time to recall my own experience in May of 81 with the little white guys who intruded into my room. I made the astonishing discovery that they had apparently implanted an acoustical hologram into my brain cells giving me information on their systems of energy, including their own organic energy. Apparently they could use a device that converted sound waves to electric power. They appeared to have mastered a knowledge of all types of vibrations.

I talked to a local who had served in some branch of intelligence. He said he knew about Area 51 called the FARM and that it housed a UFO squadron of 10 stealth fighters.

Later he thought he had said too much to me and closed off contact.

Meanwhile, Bill Steinman was making more frequent contact with Colonel Blackburn and one day was told that an insider only referred to as "the Doctor" wanted to talk with him. This man knew about the alien's presence on earth. It was only a matter of a couple of months later that Bill dropped out of UFO investigation saying that the government had too firm a hold on what was going on and it was costing him too much to pursue it further.

I visited Wendelle on January 26, 1989 and he told me something new about Christa, his ex-wife. She had been contacted by a man who identified himself as being with the DIS by the name of John Wallis (probably a pseudonym) who knew details of one of her abuductions. Christa claimed to have been taken to the Dulce Base on one of her abductions in company with this mysterious John Wallis. She knew details about the layout of the facility. She described the facility as having a core with tunnels radiating from that core on seven levels. She said that she was taken down as far as level five. She saw laboratories and aliens within this facility. Her description does match other descriptions given to me. Another lady named Sheryl was also abducted and taken to this facility over a decade ago. Christa has said for the record that John Wallis has been very helpful to her in understanding the nature of her experiences with the extraterrestrials.

In March 1989 I met Roger Schereer who was also investigating the Dulce facility and other base locations in the Arizona area. His sources also confirmed the reality of the Dulce facility. Another unnamed researcher received confirmation from an intelligence source that alien bases at Dulce and Groom Lake were a reality. He is putting together his own presentation on this.

The Dulce Base is supposedly run by a Board of Directors, and the Chairman of that Board allegedly John S. Herrington, Secretary of Energy. Guards employed at the facility live in Santa Fe, New Mexico and commute to a shuttle at Los Alamos which shuttles them to work through an underground tube. The Dulce Base, according to one of the Chief Security Officers that worked at Dulce, is constructed with a central area called THE HUB with radiating tunnels going out on seven levels. Aliens reside at levels 5 through 7 and the levels of security apparently increase with depth. There are supposedly other bases throughout the Southwest all connected by a vast tunnel complex (See maps in Section II).

It appears as if we have two nations within our borders now. One is a new nation wholly constructed underground and shared with alien species and the old outer aboveground nation which is kept in ignorance concerning the existence of the underground nation and its activities and plans. Is this true? Shouldn't we be finding out?

Maybe many UFO researchers can accept the reality of UFOs, and a few accept the realities of alien visits, contacts, and abductions. A few accept the reality of a government cover-up or Cosmic Watergate, but how many are prepared to discover the big picture, the deep involvement between our government and aliens? If there is any truth to this at all, then we must pursue it. There is nothing wrong with being skeptical, but let us also be a little inquisitive. It is easier to ridicule than to investigate, but it is not as profitable.

When I found a local man who was aware of the U.S.-alien alliance and the bargaining that had gone on, who himself was not involved in the UFO community, I knew there was something to all of this--something big. It could be sinister or not, but whatever was behind alien bases on earth was a key to the whole UFO mystery.

Chapter 7 - THE ALIENS' BIOGENETIC PROGRAM

One of the earliest cases of alien abduction that involved aliens' interest in our sexual functioning is the case of Antonio Villa Boas of Brazil dating back to 1957. In this particular case a farmer was captured by alien beings in suits, taken aboard their craft, taken to a special room, stripped of his clothing, sponge bathed with a special liquid, then introduced to a female alien whose naked appearance was not all that different from earth human females. She had a pointed chin and long reddish hair and instantly the young Antonio became aroused and performed sexual relations with her. He remarked that she made strange grunting sounds during their intercourse. After the act was complete and Antonio was being prepared for departure, she gestured to him first pointing at her stomach, then pointing at the sky as if to say that if there was to be an offspring from their mating, it will live with her at her home somewhere in space.

The more recent abductions at Maringa involved Jocelino de Mattos in an involuntary abduction aboard a spacecraft where they placed an apparatus on his penis for the extraction of sperm, and the abduction of the Joao Valerio da Silva whose body was rubbed with oil prior to his seduction by an alien female. The second of these abductions is reminiscent of the Villa Boas incident. Jocelino's experience was similar to what happened to Barney Hill in the famous 1961 abduction episode. At that time the aliens' interest in Barney's sexual organs was not made public.

In the United States it seems that women receive more attention from the aliens' biogenetic probing. This was also first reported in the Hill case when the aliens inserted a long needle into her abdomen. The Kathy Davis case researched by Budd Hopkins in his book "Intruders" has become an example of many more reported by various abduction researchers. I met a woman in 1988 who claimed to have been inseminated by alien visitors as many as thirteen times with the aliens prematurely terminating the pregnancy and seemingly teleporting the fetus from the womb in a mysterious show of alien magic. Some women, like Christa, claim to have gone full term with their alien-instigated pregnancy, and have given birth to a human-hybrid child who shows certain remarkable capacities. I was told of a case in New Mexico in which a woman had four children in this manner. These were not odd-looking slant-eyed hairless beings, but more or less normal looking human children.

If we accept these stories then this poses many questions for an inquiring mind. Are the aliens breeding with us? For what purpose? Or maybe there are different breeding programs. Were we bred by aliens in the first place? Are there missing links in our evolution? Could all of this possibly be going on and even increasing in scope? There has been a lot of discussion, both pro and con, on all of this. It appears it is a key part to the UFO abductions; with revelations that the Dulce facility houses biogenetic laboratories used for various breeding experiments, we have to ponder some ideas relevant to this scheme that seems high on the alien agenda.

The subject of life on other planets is covered by the science of exobiology, the study of life outside of the earth. Steve Dole, Carl Sagan, and Harold Urey are exobiologists. Remember, these scientists have only studied the conditions that are assumed necessary for the evolution life on other planets. If they studied alien life forms directly, their work would be a lot less speculative.

Dole estimated that in our galaxy alone there are likely to be 640,000,000 earth-like life-bearing planets. And there are many billions of other galaxies. Sagan thinks that there may be over 1,000,000 planets in our galaxy that not only bear life, but intelligent and advanced civilizations. Of course, Sagan is extremely skeptical of reports that members of these advanced civilizations are coming to earth and abducting humans.

The discovery of a chemical ferment between the stars by radio astronomers indicates there are basic ingredients for the formation of organisms on planets. Up to 23 molecules have been detected in the far reaches of the Milky Way. Many are the precursors to the chemistry of life. Substances have been found in certain meteorites, known as carbonacious chondrites. For example, fatty acids built on from 12 to 20 carbon atoms have been found in seven such meteorites. These objects from the sky have produced amino acids from which proteins are constructed as well as purines and pyramidines, substances of the type that form such key chemicals of life as DNA. Of 61 different kinds of hydrocarbons in the Murchison meteorite, 42 were synthesized in the laboratory.

Among the tell-tale radio emissions detected from far out in the galaxy by radio astronomers are traces of formaldehyde (precursor to the sugars), hydrocyanic acid (which can develop into the purines) and cyanoacetylene (precursor to the pyramidines). Thus, even in distant space, there is a start toward the evolution of DNA.

As man learns more about his universe, the question of life beyond earth's thin biosphere becomes of greater concern. Life is not fragile, but is incredibly tough. Living organisms thrive in boiling hot springs, bacteria live in hot water inside nuclear reactors, and algae survive well enough at the South Pole in temperatures of 59 degrees below zero. Trees, buried and charred by lava from volcanic eruption, soon put out shoots and bloom again. Life is even found down at the bottom of deep ocean trenches under tons of pressure per square inch. The dry valleys of Antartica were once thought the only sterile spots on earth, but they teem now with microorganisms carried there by visiting scientists.

Scientists Francis Crick and Leslie Orgel have suggested that the earth may have been infected with life on purpose by some alien technological society. Fred Hoyle and Chandra Wickramasinghe have suggested that not only is the earth infected with the precursors for life, but with viruses as well that are carried to earth by comets.

Erich von Daniken popularized the notion that our ancestors came from outer space and created hybrid humans in their laboratories. When the humans matured they were taught rudimentary sciences and agriculture. Zacharia Sitchen has also contributed much to the idea of ancient astronauts in his interpretation of ancient Sumerian legends.

The idea that living beings from out there could come here and seed the earth seems both logical and possible and explains the reality of what may lie behind our ancient myths. Ancient Indian writings such as the Drona Parva mention an ancient flying vehicle called Vimana. The descriptions of some of these Vimana sound like the modern day UFOs.

All of this fits with today's abduction scenarios where male and female abductees report the aliens' interest in insemination. In the November 1988 issue of the MUFON journal, Dr. Michael Swords argues convincingly against the acceptance of the idea that an alien species is using us for hybridizing experiments. In a rejoinder offered by historian and abductee investigator Dr. David Jacobs, he suggests that the aliens may be advanced enough in their biological technology to accomplish cross breeding. It seems illogical that aliens would use human sperm and eggs for their cross breeding rather than other more complete cells from which they could extract the necessary DNA. To guess at what the aliens' motives are and the methods they use to accomplish those motives is still a complicated task undermined by insufficient information.

There are instances where contactees meeting with extraterrestrial humans have reported sexual liaisons with these humans. In some instances, hybrid children were the result. Their only remarkable differences were reported to be psychological, rather than physiological.

Secret reports say the alien base at Dulce is principally a biogenetics laboratory for all sorts of cross breeding experiments. If this is true, then it becomes paramount for us to learn more concerning the alien agenda and their magical connection to us. It has been suggested that the Greys need humans as a source of blood and enzymes and, therefore, would breed us as a food source. This sounds ridiculous to some researchers, but may not be as ridiculous as it sounds. Physical alien beings such as the Greys may be suffering from some degeneration of their species. If this is so, then their solution to survival includes making use of humans. This is not to suggest that all aliens coming to earth have the same needs or agenda. The reports suggest that the missions of the aliens may be as varied as the aliens themselves.

A recent report suggests that the Greys emmanate from a dying desert world and intend to migrate their entire population to the earth in the near future. Thus, their biogenetic program is suggested to be in preparation for that migration. Time will tell.

Chapter 8 - WHAT IS THE ALIENS' AGENDA?

Before I embark on this philosophical query, I want to introduce some thoughts concerning the investigation of those who come into contact with the aliens and report these contacts.

The whole question of UFO and ALF (Alien Life Form) research may revolve around what is physical, what is paraphysical, what is psychological, and what is parapsychological. There are undoubtedly physically real UFOs which leave tracks on the ground and ALFs who wave at or zap people; that is evident from the years of evidence and testimony unearthed by UFO investigators. We are indeed very interested in the nature and origin of these physical events. There also seem to be paraphysical events. Aliens walking through walls or floating through the air seem to defy the rules of nature. Perhaps these magic-like tricks are just a product of advanced technology or perhaps they are ghost-like and behave more like an apparition of the dead. What ever the source of these events, it always helps to classify some of the phenomena.

An out-of-body abduction by aliens or the reception of strange alien sounding voices may fall under the category of parapsychological. An interesting cross-over here is that witnesses usually report communication with the aliens that follows the same description as those who describe communication with spirits in the out-of-body state.

There may also be a pure psychological event. This could take the form of a dream about UFOs. We can also classify fantasy, concotion, hoax, and fabrication under this category. We may see a rising number of incidences in this category as the alien mythos spreads.

There are also characteristic differences between those we call contactees and abductees. Contactees are ones who claim contact by benevolent aliens usually in an inviting way in a conscious state of mind. Abductees are usually kidnapped without consent. We must not assume the abductors are automatically malicious. They just don't seem to respect our freedom of choice if we are to interpret their actions at face value.

Extreme claims have been made by both contactees and abductees and incredible stories have been told, but it is not always easy to discern the fabricator. Usual motives may not apply to these people. Investigators must be ever vigilant less they be duped by such people. However, we must not also jump to a conclusion that someone is telling tall tales just because some expert says so.

Here are some other differences that have been observed that differentiate the contactee from the abductee. None of these must be used as a hard rule. These are simply deductions based on a limited number of observations.

CONTACTEE
- Reports a voluntary experience
- Generally has an extroverted interest in things.
- Conscious of UFO-alien experience - has full recall
- Frequently produces photos or evidence
- Has a positive response to contact

ABDUCTEE
- Reports an involuntary experience
- Generally introverted interest in self experience
- Unconscious to partly conscious of abduction experience - missing time
- Provides body marks as evidence
- Frequently has a negative response to abduction experience

Recently I have come to notice that a high percentage of abductee cases have also reported having been child abuse cases and were molested by one of their parents. Childhood trauma may play a hidden role in some of these reported abduction events and needs further psychological investigation.

Another significant factor in dealing with contact and abduction testimony is that of overlay. The interpretation of the UFO-Alien experience in terms of our beliefs, opinions, attitudes, emotional responsiveness, our past education, and our life experiences in general tend to color or distort the event to greater or lesser degrees. If we can learn how to peel off the overlays of these experiences, then we could assemble a core of factual experiences to evaluate further cases. A new technique called "Cognitive Interview" may help us in this respect.

Our ultimate intent after determining the physical reality of these events is to explore the alien realities and try to understand the nature and purposes of these entities. There is really very little we know about them and what we do know is heavily dependent on the contactees and abductees they have chosen to visit. The more we come to know about their experiences the closer we come to understanding alien realities.

Each of the reported aliens seems to have a different motive for contacting an earthling. The normal-sized Nordic visitors seemed friendly and concerned with the affairs of earth. Their message to us concerned our upsetting the balance of nature. Contactees have repeated variations on this theme. These friendly visitors wanted to point out to errant earthlings that exploding atomic bombs or polluting the atmosphere wasn't a respectful way to treat a planet. There is no doubt about that. Other little beings that were seen around saucers were collecting soil and mineral samples or plant life and water. Recent visitors have shown an increasing interest in human biology and sexual functioning. No doubt if we were to take all these reports into account, we would be hard put to ascribe a single motive for alien visitations. It is probable that we have several species of alien here for a variety of purposes.

The entities who abducted Betty and Barney Hill exhibited scientific curiousity, and several abduction tales show a similar similar scenario. Some abductions have produced fear and terror in the unwitting abductee. This is understandable. We have been prone to attribute greater intelligence to these visitors, and no doubt many of them exceed our smartest people in that department. But all in all, we have learned little about the aliens. They seem to have learned a lot about us.

A major concern of all who have studied this phenomena is whether one of these species threatens human existence. There is one proposed scenario that says that an alien species wants and needs humans for its own self-serving purposes, and that it has managed to implant devices in humans to gain an increasing foothold on this planet. Allegations such as Cooper, Lear, and English have made concerning this species assume frightening proportions. They have sounded a warning to all interested parties concerning the danger we harbor within our borders. Since this is a possibility, and we have not had to face another species equal or superior to us in a conflict, then we cannot dismiss this possibility, but must heed it in the interest of our own survival. If we have kindred friendly human aliens, then perhaps we could enlist their aid against malicious humanoids.

Animal mutilations, black helicopters, the crash and retrieval of UFOs, the involvement of the Air Force OSI to investigate UFO-alien intrusions on military bases, and the continuing interest of the CIA and other intelligence agencies in the phenomena indicate something significant and sinister is going on. The repeated abductions by the Greys and their continuing use of implants and hypnosis indicate that a real alien force is behind the UFO phenomena. It is doubtful that imaginal, archetypal aliens would implant monitoring devices in humans. Psychologists and other scientists seem to be part of an attempt to dephysicalize the aliens. Real aliens would constitute a real threat to our culture. If aliens were imaginal, we wouldn't have to worry about underground alien bases. Others want to attribute the alien phenomena to intelligence covert operations. Such an idea is not based on on a real assessment of the UFO phenomenon.

Another sinister side to the alien phenomena is the recurrence of encounters with "Men in Black". These strange dudes seem to behave as aliens themselves. Their attempt to silence UFO witnesses is itself a cover-up. Who knows what is behind the MIB?

The Greys are said to belong to the Orion Group. They attempt control of both science and religion. Their political objective is covert domination through mind control programs. Mind implant techniques have been developed and used down the time line of our universe for eons. The Greys abduct people at random and examine them for suitability. They use electronic inculcational devices to implant goals and purposes to accomplish their mission of invasion. If this is a scenario for the intervention of the Greys into the affairs of Earth, then it is understandable that so little progress has been made in disclosing their existence or their motives.

We need to gather the facts. We need to end the government's coverup. We need to take responsibility for our planet.

In an optimistic vein, we can hope to have concourse with a friendly race from space, and learn from them how to travel to other star systems and participate in the ever greater game of exploring the mysteries of life and the mysteries of the universe.

Chapter 9 - THE MAGICAL CONNECTION

It may be presumptuous to say that the aliens are using real magic, but it is a possibility we should consider. Magic refers to a constellation of ideas that imply an underlying order and harmony to the universe. These are archetypal ideas. Numbers and symbols, powers and principalities are inhabitants of the magical universe. The basic theory of magic is that mind is primary in the universe and that certain mental practices influence the nature of material realities. The aliens and the alien craft may be a little more than physical technologies--not entirely imaginal as some suggest--but there may exist paraphysical technolgies. An example of a paraphysical technology is Psychotronics. A simple psychotronic technology is dowsing. Dowsing is a technology that belongs to the magical realm. We assume here that magic really exists and can be studied in a systematic way.

In 1976 I met contactee-abductee Brian Scott. Scott channeled alien voices. Scott also bent spoons and cutlery sometimes without touching the metal. A coin materialized out of the past during one of his trances. Water droplets were also seen to materialize. Magic!

Four of Brian's six abductions by UFOs took place on the 22nd day of the month. His two visits to Tiahuanaco took place on December 22, 1976 and June 22, 1977, the summer and winter solstice days for the southern hemisphere and days of celebration for magicians. The number 22 appears often in connection with the Brian Scott and other UFO cases. Sometimes this number refers to the time in minutes; sometimes it refers to a measure of distance or sometimes it is the number of a highway or part of an address or phone number connected with a UFO case. This type of number coincidence is termed "synchronistic" - a term coined by psychologist Carl Jung. Alan Vaughn in his book "Incredible Coincidence" cites case number 22, a synchonicity that involves UFOs and the movie "Close Encounters of the Third Kind".

In 1980 I met contactee and UFO investigator Gary Lambert. Gary understood the significance of the number 22. His own abduction occurred on December 25, 1967 (Christmas), just 22 days after the abduction of patrolman Herb Shirmer near Ashland, Nebraska. Gary plotted 22 day cycles and found that the days of the month these cycles fall on repeat again every five years. Five was another number that kept popping up in UFO events. This seemed to coincide with the five-year wave phenomena where UFO sightings tend to peak approximately every five years.

Gary had a drawing made illustrating the pertinent dimensions and angles on the windshield of highway patrolman Val Johnson's car that was shattered by an apparent collision with a UFO. One particular triangle stood out. It was an isoceles triangle with proportional dimensions of 22-41-22. Gary also showed me a photo of the rear end of a car that was lifted off a highway in Missouri when it had a close encounter with a UFO. It had two indentations on the trunk that with the ornament on the trunk formed, when connected by lines, an isoceles triangle of proportional dimensions 22-41-22. I found that when you inscribe this triangle in a circle with its apex set at the circle's center, your produce a golden cut of the circle, a golden sector (referring to the Phi-ratio of the cicle's circumference: 1.1618:1). Numbers and symbols. Alien Magic!

The aliens have disappeared in full view of witnesses, levitated, passed through solid obstacles, and glowed with colored light. They have repeatedly demonstrated telepathic communication and precognition. These behaviors indicate that aliens have psychic powers. Such powers seem like magic to us. Perhaps there is real magic in the universe!

There may be more in heaven and earth than we have dreamt of in our earthly philosophy.

WILLIAM F. HAMILTON III

PERSONAL:

Bill Hamilton has been in Data Processing for 20 years, and is now a Sr. Programmer Analyst. He is a writer, investigator and researcher. He has been involved in UFO research and investigations since 1953. In college he majored in Psychology and Physical Science. He has an AA degree with a major in Physical Science from Pierce College where he attained the Dean's list. He enjoys doing private research in mathematics, applied physics and advanced propulsion applications.

Bill is a past member of The Foundation for Research in Parapsychology, The Spacecraft Research Foundation, The World Federation of Science & Engineering, and MENSA, the high IQ society. He has been a member of Understanding, Inc., and served on its Board. He founded and heads Nexus and Nexus News, an info center for alternative energy and alternative lifestyles. He founded The UFORUM, a monthly forum on the UFO phenomena. He is a UFO investigator with MUFON and an associate of The Borderland Sciences Research Association and currently has founded UFORCES.

Bill is the author of the following books: Space, Time and Gravity; Center of the Vortex; Telos, The Cosmic Computer; Geometry of the Grid; Close Encounter Report; and the recent Alien Magic. He has written numerous articles for publications such as "Search," "Energy Unlimited," "New Age Science," "The New Atlantean Journal," "The Psychic Observer," and "California UFO".

UFO HISTORY:

Bill began reading books on UFOs at age 10 in 1953. He met most early day contactees and some researchers by 1957 (George Adamski, George Van Tassel, George Hunt Williamson, Daniel Fry, Orfeo Angelucci, etc.). His first UFO sightings and telepathic contact Occured in May, 1957 with a school chum, Yves Lauriault. He attended most of the Giant Rock conventions, and befriended George Van Tassel (contactee leaser & operator of the Giant Rock airport). He has had over 100 sightings of various UFOs & telepathic interaction. Summer 1958, he participated in a light beam transceiver experiment with UFOs. 1976-78 he investigated the Brian Scott UFO case, and became a field investigator for MUFON. 1980-1983 served as Maricopa County Section Director for MUFON in Arizona and looked into 3 or 4 CEIII cases and AF sightings. Bill presented a paper at the NASA MUFON Symposium in Houston giving a theory of advanced propulsion. He met Wendelle Stevens and looked over the Meier case data. In 1981 he was interviewed by Jim Ouel of Nippon TV about his research; the same year he formulated a theory on UFOs & synchronicities. He is currently a field investigator in the Antelope Valley and has lectured in California and Arizona. He has been interviewed on radio and T.V. He is continuing UFO studies in three areas: Contactees; Abductees; and government crash-retrieval cases.

THE ETHER-KEY TO SPACE TRAVEL

William F. Hamilton

William Hamilton is a professional Programmer Analyst, an amateur writer, invester, and sky-watcher. He has been involved in UFO research and investigations since 1953 and has been particularly interested in the physics implied by reports of UFO performance. His background includes two years of college studies in psychology and applied physics and extensive private research in mathematics, applied physics, and advanced propulsion applications.

THE IDEAL FORM OF SPACE TRAVEL

The ideal form of space travel can be pictured as a vessel that can derive energy from its environment, that can survive a wide range of environmental conditions, that is highly maneuverable, and that is capable of superlight velocities. It is felt that some UFOs, those which are somebody else's spacecraft, represent an ideal form of space travel. Such spacecraft would operate in an atmospheric environment in such a way that drag, heat, and inertia would be reduced to a minimum. Such a spacecraft would move silently, speedily, and with great maneuverability through an atmosphere. UFOs exhibit these characteristics.

UFO EFFECTS

Known UFO effects include light, sound, levity of peripheral objects, magnetometer and compass effects, radiation other than light, the electrostatic corona and "cobweb" effects, and burn marks and "swirls" in grass. It is felt that a careful analysis of these particular effects leads to a general idea of UFO propulsion systems and suggests a certain line of experiments. Low thrust and high thrust motion has been observed.

THE FISHER, BROWN, AND SEARL EFFECTS

If we can lend any credence to reports of experiments done by Joel Fisher, Townsend Brown, or John Searl of England[1], then the key to an advanced propulsion system is controlled ionization by the application of high potential fields ($10^{13}$ volts according to Searl). Fisher experimented with a rotating magnetic field utilizing a disk mounted with 60 alnico magnets. When the rotor turns at a speed of approximately 2400 rpm, a gravimeter placed about 2½ feet above the rotor shows an increased reading of about 5 milligals of the normal acceleration of gravity.[2] Searl is said to have experimented with a segmented disk rotor that broke free of its moorings as it developed a pink ion halo and rose to a height of 50 feet. Townsend Brown experimented with disk-shaped capacitors that developed acceleration in the direction of the positive terminal.

ATMOSPHERIC PRESSURE

The flight of UFOs is said to be controlled by the distribution of electrical potential on the hull surface. A high ion potential surrounding the body of the craft would tend to repel atmospheric ions, developing a vacuum bubble around the craft that has a specific displacement from the craft's center of mass so as to develop a difference in pressure on opposite surfaces. One UFO contactee going by the pen name Dino Kraspedon reports that the atmospheric pressure developed on the surface of a saucer 65 feet in diameter is over 3,000 tons![3] He states that the saucer creates this vacuum layer by means of cathode rays.

SPACE PRESSURE IN THE ETHER

Recent experiments by Stefan Marinov[4], Marco Todeschini[5], and the Penzias and Wilson discovery of the cosmic background radiation[6] has engendered new controversies over the existence of an all-pervasive superfluid ether. The existence of the ether as a carrier of elementary forces can extend our understanding of space travel. It is felt that a substantial space medium may be responsible for the gravitational force.[7] According to theories of the ether, a difference in etherial pressure is the cause of inertial and motional effects. High potential electric fields produce strains in the ether. It is possible to surmise that the inertial drag effects of the ether can be reduced or virtually eliminated through high potential fields permitting high velocity motion through space.

ADDITIONAL RELEVANT EXPERIMENTS AND OBSERVATIONS

Professor Laithwaite of the Imperial College of Science and Technology in England experimented with two spinning gyroscopes in which there appeared a five-pound reduction in the weight of the experimental device.[8] Bruce DePalma experimented with dropping fully enclosed electrically-driven gryoscopes. The gyroscopes rotating at 15,000 rpm fell at a faster rate than the non-rotating gyroscopes in a number of trials. He also discovered that spinning balls rise higher than non-spinning balls.[9] Also a Soviet scientist by the name of Kozyrev is reported to have detected weight changes in spinning tops. All of these experiments suggest an alteration in gravitational pressure by spinning bodies. Further experiments should be performed under well controlled conditions in order to better understand the nature of this phenomenon.

THEORETICAL DISCUSSION

It is herein suggested that the concept of the ether exerting fluid pressure by its motion may serve as a theoretical model to understand UFO propulsion. Certain close encounter witnesses have reported seeing a ring or rotor mechanism on UFOs. Rotation is a common but special phenomenon in this universe as we are familiar with particle, planetary, and galactic rotation. Extension of principles of aerodynamic pressure such as Bernoulli's theorem to principles of astrodynamic pressure due to the hydrostatics and hydrodynamics of the ether build on a firm foundation of knowledge. In considering the ether theorem and the postulated fluid nature of the ether, the pressure potential of circular vorticity should not be ignored. The pressure gradient of a circular vortex is identical to the electric field gradient and diminishes from the core of the vortex inversely to the radius squared. It is possible that a magnetic vortex which has a center displaced from an object's center of gravity will impart thrust to the object in the direction of least ether resistance. The closest device in our technology to the rotor description is the Faraday Unipolar Dynamo coupled with a magnetic grid coil that functions to suppress atmospheric dielectric breakdown and create high ion potentials.

The ether theorem is suggested here as an alternative model for analysing space dynamics and is not used here as an argument against Einsteinian models of space dynamics, but simply as a useful concept in explaining the experiments and observations cited here.

UFO RESEARCH CENTER FOR EXTRA-
TERRESTRIAL STUDIES, P.O. BOX 12
GORMAN, CA. 93243

The purposes of UFORCES is to investigate and research:

1) The UFO and ET phenomena.

2) To explore contact and communication with extraterrestrial beings.

3) To organize, evaluate, and collect facts, theories, and ideas that result from research and investigation.

4) To investigate the probability of extradimensional life forms.

5) To study the physics, chemistry, biology, psychology, sociology, anthropology, and philosophy of extraterrestrial entities as revealed by investigation, research, and communication with extraterrestrial life forms.

6) To develop new knowledge from our studies.

7) To publish and release information via print, audio, or video media in order to inform the public.

We believe that the public should be made aware of the truth behind the UFO/ET reality, that the world-wide UFO cover-up should end, and that, in cooperation with other like-minded groups and individuals, that we need programs to educate the public on this very vital subject.

We can use contributions of research, information, money, and efforts that forward these purposes.

Sincerely,

Bill Hamilton

THE JUSTIFICATION FOR UFO COVERUP

A statement made by Victor Marchetti, former executive assistant to the Deputy Director and special assistant to the Executive Director of the CIA.

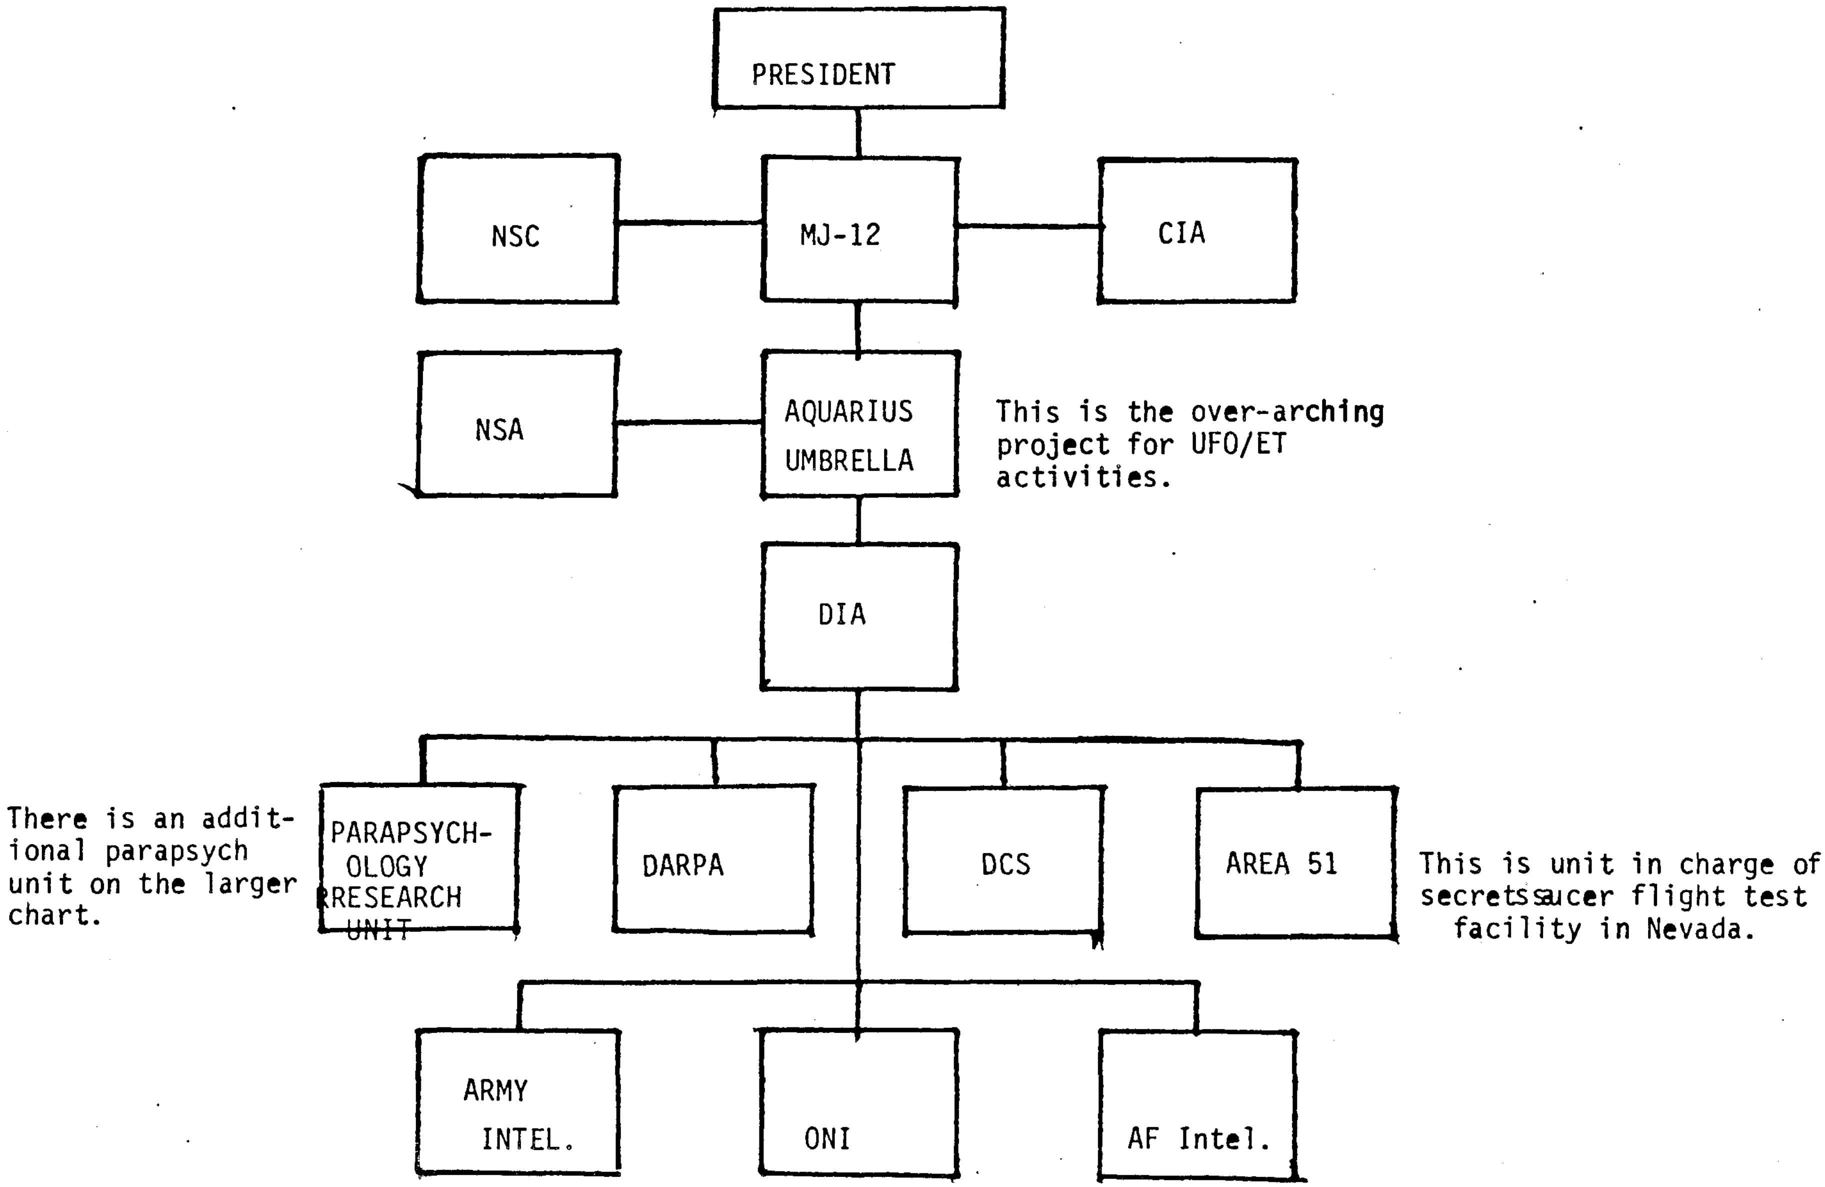

His theory is that: we have, indeed, been contacted-perhaps even visited-by extraterrestrial beings, and the U.S. Government, in collusion with the other National powers of the Earth, is determined to keep this information from the general public. The purpose of the international conspiracy is to maintain a workable stability among the nations of the world and for them, in turn, to retain institutional control over their respective populations. Thus, for these governments to admit that there are beings from outer space ...with mentalities and technological capabilitees obviously far superior to ours, could, once fully perceived by the average person, erode the foundations of the Earth's traditional power structure. Political and legal systems, religions, economic and social institutions could all soon become meaningless in the mind of the public. The national oligarchical establishments, even civilization as we know it, could collapse into anarchy. Such extreme conclusions are not necessarily valid, but they probably accurately reflect the fears of the "ruling classes" of the major nations., whose leaders (particularly those in the intelligence business) have always advocated exeessive governmental secrecy as being necessary to preserve 'national security'.

THE ABDUCTION EXPERIENCE
Report No.1

Cynthia Crowell

The following collection of notes is intended to be the first in a series of reports on the abduction experience. Therefore, due to space and time limitations, some aspects of the experience will only be mentioned here and hopefully expanded on in later reports.

An abductee is any person of any age and any cultural or national background who is "taken" or otherwise manipulated by aliens and/or government agents without his/her consent one or more times throughout life. Specifically, I will be referring to the abductees who were first taken when they were small children and who spend most or all of their lives involved, at some level, with this interaction.

There is a very large number of these abductees, thousands or tens of thousands, worldwide. Most of us don't even know we are part of the group. Most are currently hovering on the edge of an awareness that we are somehow different. The tendency is to relate this "difference" only to ourselves and not to anything external, certainly not to real aliens. More and more of us are becoming aware of our experiences and our identity within the larger society that also includes the aliens. Such dawning awareness is happening, for the most part, in accordance with our own mental/psychological programming as designed by our alien programmers.

A person may only be taken once or twice. Or he/she may be taken or otherwise manipulated by aliens simply for being with an abductee at the wrong time. The abductee abductee's family (members who are not already Lifers themselves) are subject to casual abduction as long as they live with the abductee. They are examined at least once, possibly a few more times, after which their memories are erased. They will be knocked out during encounters with the abductee at home and during other family settings. They will sometimes have false memories implanted to support the false memories of the abductee that may be implanted to cover up "missing time". They may have programming alterations performed on them, again in support of the abductee's programming. Even friends of the abductee are subject to casual abduction, simply due to close physical proximity to or a great deal of time spent with the abductee. Their experiences usually end if their association with the abductee ends.

A special category of casual abduction would be the spouse or mate of a abductee. A spouse who is not used by the aliens in the manner that abductees are used is nonetheless subject to manipulation in order to provide a support system for the abductee. The casually abducted mate of a abductee does much to support and co-create the Lifer's belief systems and definitions of reality, not to mention the influence of the mate on the Lifer's thought processes, values, etc. Some examples follow:

A abductee and mate may wake up one morning to discover some strange physical symptom on the abductee, such as a bloody, aching belly button. The abductee may wonder about it, thinking it should be looked into by a doctor but not really wanting to go through that. The mate will help the abductee explain it away and avoid a doctor's visit.

An abductee and mate may experience an encounter during which the mate was simply knocked out. The abductee may have nagging shreds of memory that don't make any sense but when the mate says nothing happened, it was just a dream or whatever, the abductee is reassured and quits trying to piece it together.

The abductee may wake up standing naked in the back yard with one ear bleeding. Anyone would be very concerned about finding themselves in that state. But when the mate doesn't think there is anything strange about that, the abductee may calm down and forget the matter.

Since the abductee and mate make their decisions together; where and how to live, how to raise the children, where to go on vacation, the aliens must affect both of them in order to control the abductee. They will implant or program (something like post-hypnotic suggestion) the mate as they do the abductee. A female abductee may decide to have her tubes tied, subconsciously thinking the operation will stop or help ease her encounters - consciously both wanting and fearing to do it. Her husband may be unreasonably opposed to the idea, convinced it would be dangerous to her, even though he knows better. He has been implanted with threats to her life if she goes through with it and since he can't tell where they come from, he assumes they are real intuition. And he can probably do much to prevent the operation.

Often, the aliens will use the relationship to control the abductee. They will make us feel better or calm down by reminding us of the mate. It works. They will threaten us with our mates; "if you don't be good, you will never see your mate again." That also works. The bond between mates among humans is very powerful, sometimes especially with abductees who otherwise feel isolated. The aliens do not understand this bond because they don't experience it among themselves the same way, but they are aware of it and know how to use it to their advantage.

This initial report is concerned with two groups of aliens: Greys and Reptilians. There are several different kinds of both Greys and Reptilians, but for now I will simply refer to them as single groups. Both groups live on this planet or beneath its surface and in space. They have been here for a long time.

The Greys are also " working" for Reptilians, relative to the abductee as an individual and to the human race as a whole. They have been used by the Reptilians as the middlemen, doing the work and exposing themselves to us on behalf of and instead of the Reptilians. The Greys are consistently referred to as a mercenary force, though they themselves will often say that they "have no choice", that they themselves are the slaves, presumably in their own culture or to the Reptilians.

The Greys are engaged in abduction and related activity, as they tell it, in order to survive. A great deal of the above is relative to their survival on an individual basis. They don't eat humans, but they use biological substances from humans (such as glandular secretions) in a manner we can compare with eating. (They absorb nutrients through their skin.) They milk us in the way we milk cows and they need what they take from us, or think they do. As a species, they are using material from us to recreate themselves, by creating their next generation with hybrids. Most of them can no longer individually produce offspring. I've been told that only one in a hundred or a thousand Greys can even conceive and that most of those babies do not live.

Some Reptilians, on the other hand, eat us like we eat chicken. In the United States, there are rumors of great, underground food-storage rooms full of preserved human bodies. Sometimes the rumor has it that the bodies are those of children. I asked the Greys why, if this was true, would it be children? I was told that it is not only children but also adults that Reptilians eat. Children are preferred because they are generally unpoisoned by substances like caffeine, nicotine, alcohol and other things adults are saturated with, as a group.

The Reptilians don't seem to be dependent on us as a food source, although part of their experimental work with us is toward the end of future food supply/production. When they become involved with crossbreeding (humans and Reptilians), they are not doing it for racial survival but for the purpose of creating a subclass (slave race) within their own culture. These halfbreeds are to be biological war machines and laborers, etc. They are to be someone else's property. Most contemporary monsters or oddities (such as the Cabbit, half-cat-half-rabbit, that was found in New Mexico in the 1970's) were probably created by or are otherwise related to Reptilian and/or government genetic research.

The Reptilians seem to have little regard for us as living beings. (They think that we are as ugly and repulsive to them as we ever portrayed them to be, and that we, the human race, are as" valuable as weeds.") However, they do seem to consider some of us valuable property. One gets the feeling they will continue to use us as they see fit, or, if we ever become a real problem as a group, they would sooner wipe us out than deal with it. They do not fear us, considering themselves far superior to us by all comparisons. They supposedly consider the surface of this planet to be a poisonous, inhospitable environment and "allow" us to live here, since they live below the surface and in space. (We and our surface environment function as a physical buffer or living shield around their home underground.)

The Greys sometimes treat us more like children than animals. They consider us physically beautiful and healthy; mentally young and fresh. They do fear us, contrary to what they may claim, because they do not understand us. (They have no emotions or individuality; they are of a group mind. Socially and culturally, Greys and humans are very different.) They also fear us because they know we are potentially powerful beings. However, they insist that they "own" us: They say they created us and therefore have the right to do what they will with us. Beyond this original "right" to interfere with us, they say they have additionally earned the right through their control. Because they can control us on an individual and cultural basis both physically and mentally, they say they "own us".

These attitudes are propaganda. Their control over us in any capacity is ultimately very frail due to its very nature. Their control is based on intimidation and advanced technology. As we become more aware, we are harder to control, harder to lie to, harder to confuse. Our technology would definitely be competitive with theirs if we had access to it. Much of the technology we would need to effectively overcome this situation exists now. It just isn't made available to the public, for economic reasons, as well as "national security."

The preceding statements about the Greys are based on conversations with them and long observation of them.

Impressions about the Reptilians are more general. I have not engaged in conversations with Reptilians, though they have sometimes spoken to me. Most of my experience with them does not include direct communication between me and them. Almost all of my consciously recalled memories of Reptilians also include Greys, who usually do the communicating between us. Often the Reptilians seem to be present during abductions as observers only, standing off to the side of the action, just watching.

Most abductees are first picked up by aliens small children or babies. My oldest memory of an encounter with the Greys is of an incident that occurred when I was about 16 months old. This infant memory contains a recognition of the aliens when I saw them, and expectations; I asked if they would take me for a ride, like they had before. My own child was first examined by them when he was less than 48 hours old.

We are selected according to some physical quality such as specific brain wave patterns, frequencies or tones. I have been told by both alien and human sources that a simplified version of this process is as follows: the aliens set out looking for likely candidates, probably in a ship, armed with two devices. The first broadcasts a probe signal and the second, like a radar, reads and records the brain wave responses to that signal. The signal is out of our hearing range, as radio signals are. They can very quickly and systematically scan a large group of people on the ground (or anywhere) and zero in on the likely candidates.

After being chosen this way, the child is taken for the first time. This often occurs at night but can happen anywhere, anytime. The parents and other family members, who are probably already asleep, are further rendered unconscious (so they don't wake up no matter what happens) when the child is taken physically to a ship and/or an underground base. The child is further tested relative to the selection quality and implanted with a tracking device. Also, the Greys assign a particular person (Grey) to be that child's "handler". The handler is the one who communicates with the child, etc. (This is a good cop/bad cop ploy that works with children and usually with the rest of us.) Afterward, the child's memory of the event is erased. At first thought, it may seem humane to remove memory of a bad experience from consciousness. However, anyone dealing with the subject in any capacity would quickly realize that this is a destructive policy, because though the memory of the event can be removed, the reaction to the event is not. An example might be a child who is raised in an otherwise normal environment. No one hurts him or oppresses him in his conscious life but he feels hurt and oppressed. He is angry and frightened but has nowhere to direct this energy because he does not know what causes it. So he directs at everything in his conscious environment, especially himself.

After a child has been tagged by implant, he or she is followed from then on. Throughout childhood, there are repeated encounters and memory washes. During this time, the child is programmed or trained to support a lifetime of interaction.

Many other processes occur in this period, some of which were explained to us, though we don't understand/remember them now. I do recall that as a very small child, I was taught levitation and other "psychic" skills, as well as physical skills like changing the body temperature almost instantly. Then I was made to forget these abilities and how to tap into them.

Now, as I work toward a more complete memory of this aspect of the abduction experience, I almost sense a device of some kind attached to me that prevents me from achieving it. This could be anything; I am aware of physical implants and programming triggers, or psychological implants. An example of a psychological implant would be manipulation of an abductee's fundamental belief systems, "enhancing" the survival instinct. If an order (such as,"not to talk") has been inserted into the deep-level survival instinct programming, to violate the order, if it can be done, causes the abductee physical and emotional stress to various degrees. I am also aware of what I can only term as astral devices. As I understand it, all bodies of living creatures are surrounded by an electrical field which can be manipulated and energetic devices can be implanted into or on it. The abductee perceives this as a shadow which is placed in the air some distance from her/his body. It hangs in the air, or if the abductee moves, it moves also, always keeping in the same position and distance relative to the body. Some kind of change can be felt that can only be described as a something to do with energy. Sometimes it is accompanied by a sound heard as if from inside the head. It feels like something like electricity is going through you. I refer to it as a device because the Greys can put it in place, remove it and cause it to vary intensity or change energy.

We are taught/input with much information (almost as if we were biological computers) and made to forget it, throughout the abduction experience. Sometimes we are told the information will come back to us when we need it, or when they need for us to have it. They have said that much of this learning is not for us, but is intended to go through us genetically and subconsciously to reach (after a kind of translation in us) our unborn children, the halfbreed or hybrid children.

Another reason for this education, we are told, is to create a common knowledge base for us (abductees) as a group. This further widens the gap between us a group and the rest of our kind, as does being told, as some of us are, that we will be "taken away" sometime in the future.

Though subliminal information input occurs throughout the abduction experience, I believe it is the focus of the interaction during early childhood.

When a child develops physically to the point of producing hormones, etc., (they can cause this development to occur earlier than it would have without intervention) he or she enters another phase of the experience - intensive harvesting of physical substances. All manner of things are taken from us on a regular basis for as long as we produce them. Sperm, ovum, hormonal substances and blood are the most obvious of their interests along this line, but there is more to it than that.

For the Greys, the most important part of the physical harvesting may be the reproduction related activities. Physically mature females (as young as 11 according to Bud Hopkins) are artificially inseminated with their own eggs fertilized by alien genetic material. Usually, after a short pregnancy of three months or so (during which time her monthly cycles probably are not interrupted), the unborn child is removed. It comes to term in an incubator and the mother is often caused to interact with it as it grows. They tell us the babies could not survive any longer than the three months with us, even when they are several years old. I do not believe that is necessarily true. I also think they leave them in us for the minimum length of time necessary for survival. Also, that this is because of a kind of psychic bonding that occurs, like a psychic umbilical cord, during pregnancy between mother and child. I would not say they understand this as well as they understand some other things about us. I am aware of having produced both Grey and Reptilian hybrids, and have been told that I was allowed to have and keep "the child who lives with me" in order to develop my subconscious ability to promote this bonding process.

The second phase of "adult" abductee interaction is what I will refer to as "soul-shearing". The description is probably inaccurate, but that is what it feels like. I have been told that we all occupy several different "bodies" all stacked together like nesting boxes - the physical body surrounded by the etheric "body" surrounded by the astral "body" surrounded by the mental "body", etc. We also actually have an extra "body", the emotional "body", that the aliens don't have. This part of us constantly puts out a kind of energy they can not generate or simulate. This emotional energy (which you are aware of as love, hate, etc., - it is really all the same kind of energy at different angles and intensities) is, to them, like a potent, much sought-after drug. They can take it out of us and bottle it, so to speak, and use it recreationally, scientifically and as a trade item, like money. We constantly generate this energy, storing it within one of our many "bodies", always keeping a supply "on us." I've been told that it is stored in our etheric body, as a substance, between the small ridges of the etheric field. This energy is also contained within our experiences and memories of experience.

Sometimes, the memory of experience is taken with the energy that contains it. This is why some abductees may experience memory loss of experiences that seem to have nothing to do with abduction. It is interesting to note that once an experience is had and the memory of it created, this memory goes into storage that is consciously available to us and also, like a mirror image, into this etheric field. If it is moved from our conscious minds, it is still stored in the etheric, usually retrievable by regression or other means. However, if it is removed form the etheric, it also disappears from the storage available to consciousness. Memory lost in this way can not necessarily be regained through hypnotic regression. It feels as if the experience itself has literally been snatched out of the past with this kind of memory loss. The Greys will say that has occurred. But even in these cases, diligent pursuit of the past will lead the abductee to a form of the Akashic record under deep hypnosis, sometimes, where a record of events can be found, though it will not be a genuine memory. This record of events is more like a movie scene than a memory of something that actually happened to the observer.

During the process of "soul-shearing", it feels more like something is being taken from within as opposed to from outside the physical body. I know this because we are left conscious for the process; consciousness intensifies the product. Also during this "harvesting", Greys will look directly into our eyes, as if they are drinking something or basking in light. This may be why their eyes strike us as so ugly. They're not really ugly, just big, but when we see them, we subconsciously associate them with the horrible feelings of the harvesting. Abductees will say about Grey eyes, "They seem to look into my very soul." I have always considered that description to be basically backwards. The sight or the memory of the sight of Grey eyes brings on a feeling that they are "sucking my soul out of me" (absorbing it into themselves), not looking into my soul. It feels like you are disappearing from existence.

The "soul-shearing" is not only a harvesting, but one of their control mechanisms. After a harvesting, depending on "how much they took", we may go through intense emotional activity such as depression or anger, over producing the energy as fast as possible to "restock our storage." This can leave us exhausted with no apparent cure but time.

With the process of "soul-shearing" or one like it, they can literally take a person (let's say Billy) out of his body and put him in another person's (let's say Bob's) body. The essence of Billy's conscious awareness and identity, motivations, values, etc., can be put into Bob's body. Bob's essence can be put into storage (something like freezing) while Billy occupies his body. They can separate it further: Billy's essence can be spliced into Bob's body and conscious programming and memory. In other words, Billy could be taken out of his life and body and put into Bob's life and body, and never really even know the difference, except for strange dreams and feelings he could not associate with resident "Bob" memory and programming. I have been threatened with this and would not be surprised to find out it has already happened. I suspect this is done on a regular basis. They do it partly to keep us confused. It is a super-blocking or double-blocking process as far as memory. Beyond experience/memory removal, it is a massive experience/memory replacement.

Many times, I have experienced time as or through another individual, often in other time frames and in other, alien cultures. For a flash of a moment or for several moments at once, I will actually be another person. This is done when they manipulate and temporarily separate our various bodies. They take the part of us that us that is consciously aware into their own group awareness, through which we can experience as another person who has also been taken into the group awareness via implant or whatever other means they may use. I do not know their reasons for doing this yet.

A significant part of the abduction experience is the government factor, for abductees who are not directly involved with it as well as for those of us who are. I can only speak for the American abductee relative to the American government, but I am told that it is done in the same way world wide.

In the 1960's, the American government knew of the abductee situation and had agreed to it. At that time (I don't know if it is still being done), the government also assigned "handlers" to some of the abductee children they knew about. (Were my abductee siblings and I on an abductee list in the late 50's and 60's because our parents were in government employ?) These government handlers were/are agents, every bit as human and local as the abductees. The agent's job was to keep an eye on the abductee and to observe abductions, etc. These agents, having some of the same technology available to them, also conducted their own abductions in order to interrogate the abductees about alien encounters and other testing. Then they erased our memories, just as the aliens do.

My own first experience with an agent handler is as follows: while relating to a friend the story of how my family had moved 3000 miles the summer I was eleven, I recalled having seen the same man (a stranger) on three different occasions in three different parts of the country within the space of about a year. I also remember telling someone that this man was my guardian angel. Out of curiosity, I decided to undergo hypnotic regression to my encounters with this man. During the regression, I recalled the three occasions we met in public that year. The hypnotist then told me to go back to the very first time I ever saw him:

I was seven years old and lying on an examination table in an underground base. The Greys had finished and left the room, leaving me on the table, fully conscious but paralyzed. I could see, feel and hear but could not speak or move. In the next room or somewhere behind me, I could hear one man telling another that he "could have me." I didn't know what that meant but I was afraid it meant I would not see my parents again. A young man in some kind of khaki colored uniform came in the room (he seemed drunk or drugged) and raped me. After awhile, a second man, the handler agent, came into the room, pulled the soldier off me and appeared to beat him up. This was done purposely, to provide a bond between me and the agent. After being saved and avenged by the agent, I was supposed to look upon him as someone to be trusted, who had my best interests in mind. It probably worked.

The point is that there were no aliens involved in the event. The entire situation was created by the government factor and I don't think there was anything unusual about it. We (abductees) are under government surveillance because of our alien contact, but in the minds of the government, we have no civil rights or value at all, beyond our usefulness as far as keeping track of what the aliens are doing.

Further, we may present a danger, which could account in part for the spiteful attitude we are subjected to by government people, especially military people. What would you do if you were the government and you realized that the deal your predecessors made with these aliens had gone band, and you were sitting on a sleeping army of unknown numbers, probably thousands, of abductees?

The agent-handler program intended to track and monitor a percentage of the sleeping army, specifically in hopes of being able to predict a possible future mass movement of the army (presumably orchestrated by aliens through implants.) It would not surprise me to learn that the government is aware of the group mind aspect of the abduction experience. If so, they know the more individual abductees _they_ can counter-control, the more influence they can exert over the army as a whole. If they are not aware of that aspect, then we are probably not only expendable but already lost to the conflict in their minds, since people they tried to remove implants from supposedly died.

The government does have some implant technology, though they may not be able to use it on abductees which the aliens have already implanted by superior technology. But they (the government) definitely have a better understanding of human psychology and how to manipulate it than the aliens do. I believe they are using whatever means are available to them to somehow to create "double-agent abductees", though I do not yet have enough information to expand on it here.

I have been told not to talk about these subjects and am aware of a threat I can't quite identify. I assumed it was alien oriented, especially since the impression is strongest relative to ufo/alien investigation. Specifically, I assumed that it was more of an empty threat with which to control me and did not represent a true danger. Now it occurs to me that the impression is intuitive of real danger from this government factor. Which side has more to lose to exposure? Who is my enemy?

Good people, like my family, work for the government, at least in the superficial, public levels. I don't blame the government for entering into this agreement with the aliens if they did it 40 or 50 years ago. I can understand how they may have felt they had no choice but to do what they did, the way they did it. But at what point did they become the monsters who run drugs and guns to finance their actions, who rape children and murder to keep their secrets, who specifically withhold/suppress the technological developments that would help us fight our way out of this?

We abductees are the human sacrifice of our times. This would probably be acceptable to the vast majority of us if we could believe that it was for the good of the whole nation. (If asked, most of us would have been willing to help the Greys out, too.) But the truth is that all the rest of you have been sold out, as well, right along with me. I could be your wife or daughter. I could be your mother or sister. And there probably are abductees in your family, friends or acquaintances, no matter who you are. But our blood has bought you nothing (like medical, technological and other scientific advancement) and it has not saved you or your children from the aliens. It has served only to line the pockets of the select few in the central power group, be they government, financial, religious and/or alien leaders.

If this system is not successfully opposed, what will happen to you if the Greys really do take us (abductees) away? Who will that central power group feed on, when we, the abductees, are all used up? Themselves?

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI

DATE: March 22, 1950

FROM : GUY HOTTEL, SAC, WASHINGTON

SUBJECT: FLYING SAUCERS
INFORMATION CONCERNING

The following information was furnished to SA [redacted] by [redacted]

An investigator for the Air Forces stated that three so-called flying saucers had been recovered in New Mexico. They were described as being circular in shape with raised centers, approximately 50 feet in diameter. Each one was occupied by three bodies of human shape but only 3 feet tall, dressed in metallic cloth of a very fine texture. Each body was bandaged in a manner similar to the blackout suits used by speed flyers and test pilots.

According to Mr. [redacted] informant, the saucers were found in New Mexico due to the fact that the Government has a very high-powered radar set-up in that area and it is believed the radar interferes with the controling mechanism of the saucers.

No further evaluation was attempted by SA [redacted] concerning the above.

Astrologer warned Reagan of UFO invasion

A TOP astrologer convinced Ronald Reagan that a UFO invasion from outer space was a distinct possibility, the EXAMINER has learned.

By LEONARD SANDLER

May 31, '88/EXAMINER

Amazingly, the warning from renowned star seer Carroll Righter persuaded Reagan to seek the recently signed arms control agreement with the Soviet Union, according to a veteran freelance journalist.

"Righter said the president believed we and the Russians would have to work together to fight off the alien invaders," explained the journalist, who extensively interviewed Righter shortly before the 88-year-old astrologer died in April.

The well-known Righter, who wrote several books on astrology plus a syndicated daily column for 166 newspapers around the world, said he told Reagan that a reading of heavenly bodies persuaded him that a UFO attack could very well occur before 1993.

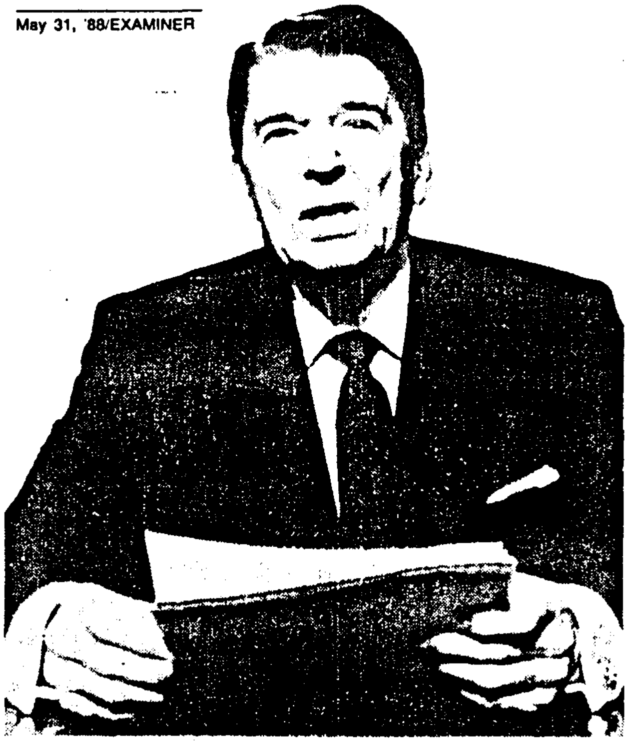

"Reagan and I have spoken often over the years, and he takes what I say very seriously," Righter disclosed to the reporter.

"I could tell he was very impressed by my warning. He was silent for several minutes, then began thinking out loud over what to do to meet the threat."

One idea Reagan said he would seriously consider was turning Star Wars from a defense against the Soviet Union to a planetary shield against alien forces.

"He told me he might be willing to share Star Wars data with Gorbachev, if it meant saving the Earth from outside beings," Righter revealed.

Reagan recently added fuel to the uproar over the use of astrology at the White House by disclosing publicly that he often wondered what would happen if the Earth were invaded by "a power from outer space."

"I've often wondered what if all of us in the world discovered we were threatened by a power from another planet," Reagan said in Chicago.

"Wouldn't we all of a sudden find that we didn't have any differences between us at all, we were all human beings, citizens of the world, and wouldn't we come together to fight that particular threat?"

Meanwhile, fallout continues from the revelations by former White House Chief of Staff Donald Regan that the president and his wife hardly made a move or decision without consulting California-based astrologer Joan Quigley.

Regan says Nancy Reagan's interest in astrology became serious after the assassination attempt on the president in 1981. After that, no public appearance or travel was planned without Quigley's approval.

Regan said he told Vice President George Bush about Nancy Reagan's dependence on astrological advice.

Bush listened with surprise and consternation on his face before exclaiming: "Good God. I had no idea," Regan discloses.

But as the EXAMINER reported in our world exclusive of September 7, 1982, Bush owes his current position in the government to Reagan's fascination with astrology.

We said Bush was tapped for the vice presidency in 1980 because Los Angeles astrologer Joyce Jillson decided that Bush, a Gemini, was best suited to be the running mate for Reagan, an Aquarian.

'Often Wondered' About Outer Space Invaders: Reagan

CHICAGO (AP)—One day after an uproar about the use of astrology at the White House, President Reagan said today he often wonders what would happen if the Earth were invaded by "a power from outer space."

Reagan made the comment during a question and answer session after a Chicago speech when someone asked what he felt was the most important need in international relations.

He spoke of the importance of frankness and for a desire for peaceful solutions, and went on to say that there have been "about 114 wars" since World World II.

"But I've often wondered, what if all of us in the world discovered that we were threatened by an outer—a power from outer space, from another planet," Reagan said.

"Wouldn't we all of a sudden find that we didn't have any differences between us at all, we were all human beings, citizens of the world, and wouldn't we come together to fight that particular threat?"

PETITION TO INDICT

The Government of these United States of America, having been formed under the Constitution and having been duly elected and appointed by the people of these United States of America under the terms of the Constitution, has violated the public trust, terms, conditions and laws of the land as outlined and enshrined within the Constitution of these United States of America.

To Wit:

(1) The government has approved and entered into a secret treaty with an Alien Nation against the terms of the Constitution and without the advise and consent of the Congress or the people.

(2) The government in this treaty has given this Alien Nation land and bases within the borders of these United States of America.

(3) The government in this treaty has traded human lives and property for the alien technology and has denied the citizens of these United States of America the lawful protection due them under the Constitution. The property is in the form of livestock and land.

(4) In the taking of human lives, property and livestock of the citizens of these United States and in the commission of numerous other abominable and barbarous acts, this Alien Nation has proven to be the mortal enemy of the people, the nation, and all of humanity. Abductions, surgical operations, implantations, biological sampling, impregnations, psychological damage, and other horrors have been and are being performed upon humans by this Alien Nation. For these reasons a state of war now exists and has existed between the people of the United States and this Alien Nation.

(5) In approving of, and participating in the crimes outlined in paragraphs 1, 2, 3, and 4 above, the government is in violation of Article II Section 2, Article III Section 3 and several other Articles of the Constitution, and is guilty of and is hereby charged with conspiracy, murder and treason against the people and the Constitution of these United States of America.

(6) In the process of aiding and abetting the Alien Nation in the performance of these crimes against the people, the Nation, and humanity, the government, with full knowledge and consent, has murdered, incarcerated, forcibly relocated, brainwashed, drugged, harassed and otherwise interfered unlawfully in the lives of patriots, including a President of the United States, who have attempted to expose this murder and treason.

(7) To keep this secret from the Congress and from the people of these United States of America, the Government has financed its Alien involvement through the importation and sale of illegal narcotics to the nations people and specifically to the nations youth. The Central Intelligence Agency has been and continues to be the main instrument in the control of the worlds drug market. "The use of illegal narcotics to finance the Alien connected projects and other black projects will identify and eliminate the weak elements of our society", is the rationalization used by the Government to justify these heinous and treasonous acts.

(8) In the pursuit of bringing all those in or out of the government who are responsible for these acts of conspiracy, murder and treason to justice, the Trilateral Commission, the President, Vice President, the Director of Central Intelligence, certain other members of the Central Intelligence Agency, the Director of the National Security Agency, certain members of the President's Cabinet, the Joint Chiefs of Staff, those people designated MAJORITY, MAJORITY TWELVE, MJ-12, MAJORITY AGENCY FOR JOINT INTELLIGENCE (MAJI), the JASON SOCIETY or JASON SCHOLARS, the DIRECTOR of the SENIOR INTERAGENCY GROUP (SIG), the National Security Advisor to the President, the Navy Department which has field operational control of all Alien connected projects, and others having taken part in the joint government and alien conspiracy are hereby charged with conspiracy murder and treason. This is to include all those who served in these positions from 1953 up to and including the present administration.

(9) We call for the impeachment of the President of these United States, George Bush. He has been a member of MJ-12 and the Trilateral Commission since he was the President and CEO of Zapata Oil. George Bush organized and has headed the narcotics smuggling conspiracy since its beginning. The offshore oil platforms of Zapata Oil were used as staging areas from which the drugs were moved into these United States from Central and South America without passing through customs or undergoing inspection of any kind. We firmly believe that George Bush now heads this shadow government that controls the Alien technology, the military industrial complex, and thus the Nation. The fact that he is now the President of these United States of America makes George Bush the most powerful and dangerous criminal in the history of the world.

(10) In the interest of preserving the Constitution and the government of these United States of America, and to save and protect the human race, and for no other reason, we bring these charges by the authority of the Constitution of these United States of America, against those named who had full knowledge of and who willfully participated in the violations of Article II Section 2, Article III Section 3 and several other Articles of the Constitution of these United States of America. The government and those individuals named in paragraph 8 and 9 are hereby charged with conspiracy, murder and treason.

(11) In the interest of preserving the Constitution and the government of these United States of America, we ask full pardon in exchange for full disclosure. We ask the Judicial branch of the government to honor this request for all guilty conspirators who voice full disclosure by May 30, 1989. We ask the Judicial branch to give no mercy to those who persist in this conspiracy, murder and treason.

(12) We hereby, and in the name of the people and by the authority of the constitution, charge the government to cease aiding and abetting and concealing this Alien Nation which exists within our borders. We charge the government to cease all conspiracies, operations, projects, treaties, and any other involvement with this Alien Nation. We charge the government to order this Alien Nation and all of its members to leave the United States and this earth immediately, now and for all time, by November 1, 1989, and we charge the government to enforce this order. We further charge the government to make a complete disclosure of its alien conspiracy to the American people prior to May 30, 1989 and to make a full accounting for its actions. We charge the Congress to order this to be done and we charge the Congress to enforce this order.

(13) Should the Executive, Judicial, and Legislative branches choose to ignore these charges, we hereby swear upon the Constitution that we will not rest until this conspiracy and these crimes are exposed to the American people. We swear on the Constitution that all guilty parties shall be brought to justice. We swear that we will persist until our death to accomplish these ends in the name of humanity, the Constitution of these United States of America, and in the name of all true patriots who have gone before us, we do so swear.

(14) We firmly believe and know and have evidence that this conspiracy and these crimes and charges are true and have occurred and is now true and is now occurring and were and are perpetrated, aided and abetted by those so charged. This we do swear.

(15) We hereby, and upon delivery of this document to the members of the Senate and House of Representatives of the Congress of these United States of America, serve notice to the world that these charges and this document are now and forever recorded in history. This document and these charges will not and cannot ever be revoked by any act, present or future. History alone will be the judge should the Congress fail to act and we have no fear of that judgement. We hereby warn each member of the Senate and the House of Representatives of the Congress of these United States of America that failure to act upon these charges will forever brand each and every one of you as accessories to the conspiracy and the crimes outlined in this document. Your children, grand-children, great grand-children, and the present and future generations of the people of these United States of America will not forget and will never forgive. We warn you now and forever that these United States of America, the Constitution, and Freedom, has never been in greater danger. We hope and pray that it is not already to late to save the Nation.

Being of sound mind and body and with full knowledge of the implications and consequences of these charges and having only the interest of saving humanity, preserving the Constitution of these United States, preserving the government of these United States, and, being patriots, having sworn to preserve and protect the Constitution of these United States of America do affix our signature to this document in full affirmation of our dedication and commitment to our sworn duty.

Many other signatures exist on the original copy of this document. Due to the historical significance of this document, the document and attached signatures are being preserved in a safe place for future generations. If Congress acts upon these charges, the original copy with the attached signatures will be presented to the Congress in Washington DC at such time that it becomes necessary.

The other signatories will not be revealed unless congress acts upon these charges. It is in this manner that we can guarantee that others may continue to work to expose this madness should the Congress fail to act. If anything should happen to me a large network of people exist to carry on our work and eventually bring the criminals to justice.

As a witness to these crimes, I respectfully petition the Congress for protection. My life and the lives of my family are now in danger. I also respectfully petition the Congress for protection for all other witnesses who can be produced and for protection of those others who have signed the original document. I also petition the Congress to take steps to protect the evidence which we have collected and which is stored in various locations and with various people throughout the United States. I beg the Congress not to trust any other government agency with these matters because this conspiracy runs deep within the government. I beg you to trust only the Congress in these matters. I also beg the members of Congress who intend to act upon this petition to take positive steps to protect your own lives.

Respectfully,

William Cooper

NOTARIZED DECLARATION OF MILTON WILLIAM COOPER

To whom it may concern;

1. I Milton William Cooper, Executive Director of National Technical College, residing at 1311 S. Highland Ave. Apt. #205, Fullerton, California 92632, hereby declare:

   a. That my file entitled "Operation Majority" which I posted on Compuserve on January 14, 1989, (posted under the pseudonym Majesty on December 12, 1989), and which I sent to Linda Howe, truthfully and accurately describes to the best of my knowledge and memory the information that I saw in 1972 which was contained in Grudge/Blue Book Report No. 13, Operation Majority, and in briefings which I helped to prepare in the course of my duties on the Intelligence Briefing Team of the Commander in Chief of the Pacific Fleet while serving in the U. S. Navy as a Petty Officer.

   b. That I am ready and willing to take a lie detector test which is arranged by any reputable person and which is conducted by a qualified, neutral person who is not now and has never been employed by or connected with the Government in any capacity.

   c. That I am ready and willing to take any other test which is arranged by any reputable person and otherwise conforms to the stipulations in paragraph (b) above.

2. I declare, under penalty of perjury, that the foregoing statements are true.

OPERATION MAJORITY

This file contains the absolute true information regarding the alien presence on earth and the US Governments involvement with the aliens. This file contains only the information as I saw it and only my information. It does not contain any information from any other source.

It was necessary for me to issue the information previous to this release in a manner which would deceive the Government until someone was able to independently confirm my identity, my employment, my service record, my intelligence background, the identity of the person to which I gave the information to in 1972, his acknowledgment of the information and when it was given to him, that the information is correct, that I have not seen him since 1974, and that I have not communicated with him in any form since 1976. This was necessary because this file is my death warrant if MJ-12 continues to operate in a manner consistent with its history.

All in the last paragraph has been independently verified by 2 different people who have no connection with each other. I will only list one for obvious reasons.

Tony Pelham, Journalist
Las Vegas Bullet, (Newspaper)
300 West Boston
Las Vegas, Nevada 89102

The original information that I first released was not much different than what you will find here. Only some names were different and just enough (I hoped) to convince MJ-12 and MAJI that I was not a threat long enough to have independent verification of the far s before I risked death. I wish to make it absolutely clear that I do not consider myself a hero. I believe that most of you would do the same thing if you knew the truth. I gave an oath that I would uphold and protect the Constitution of the United States of America and I take that oath very seriously. I am doing no more now than I did when I fought in Vietnam. I am doing my duty.

Please make copies of this file and send it to your

Congressman, your Senator, the Attorney General of the United States, and to the Supreme Court. Send it also to everyone you know. Attach copies of the Bill English file and John Lear's file. Send anything else you may have which tends to support the information.

I Milton William Cooper, 1311 S. Highland #205, Fullerton, California, 92632, (714) 680-9537, do solemnly swear that the information contained in this file is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I swear that I saw this information in 1972 in the performance of my duties as a member of the Intelligence Briefing Team of the Commander In Chief of the Pacific Fleet as a Petty Officer in the US Navy. I swear that I underwent hypnotic regression in order to make the information as accurate as possible. I swear that I can and will take a lie detector test or any other test of any reputable persons choosing in order to confirm this information. I swear that I can and will undergo hypnotic regression conducted by any reputable and qualified Doctor of any reputable persons choosing in order to confirm this information. I will not, however submit to any test or hypnosis by anyone who is now or has ever been connected with the Government in any capacity for obvious reasons.

The following a is brief listing of everything that I personally saw and know from 1972 and does not contain any input from any other source whatsoever.

MAJESTY was listed as the code word for the President of the United States for communications concerning this information.

OPERATION MAJORITY is the name of the operation responsible for every aspect, project, and consequence of alien presence on earth.

GRUDGE Contains 16 volumes of documented information collected from the beginning of the United States investigation of Unidentified Flying Objects (UFO's) and Identified Alien Crafts (IAC). The project was funded by CIA confidential funds (non-appropriated) and money from the illicit drug trade. Participation in the illegal drug trade was justified in that it would identify and eliminate the weak elements of our society. The purpose of project GRUDGE was to collect all scientific, technological, medical and intelligence information from UFO/IAC sightings and contacts with alien life forms. This orderly file of collected information has been used to advance the United States Space Program.

MJ-12 is the name of the secret control group. President Eisenhower commissioned a secret society known as THE JASON SOCIETY (JASON SCHOLARS) under the leadership of the Director of Central Intelligence (Allen Welsh Dulles), Dr. Zbigniew Brzezinski (President of the Trilateral Commission from 1973 until 1976), and Dr. Henry Kissinger (leader of the scientific effort), to sift through all the facts, evidence, technology, lies and deception and find the truth of the alien question. The society was made up of 32 of the most prominent men in the country and the top 12 members were designated MJ-12. MJ-12 has total control of everything. They are designated by the code J-1, J-2, J-3, etc all the way through the members of the Jason Society. The director of Central Intelligence was appointed J-1 and is the Director of MJ-12. MJ-12 is responsible only to the President. MJ-12 runs most of the worlds illegal drug trade. This was done to hide funding and thus keep the secret from the Congress and the people of the United States. It was justified in that it would identify and eliminate the weak elements of our society. The cost of funding the alien connected projects is higher than anything you can imagine. MJ-12 assassinated President Kennedy when he informed them that he was going to tell the public all the facts of the alien presence. He was killed by the Secret Service agent driving his car and it is plainly visible in the film held from public view. A secret meeting place was constructed for MJ-12 in MARYLAND and it was described as only accessible by air. It contains full living, recreational, and other facilities for MJ-12 and the JASON SOCIETY. It is code named "THE COUNTRY CLUB". The land for "THE COUNTRY CLUB" was donated by the Rockefeller family. Only those with TOP SECRET/MAJIC clearance are allowed to go there.

MAJI is the MAJORITY AGENCY FOR JOINT INTELLIGENCE. All information, disinformation, and intelligence is gathered and evaluated by this agency. This agency is responsible for all disinformation and operates in conjunction with the CIA, NSA the Defense Intelligence Agency, and the Office of Naval Intelligence. This is a very powerful organization and all alien projects are under its control. MAJI is responsible only to MJ-12.

SIGMA is the project which first established communications with the aliens and is still responsible for communications.

PLATO is the project responsible for Diplomatic relations with the aliens. This project secured a formal treaty (illegal under the Constitution) with the aliens. The terms were that the aliens would give us technology and would not interfere in our history. In return we agreed to keep their presence on earth a secret, not to interfere in any way with their actions, and to allow them to abduct humans and animals. The aliens agreed to furnish MJ-12 with a list of abductees on a periodic basis.

MAJIC is the security classification and clearance of all alien connected material, projects, and information. MAJIC means MAJI controlled.

AQUARIUS is a project which compiled the history of alien presence and their interaction with Homo Sapiens upon this planet for the last 25,000 years and culminating with the Basque people who live in the mountainous country on the border of France and Spain and the Syrians or Assyrians.

GARNET is the project responsible for control of all information and documents regarding this subject and accountability of the information and documents.

PLUTO is a project to evaluate all UFO/IAC information pertaining to space technology.

POUNCE, this project was formed to recover all downed/crashed craft and aliens. This project provided cover stories and operations to mask the true endeavor when necessary. Covers which have been used: crashed experimental aircraft, construction, mining, etc. this project has been successful. This project is ongoing.

LUNA is the alien base on the far side of the Moon. It was seen and filmed by the Apollo Astronauts. A base, a mining operation using very large machines, and the very large alien craft described in sighting reports as MOTHER SHIPS exist there.

NRO is the National Recon Organization based at Fort Carson, Colorado. It is responsible for security for all alien or alien craft connected projects.

DELTA is the designation for the specific arm of the NRO which is especially trained and tasked with security of these projects.

BLUE TEAM------THE FIRST PROJECT RESPONSIBLE FOR REACTION/RECOVERY OF DOWNED/CRASHED ALIEN CRAFT AND/OR ALIENS. THIS WAS AN AIR FORCE MATERIAL COMMAND PROJECT.

SIGN-----------THE SECOND PROJECT RESPONSIBLE FOR COLLECTION OF INTELLIGENCE AND DETERMINING WHETHER ALIEN PRESENCE CONSTITUTED A THREAT TO THE NATIONAL SECURITY. SIGN ABSORBED BLUE TEAM. THIS WAS AN AIR FORCE/CIA PROJECT.

REDLIGHT-------MISSION WAS TO TEST FLY RECOVERED ALIEN CRAFT THIS PROJECT WAS POSTPONED AFTER EVERY ATTEMPT RESULTED IN DESTRUCTION OF THE CRAFT AND DEATH OF THE PILOTS. THIS PROJECT WAS CARRIED OUT AT AREA 51 IN NEVADA (GROOM LAKE/DREAMLAND). PROJECT REDLIGHT WAS RESUMED IN 1972. THIS PROJECT HAS BEEN PARTIALLY SUCCESSFUL. UFO SIGHTINGS OF CRAFT ACCOMPANIED BY BLACK HELICOPTERS ARE PROJECT REDLIGHT ASSETS. THIS PROJECT IS ONGOING AT AREA 51 IN NEVADA.

SNOWBIRD-------Established as a COVER for Project REDLIGHT. A flying saucer "TYPE" craft was built using conventional technology. It was unveiled to the press and flown in public on several occasions. The purpose was to explain accidental sightings or disclosures of REDLIGHT as having been the SNOWBIRD craft. This was a very successful disinformation operation. This Project is only activated when needed. It has not been used for many years. This project is currently in mothballs until needed again.

BLUE BOOK------THIS WAS AN AIR FORCE UFO/ALIEN INTELLIGENCE COLLECTION AND DISINFORMATION PROJECT. THIS PROJECT WAS TERMINATED AND ITS COLLECTED INFORMATION AND DUTIES WERE ABSORBED BY PROJECT AQUARIUS. CLASSIFIED REPORT NAMED "GRUDGE/BLUE BOOK REPORT NO. 13" IS THE ONLY SIGNIFICANT INFORMATION DERIVED FROM THE PROJECT AND IS UNAVAILABLE TO THE PUBLIC. (FROM WHAT I READ FROM BILL ENGLISH IT SEEMS THAT HE REALLY SAW THIS REPORT AS HE DESCRIBES THE SAME INFORMATION THAT I SAW IN "GRUDGE/BLUE BOOK REPORT NO. 13.)

JOSHUA is a project to develop a low frequency pulsed sound generating weapon. It was said that this weapon would be effective against the alien craft and beam weapons.

EXCALIBUR is a weapon to destroy the alien underground bases. It is to be a missile capable of penetrating 1000 meters of Tufa/hard packed soil such as that found in New Mexico with no operational damage. Missile apogee not to exceed 30,000 feet AGL and impact must not deviate in excess of 50 meters from designated target. The device will carry a 1 megaton nuclear warhead.

ALIENS, there were 4 types of aliens mentioned in the papers. A LARGE NOSED GREY with whom we have the treaty, the GREY reported in abductee cases that works for the LARGE NOSED GREY, a blond human like type described as the NORDIC, a red haired human like type called the ORANGE. The homes of the aliens were described as being a star in the Constellation of Orion, Barnards star, and Zeta Riticuli 1&2. I cannot remember even under hypnosis which alien belongs to which star.

EBE is the name or designation given to the live alien captured at the 1949 Roswell crash. He died in captivity.

KRLL OR KRLLL OR CRLL OR CRLLL pronounced Crill or Krill was the hostage left with us at the first Holloman landing as a pledge that the aliens would carry out their part of the basic agreement reached during that meeting. KRLL gave us the foundation of the yellow book which was completed by the guests at a later date. KRLL became sick and was nursed by Dr. G. Mendoza who became the expert on alien biology and medicine. KRLL later died (I'm not to sure of his death as this memory may be a carry over from EBE). His information was disseminated under the pseudonym O.H. Cril or Crill. KRLL became the Alien Ambassador to the United States.

GUESTS were aliens exchanged for humans who gave us the balance of the yellow book. At the time I saw the information there were only 3 left alive. They were called (ALF's) Alien Life Forms.

RELIGION The aliens claim to have created Homo Sapiens through hybridization. The papers said that RH- blood was proof of this. They further claimed to have created all of our major religions. They showed a hologram of the crucifixion of Christ which the Government filmed. They claim that Jesus was created by them.

ALIEN BASES exist in the four corners area of Utah, Colorado, New Mexico, and Arizona. Six bases were described in the 1972 papers, all on indian reservations and all in the four corners area. The base near Dulce was one of them.

MURDER The documents stated that many military and government personnel had been terminated (murdered without due process of law) when they had attempted to reveal the secret.

CRAFT RECOVERIES The documents stated that many craft had been recovered. The early ones from Roswell, Aztec, Roswell again, Texas, Mexico, and other places.

GENERAL DOOLITTLE made a prediction that one day we would have to reckon with the aliens and the document stated that it appeared that General Doolittle was correct.

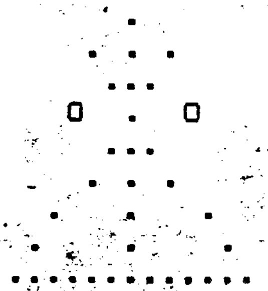

ABDUCTIONS were occurring long before 1972. The document stated that humans and animals were being abducted and or mutilated. Many vanished without a trace. They were taking sperm and ova samples, tissue, performed surgical operations, implanted a spherical device 40 to 80 microns in size near the optic nerve in the brain and all attempts to remove it resulted in the death of the patient. The document estimated that 1 in every 40 people had been implanted. This implant was said to give the aliens total control of that human.

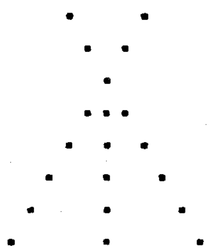

CONTINGENCY PLAN SHOULD THE INFORMATION BECOME PUBLIC OR SHOULD THE ALIENS ATTEMPT TAKEOVER.
This plan called for a public announcement that a terrorist group had entered the United States with an Atomic weapon. It would be announced that the terrorists planned to detonate the weapon in a major city. Martial Law would be declared and all persons with implants would be rounded up along with all dissidents and would be placed into concentration camps. The press, radio, and TV would be nationalized and controlled. Anyone attempting to resist would be arrested or killed.

CONTINGENCY PLAN TO CONTAIN OR DELAY RELEASE OF INFORMATION
This plan called for the use of MAJESTIC TWELVE as a disinformation ploy to delay and confuse the release of information should anyone get close to the truth. It was selected because of the similarity of spelling and the similarity to MJ-12. It was designed to confuse memory and to result in a fruitless search for material which did not exist.

I have information now (its about time) that the existence of Project Joshua has been confirmed. The weapon was developed and assembled at Ling Tempco Vought in Anahiem California. It was described to me as being able to totally level ANY man made structure from a distance of 2 miles. It was tested at White Sands Proving grounds. It was developed between 1975 and 1978. It is a long horn shaped device connected to a computer and amplifiers. LTV has since moved from its Anaheim facility which was near the Grand Hotel across the street from Disneyland.

I have also confirmed the existence of an alien craft at a hanger at Edwards AFB. The hanger is at North Base. It has been guarded by NON Edwards personnel (NRO - DELTA). The guards had a badge that was red with a black triangle on the face of the badge. No one was allowed near the hanger without the badge. These people are no longer guarding the hanger. The Edwards security force are instructed to check the hanger each hour and report status. The hanger is locked and no one is allowed inside. Edwards security personnel have been instructed never to enter the hanger even if it has been broken into. I have also confirmed the existence of alien material at a hanger at Edwards AFB.

On craft & uniforms

Marks bases and landing sites

This is one of the insignia that is on the alien craft. It is called a TRILATERAL insignia. I do not know what it means. It is in GRUDGE/BLUE BOOK REPORT NO. 13 and my sources confirm that this is the alien flag so to speak.

MALEVOLENT ALIEN LIFE FORM (ALF) DESCRIPTION

The typical MALEVOLENT (ALF) as represented thus far can be described as follows:

1. Between 3 to 5 ft. in hieght.

2. Erect standing biped. Long thin legs.

3. Small build (thin).

4. Head larger than normal (to human proportions).

5. Absence of auditory lobes (external earlobes).

6. Absence of body hair.

7. Large, tear shaped eyes, opaque black with vertical slit pupils (cats eye).

8. Eyes slanted approx 35 degrees

9. Small straight mouth, thin lips.

10. Arms resemble praying mantis (normal attitude). Arms reach to knees (extended).

11. Long hands (small palm)

12. Claw like fingers, two short, two long. (webbed)

13. Tough, gray skin, reptile like in texture.

14. Small feet, 4 small claw like toes.

15. Some Organs are similar to humans but developed in a different evolutionary process.

16. The most significant finding is that they have a Nonfunctioning digestive system and two separate brains. Digestive system in those examined were atrophied. Conforms to absence of provisions in recovered craft. (Preliminary finding)

17. Movement is deliberate, slow, precise.

18. (Secondary finding after study) Alien subsistence requires that they must have human blood and other human biological substances to survive. In extreme circumstances they can subsist on other animal fluids. Food is converted to energy by chloro[illegible]yl through photosynthesis and waste products are excreted through skin. (Did they evolve from plant life? Not known at this time.) These creatures possess two separate brains separated by mid cranial lateral bone partition (anterior brain - posterior brain) with no apparent connection between the two.

GUEST-----------ALIEN LIFE FORM HELD PRISONER IN AN AREA KNOWN AS THE ICE CAVE AT LOS ALAMOS, NEW MEXICO. THERE WERE ORIGINALLY 16 CAPTIVE ALIENS HELD AT THIS LOCATION. 15 HAVE DIED. THE ALIEN "GUESTS" FURNISHED EXTENSIVE INFORMATION ON THE ALIENS AND THEIR HISTORY WHICH IS KNOWN AS THE "YELLOW BOOK". THESE "GUESTS" WERE INDEED FED ICE CREAM AND LIKED STRAWBERRY ABOVE ALL OTHER FLAVORS. THESE ALIENS WERE HELD IN EXCHANGE FOR 16 HUMANS WHO BECAME "GUESTS" OF THE ALIENS NO INFORMATION REGARDING THE HUMAN "GUESTS" IS AVAILABLE FROM ANY SOURCE. THE "GUESTS" ENJOY MUSIC OF A FAR EASTERN NATURE AND ESPECIALLY ENJOY MUSIC WHICH ORIGINATES FROM TIBET. THEY POSSESS AN EXTREMELY HIGH IQ WHICH IS IN THE 200 RANGE. THEY HAVE A TENDENCY TO LIE.

RELIGION--------THE ALIENS CLAIM THAT MAN IS A HYBRID CREATED BY THEM. THEY CLAIM THAT ALL RELIGION WAS CREATED BY THEM TO HASTEN THE FORMATION OF A CIVILIZED CULTURE AND TO CONTROL THE HUMAN RACE. THEY CLAIM THAT JESUS WAS A PRODUCT OF THEIR EFFORTS. THE ALIENS HAVE FURNISHED PROOF OF THESE CLAIMS AND HAVE A DEVICE THAT ALLOWS THEM TO SHOW AUDIBLY AND VISUALLY ANY PART OF HISTORY THAT THEY OR WE WISH TO SEE. THEY CLAIM THAT RH- BLOOD IS THE PROOF OF HYBRIDIZATION AND OUR OWN SCIENCE TENDS TO BEAR OUT THEIR CLAIM.

This file contains the; (1) My reason for releasing this information to the public, (2) My credentials, (3) The existence of one other person to whom I gave the information in 1972 in anticipation of one day needing to validate the information.

(1) I have 2 reasons for releasing this information at this time. (A) When I first saw the information I was sure that the government would handle the situation and not allow the people to be abducted, injured, or just disappear. My belief in the government has proven false. Not only has it not been handled but the situation has deteriorated and the incidents have increased worldwide. What has happened is against the Constitution of the United States of America which I have sworn to uphold and protect. What is happening is against every law in every state. What is happening violates the human rights of every citizen of the world. It could happen to any member or members of my family or your family at any time. I am a loyal American and have never divulged any of my countrys secrets and except for this one I never will. I do not believe that revealing this secret is against the law as the secret itself violates every law that has ever been written. Senator Barry Goldwater was the Chairman of the Senate Committee which approved funds for the CIA and has stated publicly that he has no knowledge of any of this. That means and it is a fact that the Congress is ignorant of what is going on. In fact I believe that it is my duty to expose it as thoroughly and as quickly as possible. I only regret that I have waited so long. I waited because I believed so much in our system of government. THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT HAS BETRAYED ALL OF US. (B) In my efforts to get the information out it became obvious that soon the government would discover what I am doing and my life would be in danger. I believe that my life is now in danger and the only way to protect myself is to go public with the information. I realize that the information is hard to swallow and that many people will not believe it. I also realize that I have exposed myself to ridicule. So be it. If I am prosecuted or harmed in any way you all will know that the information is correct. If I suddenly disappear you will all know that the information is correct.

(2) I am the son of an Air Force officer and was reared on Air Force bases all over the world. My father was a pilot. As a child I repeatedly overheard pilots and airmen discuss strange stories involving UFO's, Foo Fighters, strange crashes of craft "not from here", and other subjects that were exciting to me at the time. I graduated from High School in Japan and shortly there-after joined the Air Force. I finished basic at Lackland Air Force Base and was assigned to the Strategic Air Command. I was an Aircraft and Missile Pneudraulic Technician. During my training instructors would regale us with tales of lonely nights spent on flight lines, alert pads, and missile silos. They told of strange alien craft that would come down and paralyze the men on station and then remove the warhead from the missile and disappear at fantastic speed. I met a sergeant who told me that he was part of a team that transported such a large crashed disk that it could only be moved at night on back roads and fences and poles had to be torn down and replaced as the convoy passed. I listened to all these stories and wondered what was going on but didn't really believe them. I was discharged from the Air Force in 1965. I was very adventurous at the time and joined the navy in December of 1965. I volunteered for submarines and was assigned to the USS Tiru (SS-416) at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii. Or a cruise to the Portland Seattle area, while on lookout a UFO the size of an Aircraft carrier rose up out of the water and disappeared into the clouds while we were on the surface and I was the Port lookout. It descended back down into the water and rose back up into the clouds again several times. It was witnessed by myself, The Starboard lookout, The Officer of the deck, The Captain, and the Chief Quartermaster who took pictures. We were told not to discuss it with anyone ever.

Upon docking at Pearl upon our return a man in plain clothes came aboard and talked to each of us with only the Captain present. He identified himself as an Intelligence Officer (ONI) and asked me what I saw. I began to tell him and he yelled at me to stop and then he again asked me what I saw. I told him that I had not seen anything and he smiled at me and told me I was a very good sailor. He told me that was the right answer and dismissed me. I soon grew tired of the cramped quarters of a Submarine and de-volunteered. The rest of my history is as follows.

My primary military occupation is Quartermaster (Navigation)
My secondary NEC is 9545 (Internal Security)

Since leaving the navy I have worked at several companies engaged in work for the government or the intelligence community. Some of this work involved training foreign military personnel. I have also obtained a college degree in photography. This is a field I have long been interested in.

I am not now connected with the government or the intelligence community except for friends that I have made over the years. Most recently I have been involved in management of civilian training facilities.

Currently The institute where I am presently employed is known to 3 of you and I do not wish it to be disclosed as the release of this information could have adverse affects upon my employment.

(3) In 1972 I related this information to one other person for self protection and so that the information could be verified at some latter date should the government not handle the situation. I gave him the information on the eve of my wedding. The last person to person contact I had with him was in 1974. The last contact of ANY kind was in 1976 or 1977 by phone. I have not seen him, written to him, phoned him, or had any contact with him at all since that time. I maintained this distance to prevent any accusation of collusion or hoax should it ever be necessary to release the information. I also did it for his protection so that he would not be involved if the government should decide to harm me before the information could be released. I gave him a copy of the information in the form of a copy of an original document. I retained the other copy but mine was destroyed in a storage fire. He can and will verify the information to the right person with the right code (which we agreed upon) to release it. 3 of you have his name, the last place he lived in 1976, and the code. I will not contact him until the information is verified. He can validate my intelligence background and the information. He can state all of this truthfully and because of our separation over the years will be able to pass any lie detector test to prove this is not a hoax. I would also be able to pass the same test or any other test, sodium pentathol etc.

I have also received a call from a man named Christopher who called from an area code in Maryland. By his conversation with me on the phone I know that he has also seen th Majority information and the Grudge document. I also know that he is a member of Compuserve. That is all I know about him. I left out a graphic on the reconstructed document that I posted in my MAJIC file and he questioned the omission. It is a minor detail that I did not think important but he spotted it. The only way he could have known that the graphic was missing would be that he has seen it himself. The graphic was 2 lightning bolts which strike at the bottom of the finned rocket which is enclosed in the circle. Since I could not put graphics in the document I only included a short description.

I tested my father once by relating that I had seen information while in the navy that the Government had recovered UFO's which had crashed. I did this to gauge his reaction because I knew that at one time when I was very little he was the radar Officer at White Sands Proving Ground. He gave me a very knowing look and advised me not to talk about it. I have never discussed the matter with him since.

HISTORY WILL BE THE JUDGE OF ME AND THIS INFORMATION AND I HAVE NO FEAR OF THAT JUDGEMENT. I SWEAR THAT THIS INFORMATION IS TRUE AND CORRECT TO THE BEST OF MY KNOWLEDGE.

I wish to thank all those people who have aided me in reaching this point and for their patience and understanding. I owe you all more than I can ever repay.

Finally, it does not matter who is right and who is wrong or if a project name is in the wrong place. It does not matter who is working for who or what is really what. It should be obvious by now that something sinister and terribly wrong is going on involving the government and the UFO phenomenon. We must all band together and expose it now. I have done my part in the best manner that I could. I can add nothing else except my testimony in Congress or a court of law that what I saw and have written in this file is true and that I saw it.

COME FORWARD NOW IF YOU HAVE ANY INFORMATION AT ALL WHICH WILL SUBSTANTIATE THIS INFORMATION. THIS MAY BE THE ONLY CHANCE TO EXPOSE THIS TERRIBLE SITUATION. IF I FAIL YOU ALL FAIL.

Dear Linda:

A few months ago you called me regarding an old friend of mine, William (Bill) Cooper. You asked me to confirm seeing and receiving documents from Bill Cooper on the night of his wedding in 1972.

I have been reluctant to discuss this with you and with the numerous pople who have been trying to contact me. I have never met you or any of the other people that called me on the phone. I would have liked to have met with John Lear, however, when I was finally able to return his call, he had checked out of his hotel in Honolulu.

Bill and I were close friends. We discussed numerous subjects. However, when I would push in an area of a classified nature, he simply said that he could not discuss it. Throughout our friendship, I was involved in commercial as well as a sportdiving operations based out of Honolulu (Skin Diving Hawaii). The work which we were involved in required team work and trust. Often the topic of UFO's would be discussed. I learned through Bill that every space flight was accompanied by UFO's. As I have said, Bill and I were good friends. I was best man at his wedding. On the eve of his wedding, there was no party.

Here is what I remember of that evening.

Bill wanted to discuss something which was troubling him. I was there to listen. Through the course of our conversation, Bill produced some documents which contained what I believed to be classified information. It was about an alien base on the back side of the moon, as well as other information of a tender nature that Bill was involved in at CINCPACFLT in Naval Intelligence. I believed at thee time and still do that this information was true. We decided that I should keep copies of this information in case anything happen to Bill.

Unfortunately all I can remember is Space shots and the bases on the Moon. Whether this is due to the information being so unbelievable or so diturbing, I cannot say. Discussions of the assassination of JFK came up but I cannot remember where they led. i have given that evening a grat deal of thought since you called, and have tried to piece together that evening. This is all i can come up with. The information which i was to hang onto has since disappeared. I wish I could be more help to you and Bill, but I do not have the documents and cannot positively confirm anything other than what I have told you.

If you talk to Bill, please express my feelings of frustration in trying to recreate one evening 17 years ago.

Cordially,

Strange craft reported cruising in Valley skies

By VALLEY PRESS STAFF and wire services

FRESNO (AP) – From Lancaster to Porterville to North Fork, Central California residents reported something strange hovering in the night sky.

Numerous reports surfaced of a low-flying, slow-moving object rumbling in the night sky Wednesday.

Brian Neel of Fresno said he had "never seen anything like it in my life. I wasn't scared – just curious."

Neel started snapping pictures of the object but forgot to put film in his camera.

A woman identifying herself only as Katy said she saw a large UFO Wednesday between 8:35 p.m. to 8:45 p.m. near 230th street West and Avenue D.

The object, she said, was V-shaped and about 600 feet in diameter and was traveling very low and at slow speed. The object was followed by 10 to 20 smaller objects in formation with the larger craft. The last one in the formation had a light that alternately flashed yellow and red.

No other sightings were reported to the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department or to the Air Force. A Plant 42 spokesman said there were no flights in that area.

Jim Lindholm of Kingsburg was convinced it was a UFO. He described it as "a series of red lights behind the main object ... Then they went into a V-formation and continued to circle in the direction of Fresno."

He and his sister watched the object, which made a low rumbling noise, for about 45 minutes with binoculars.

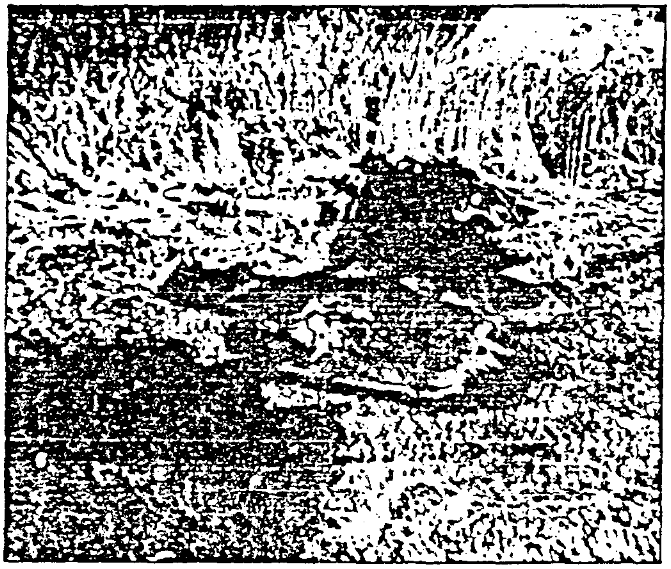

"I believe it was a UFO – I really do. I tried to dismiss it or eliminate it, but there is no type of aircraft like that," said Lindholm.

Spokesmen at Castle, Edwards and Vandenburg Air Force bases, and Lemoore Naval Air Station reported no military planes in the Fresno area that night.

Some speculated the object might be the U.S. Air Force's super-secret stealth bomber. A spokesman for Northrop Corp., builder of the craft, would only say the stealth will be unveiled next month and will make its first flight sometime after that.

Return of the mutilations

Manitoba and Alberta suffer bizarre animal slayings

A mutilated moose found near Edmonton
The headless pig was covered in white ash.

Earlier this month three Edmonton teens approached local radio station CHED with a chillingly bizarre tale. While driving along isolated country roads near the city last spring, the boys discovered the mutilated body of a pig. On subsequent returns to the area, the trio stumbled across the mauled corpses of several chickens and a moose. When they returned yet again on October 6, they spotted two men carrying a decapitated goat. Shortly after the story's broadcast, an anonymous telephone caller warned CHED "that things might happen" if it failed to "respect other people's beliefs" by continuing to cover the affair. The station ignored the threat, but the Edmonton SPCA is investigating the absurd slaughters, ones reminiscent of ritualistic cattle slayings that have occurred periodically over the last five years in northern Manitoba.

The teens' (who have requested anonymity) first grisly find consisted of a headless, footless pig covered in white ashes and laying in a clearing by the road. Beside it was an assortment of tin cans, bottles, and an old cologne container emptied of its original contents and refilled with urine. Though warned by their parents to stay away, the threesome returned to the area (the whereabouts of which the SPCA refuses to disclose) the next day in search of more.

In early May, the youths found two dead barnyard-variety hens. Somebody had sliced the white bodies lengthwise through the middles and then had sewn together the two top halves and the two bottom ones with baling twine. As the boys gawked at the strange sight, two men dressed in farm workclothes approached them. The teens fled, but returned 20 minutes later to find that the grossly reconstituted chickens had vanished.

The trio next discovered something on October 6 when they spied the drawn and quartered carcass of a male moose. Three of its legs were missing, the fourth lay severed beside the antlers; the organs had been extracted and wrapped in a polyethelyne sheet. Eight days later the boys returned and saw the same two men carrying a decapitated goat. When they noticed the boys, the men, one elderly, one in his early 20s, ran away through the trees. Finally the boys decided to talk to the SPCA.

While some have since dismissed the mutilations as the clumsy dabblings of the uninitiated in black magic, others suggest the perpetrators may be trying to harm somebody through "imitative magic." Psychic William Meilen, 54, is a drama professor at the University of Alberta who helped the RCMP investigate several cattle mutilations in Alberta during the late 1970s. He says imitative magicians do unto the animal what they would like to do unto a human enemy. Pigs are commonly used in this Haitian form of voodoo. The chicken-stitching job, however, was unlikely an act of revenge but more probably some sort of love ritual, says Prof. Meilen. Then again, the work could be that of youngsters trying their hand at magic.

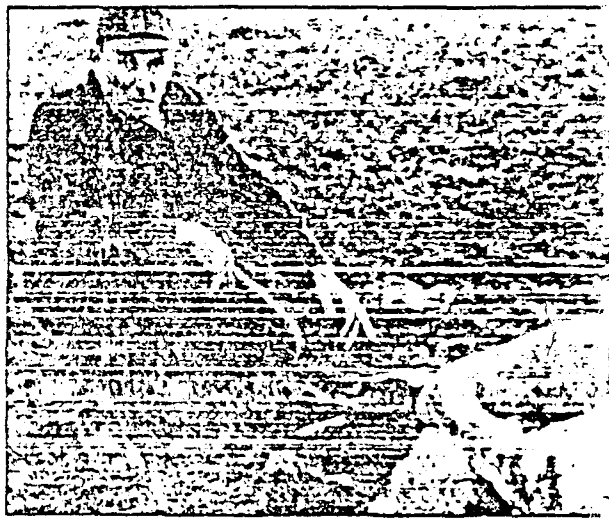

Prof. Meilen suggests two possible uses for the vial of urine found near the pig. In some parts of India, the yellow fluid is commonly used to tenderize meat. Black magicians or Satanists sometimes drink the stuff from a chalice as a horrendous mockery of the Catholic mass.

In any event, the butcherings are similar to ones in Manitoba where 10 cows have been cruelly slayed in the last five years, including one belonging to Wesley Cook of Ashern, 120 miles north of Winnipeg. One morning late last year Mr. Cook's wife noticed a flock of ravens circling above their field, and ran out to investigate. She shrieked when she found their prize Charolais completely drained of blood, missing one eye, its tongue and udder. "She weighed 1,400 pounds and would have given five to eight gallons of blood," says Mr. Cook, who thinks somebody either cast a spell over his cow before cutting it up, or shot it with a tranquilizer. "My nephew lost his cow five years ago," recalls Mr. Cook. "They cut out its ears, the eyes, the tongue, the sex organs . . . in mine, they left the sex organs." Mr. Cook is certain that practitioners of the occult are responsible. "They drink the blood on nights when there is a full moon. It makes you feel kinda funny."

But the Manitoba RCMP blame predatory animals which normally attack grazing beasts by lunging for assorted orifices and the genitals. Likewise, Thomas Graham, acting head of the religious studies department at the University of Winnipeg, doubts occultists are involved. "The cow killings don't fit with any group that I know anything about. I think it's someone who has a grudge, who is out to make a nuisance of himself."

Richard Cairney and Mary Nemeth

Ashern resident Wesley Cook
Five to eight gallons of blood.

Group Urges Federal Research Of AIDS Link to Cow Viruses

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal research agencies should investigate the potential role, if any, that certain cow viruses may play in causing or promoting the development of AIDS, a public interest group said Monday.

AIDS specialists say they have no evidence whatsoever that cow viruses have a role in the disease. Some animal viruses are distantly related to the one believed to cause AIDS, and are being studied to see if they can provide clues to combating the human disease agent, they say.

However, the Foundation on Economic Trends said the government should sponsor research to resolve any question concerning the animal viruses and AIDS, and to find out the extent to which humans are exposed to them.

Jeremy Rifkin, the foundation's president and a frequent critic of genetic engineering and federal research policy, said not enough has been done to resolve the relationship between animal viruses and the one that causes acquired immune deficiency syndrome.

"It's truly amazing what we don't know about animal viruses, and that getting this information has not been given a priority," he said.

Dr. Bernard Moss, a virus specialist at the National Institutes of Health, said that while the AIDS virus is in the same family as lentiviruses and other animal disease agents such as bovine leukemia virus, it still is very different.

Asked about the possibility of cow, sheep or horse viruses crossing into humans, Moss said: "I don't believe this could have happened."

AIDS is believed caused by an unusual virus called human immunodeficiency virus, or HIV, which slowly destroys the body's disease-fighting immune system. The virus, previously termed HTLV-3 or LAV, is spread through contact with blood, semen and other bodily fluids from infected persons.

The foundation called upon the heads of the Agriculture Department, the National Institutes of Health and the Centers for Disease Control to take action to investigate any connection between these viruses and AIDS.

Rifkin said he was particularly concerned about bovine immunodeficiency-like virus, or BIV, and a cow cancer agent called bovine leukemia virus, or BLV, as well as others in the so-called lentivirus family of animal disease agents.

The petition said some of these viruses are genetically similar to the AIDS virus, which scientists believe is the first lentivirus known to affect man, and cause similar diseases in animals. Humans have extensive contact with cows and bovine products, Rifkin said, yet no one knows how extensively these viruses infect the cow population or if they can spread to people.

Authorities should find out if these viruses contaminate fetal bovine serum, a preparation from cows widely used for growing cell tissue cultures, Rifkin said.

In addition, stocks of various human vaccines that are made from these cultures and the smallpox vaccine, which is derived from a cow virus, should be checked for possible contamination with animal disease viruses, he said.

Mutilated cows found on farms

By CINDY REESE PAYNE

Two incidents of gruesome cattle mutilations are being investigated by the Hempstead County Sheriff's Department and the State Police, according to Sheriff Don Worthey.

Both incidents occurred on farms about a mile apart on Highway 29 north of Hope within the past two weeks. It is not known whether the two incidents are related.

According to Dispatcher Janice Quillin, John Kramer called in a report March 26 that he had found a cow dead in rather unusual circumstances. The animal's tongue had been cut out with a knife of some sort and the hide had been removed from the head. Kramer did not ask for an investigation into the matter.

Cattle owner John Lloyd, who lives within a mile of Kramer, reported Tuesday, April 7 that he had found a dead cow on his farm under even more bizarre circumstances. Investigating officer Frank Quillin who examined the cow, could not determine the exact cause of death because all the blood had been removed from the animal as well as the tongue, eyes and sexual organs. An incision had been made in a circle around the utter and the sexual organs were missing from the scene. The area where a needle might have been inserted to draw out the blood had been shaved.

Though it is only speculation, officials believe a tranquilizer gun may have been used to quiet the animal while the mutilations occurred.

Sheriff's department source Tom Witt investigated similar incidents of animal mutilations in Bowie County, Texas, about seven years ago involving what officials believed was a satanic cult or group of devil worshipers. But there have been no reports of such activities locally.

Bowie County criminal investigator George Huggins says there have been about four cases of animal mutilations during the past that he can recall, but nothing recently. Incidents occurred in Hooks, DeKalb and Texarkana and the sexual organs were removed in a similar manner.

State Police criminal investigator Jerry Reed says in Howard County which adjoins Hempstead County there haven't been any recent reports of animal mutilations . He did investigate a Pike County incident about seven years ago in which the utter was removed from a cow.

ALABAMA

40 animal deaths are a mystery

The Associated Press

GENEVA, Ala. — Authorities probing the mysterious deaths of some 40 animals — pigs, dogs and a horse that had its male organs ripped off — are trying to head off a stampede of evidence-trampling sightseers.

Dot Kirkland, a Geneva County Sheriff's Department spokeswoman, said tales about a mysterious beast have attracted droves of sightseers.

"It's like a fire in town," she said. "Everbody's coming to see. It's bothering our efforts. We're setting out traps, but we can't tell if there are any tracks because there have been so many people walking around out there. We want them to stay away, because the traps are dangerous, and this thing could be dangerous to humans as well as animals."

Among the casualties were two 60-pound pigs owned by Lloyd Stinson and his wife, Ann.

The couple said that on a recent evening just after sundown they heard a pig squeal, ran outside and found the two animals' ripped bodies in the pen.

"We didn't see what had done it," said Mrs. Stinson. "But we heard it. It was up between the pen and a little hill and we heard it holler. It was a sound I'm not familiar with, but it frightened us enough to get out of there."

County authorities said more than 35 animals have been killed since early September. Most have been hogs, but there have been several bulldogs and one horse.

Mrs. Stinson said their stock boar, which weighed 250 pounds, was also killed.

"The thing that has confused us is the fact that there is very little blood around," she said. "We're baffled. We've been studying books about animals and we can't figure out what this might be."

Cover-up alleged over UFO-linked animal slaughter

ADELAIDE: Farmers in the Adelaide Hills have discovered mutilated animal corpses and burn marks on the ground which UFO researchers claim indicates alien spacecraft have landed in the area.

'Many reports of UFOs and strange lights in the sky'

The latest claims follow rumors of dozens of sightings of UFOs in the rural areas of Mt Barker and Mt Sterling, about 20km south of Adelaide.

UFO researchers claim the bizarre killings have been covered up by the military in a bid to quash a UFO scare in the area.

In one incident, researchers say, a farmer discovered four cows with holes drilled into their skulls and the brains removed.

According to the reports, farmers have been warned to "keep quiet".

Hushed up

Other discoveries, researchers say, include egg-shaped "pod" marks near the property. These indicate a craft had landed, they claim.

Rocks in the pod holes were crushed, tree tops burnt and dozens of birds found dead nearby.

Police in both areas said they had not been told about the animal mutilations, but many people in the area had reported seeing UFOs and strange lights in the sky.

Adelaide UFO researcher, Mr Colin Norris, said he had been told to "drop off" after making inquiries into the sightings.

Mr Norris, a director of the Australian International UFO Research Society, said: "The area where the bodies of the cows were found is often used by the army and is closed off.

"I have been told they asked the farmer to remain quiet about the animals and that they would cover the whole thing up.

"If it is all true – and I have no reason to doubt it is not – then it must be checked out because it tallies with similar incidents which have happened all over the world.

"Most of these kinds of incidents are hushed up in one way or another."

Mr Norris said the pod marks and the burnt tree tops indicated a craft had landed in the area – but the discovery of the dead animals suggested "extra-terrestrials" had left their ship.

He said: "These beings would have to have left the craft to get at the animals.

Spacecraft

"There was a similar report in the United States a few years ago where a farmer tied a calf to a tree by the leg.

"He returned to the calf sometime later and claims it was being pulled into a spacecraft. He cut the rope around its leg because it was squealing in pain.

"Later he told UFO investigators he discovered the skin of the animal – minus its carcass.

"And there have been dozens of similar incidents of animal mutilations reported across the world."

A series of PROJECT GRUDGE/BLUE BOOK reports have been released over the years in connection with the USAF's investigation into UFO's which was supposedly terminated with the release of the Condon report in the late 1960's. Reports 1 through twelve of GRUDGE/BLUE BOOK were generally innocuous and contained no classified or truly sensitive material. There was a final report, #14 which was widely circulated and about which an entire book was written: FLYING SAUCERS: AN ANALYSIS OF THE AIR FORCE PROJECT BLUE BOOK SPECIAL REPORT NO. 14 by Leon Davidson; the fifth edition was published in 1976 by Blue-Book Publishers; 64 Prospect St., White Plains, New York 10606. Missing from public view, however, was report #13.

Several years ago, Bill English, son of an Arizona state legislator and former captain in the Green Berets had been assigned to an RAF 'listening post' north of London as an information analyst. English was, in the course of his duties, asked to prepare an analysis of the elusive GRUDGE 13 report. On his discharge from his work at the 'listening post' he returned to the United States and began to do a little UFO research on his own. English had been no stranger to the UFO phenomenon. In Viet Nam he was a member of a Special Forces investigative team that went in to retrieve a B-52 that was forced down by a UFO and all the occupants killed. Communications had been received from the B-52 before it went down to the effect that it was "...under attack by a UFO..", a "...large light...". The plane was found intact, sitting in the jungle. There was no swath indicative of a crash landing. Only the bottom of the fuselage showed any damage, there was no damage to the underside of the engine pods. Although the plane was completely intact the entire crew had been mutilated.

English, through contacts he still maintains has determined that the US government 'most definately' supports a 'project dealing specifically with UFO's and captured aliens'. According to what he has learned, the US government captured a trio of aliens, and that as of mid 1981, one of the beings was still alive in captivity. English also claims that "at one point in the early 1950's until the mid 1960's the Air Force maintained relocation and debriefing colonies for people who had experienced close ancounters of the 3rd and 4th kind. They were isolated for all intents and purposes for the rest of their lives. He doubts that these colonies are still in existence.

English dictated 2 audio casettes outlining what he remembered from the Grudge 13 report. These audio casettes were transcribed into hand written notes by another person. The information contained therein indicated what had been suspected all along: that the U.S. Government was involved in the greatest deception in the history of mankind and that not only did flying saucers exist but that the government had several in secret storage and had captured at least 3 live aliens.

The following is a summary of what Bill English remembers from what he read during that day in June, 1977 of PROJECT GRUDGE/BLUE BOOK REPORT NO. 13.

In Box, diplomatic pouch under lock and key system. Lock had been opened, pouch was easily accessed. Standard diplomatic couriers pouch marked American Embassy Couriers, contained pouch serial number JL327Delta. Inside a publication with red tape which indicated code red security precautions and an Air Force disposition form. Disposition form was standard white page copy, title was 'Analysis Report'. Further down was 'Analyse enclosed report under code red measures, give abstract breakdown and report on validity. Observe all code red measures. Analysis required immediately'. Underneath were a series of dashes then the letters NDF then another series of dashes. Below that, lower left hand corner were the initials WGB.

Publication was withdrawn from pouch. It measured approximately 8" by 11" with gray cover. Heavily bound, paper back style similar to technical manuals. Across the center front it read, "Grudge/Blue Book Report No. 13". It was dated 1953-(1963). In the lower right hand corner was AFSN 2246-3. In upper left hand corner was the word 'annotated'. Across the front upper right hand corner to lower left hand corner was red tape indicating code red security measures. Across the front was stamped in red ink 'Top Secret Need To Know Only Crypto Clearance 14 Required'. Inside front cover upper left hand corner were hand written notations in ink which were blacked out by black felt pen.

Inside cover sheet was basically the same information as the cover. Second page was title page. Next page after that was an appendix with numerous notations made in it. Notations dealt with inserts of what appeared to be photos and additional notes. At bottom of third page it read G/BV Page 1 of 624 pages. Title page was subject letter. Complete list of appendix not remembered. Title. Some notes on the practical applications of the Worst Nemo equations.

Table of Contents, Part 1. "On the design of generators to accomplish strain free molecular translation". Part 2, "The generation of space time discontinuums, closed, open and folded". Part 3, "on the generation of temporary psuedo acceleration locas". Part 1, Chapter 1, "design criteria for a simple generator and control system referring to equation 17 appendix A". Part 2 chapter 1, "Continuation of Einsteins Theory of Relativity to final conclusion". Part 3, chapter 1, "Possible applications of Einsteinian theory of relativity at conclusion".

Part 1, chapter 2, reports of UFO encounters, classification "Close Encounters of the 1st Kind", subtitle sightings and witnesses. Part 2, chapter 2, "Close Encounters of the 2nd Kind", subtitle UFO sightings witnessed within close proximity. Part 3, chapter 2 "Close Encounters of the 3rd Kind", subtitle UFO encounters and extraterrestrial life forms witnessed and personal encounters. Subtitle, "colonies relocation thereof". Case histories. Chapter 3 Part 1, titled "Military Encounters with UFO's". Part 2 Chapter 3, "Military Reports Concerning Sightings on Radar and Electronic Surveillance of UFO's". Subsection 2, Analysis Report, J. Allen Hynek, Lt. Col. Friend. Appendix continued on for about 5 pages. Opening subject page consisted of a report of the findings as written by Lt. Col. Friend and his analysis.

Must stress at this point that the version seen was annotated. There were inserts that were added to this copy after it had been initially printed. Sections remembered very vividly are the photographs and the reports concerning captive sights of various UFO's to include Mexico, Sweden, United States and Canada. There were also what was then classified Close Encounters of the 3rd Kind. It was made very clear that these people whom it was determined had genuine CE 3's were moved in the middle of the night by Air Force personnel and relocated to various sites in the midwest and northwest parts of the United States. In many cases these people experienced physical ailments from exposure to various types of radiation.

One case especially noted and remembered very vividly was entitled 'Darlington Farm Case' out of Ohio. Case apparently took place in October 1953. Man, wife and 13 year old son were sitting down at dinner table. As they sat there the lights in the farm house began to dim. Dogs and animals raised rucus on outside. 13 year old boy got up from dinner table to see what was going on. Called his mother and father to come look at the funny light in the sky. Father and mother got up and as they got up the son went outside into the yard. Father and mother went out onto the porch. When they got out on the porch one of the dogs broke loose from leash beside house and came running around front. Boy began chasing it out into the open field. As mother and father watched the light came down from the sky. They described it as a round ball of fire and it began to hover over field where boy and dog had run to. As they stood and watched, the mother and father heard the boy start screaming for help whereupon the father grabbed his shotgun which was right next to the door and began to run out into the field with the mother following. When the father got to the field he saw his son being carried away by what looked like little men, into this huge fiery looking object. As it took off the father fired several rounds at the object, to no avail. They found dog, its head was crushed but no sign of boy or any other footprints of the little men who apparently carried him off. Father immediately called Darlington police and they immediately came out to investigate. The official report read that the boy had run off and was lost in the forest which bordered the farm. Within 48 hours the Air Force made the determination that the family was to be relocated and the mother and father were picked up by Air Force Intelligence and all personal belongings and possessions were loaded into U.S. Air Force trucks and moved to a northwestern relocation site.

The mother was in shock and had to go through a great deal of psychotherapy and deprogramming as did father. One interesting aspect about this case was classification under the Air Force report which read it was a genuine CE 3 and that for the good of the national security the mother and father had been relocated to relocation zones Z21-14. Not sure whether this indicated map grid coordinates or latitude longitude. According to the report there were at least 4 relocation sites across the United States. Depending upon which type of encounter these people had, the report indicated that there were extensive medical facilities available at these relocation sites to deal with all medical emergencies up to an including radiation poisoning. The report mentioned a site located in the Utah-Nevada area, but no indication of its purpose or what it was for.

Report gave clear indication of reports of human mutilations, most notably was a case witnessed by Air Force personnel in which an Air Force Sgt. EE-6 by the name of Jonathon P. Lovette was observed being taken captive aboard what appeared to be a UFO at the White Sands Missle Test Range in New Mexico. This abduction took place in March of 1956 at about 0300 local and was witnessed by Major William Cunningham of the United States Air Force Missle Test Command near Holloman Air Force Base.

Major Cunningham and Sgt. Lovette were out in a field downrange from the launch sites looking for debris from a missle test when Sgt. Lovette went over the ridge of a small sand dune and was out of sight for a time. Major Cunningham heard Sgt. Lovette scream in what was described as terror or agony. The major, thinking the Sgt. had been bitten by a snake or something ran over the crest of the dune and saw Sgt. Lovette being dragged into what appeared to him and was described as being a silvery disk like object which hovered in the air approximately 15 to 20 feet. Major Cunningham described what appeared to be a long snake-like object which was wrapped around the sergeants legs and was dragging him to the craft. Major Cunningham admittedly froze as the sergeant was dragged inside the disc and observed the disc going up into the sky very quickly. Major Cunningham got on the jeep radio and reported the incident to Missle Control whereupon Missle Control confirmed a radar sighting. Search parties went out into the field looking for Sgt. Lovette. Major Cunninghams report was taken and he was admitted to the White Sands Base Dispensary for observation.

The search for Sgt. Lovette was continued for 3 days at the end of which his nude body was found approximately 10 miles downrange. The body had been mutilated; the tongue had been removed from lower portion of the jaw. An incision had been made just under the tip of the chin and extended all the way back to the esophagus and larynx. He had been emasculated and his eyes had been removed. Also, his anus had been removed and there were comments in the report on the apparent surgical skill of the removal of these items including the genitalia. The report commented that the anus and genitalia had been removed 'as though a plug' which in the case of the anus extended all the way up to the colon. There was no sign of blood within the system. The initial autopsy report confirmed that the system had been completly drained of blood and that there was no vascular collapse due to death by bleeding. Subcomment was added that this was unusual because anybody who dies or has complete loss of blood there is vascular collapse. Also noted was that when the body was found there were a number of dead predatory type birds within the area who apparently had died after trying to partake of the sergeants body. There were a number of extremely grisly black and white photos. From all indications the body had been exposed to the elements for at least a day or two. The New Mexico sun in the desert is extremely hot and dibilitating under normal circumstances.

In this section of the report it also indicated that there were numerous occasions in which a UFO tracked alongside of a fired missle and on one occasion said missle was observed being taken aboard a UFO while in flight. The speeds indicated were absolutely phenomenal. (English's father had told him privately that on more than one occasion he had personally tracked what they termed as 'foo fighters'. English father was an electronic engineer by profession and was fairly well versed on electronics engineering and design and on more than one occasion he was involved in telemetry programming of missles. Englishs' father is currently a state legislator in Arizona.)

The report also indicated that there were a number of recovery teams that were activated specifically for the purpose of recovering any and all evidence of UFO's and UFO sightings. Most notably recorded in publication was what they called Recovery Team Alpha. It was reported that Alpha had been extremely active in a number of areas and on certain occasions had travelled outside of the continental United States. Alpha was based out of Wright-Patterson Air Force Base and was on the move constantly.

Further information in the report consisted of such things as reported sightings and where air force planes had been destroyed or had combat encounters or had been attacked by UFO's. Also there were autopsy reports of various human mutilations.

About midway through the report came a section which dealt specifically with photographs. Each photo was labeled and appendixed to certain reports. A number of photos in there dealt with a recovery program of some type that took place in the southwestern part of the United States. They did not give a location name but they did give grid coordinates for that area. There is no clear indication to exactly where it was. The photos dealt with special teams that were called in to recover a crashed UFO. It also dealt with alien bodies and autopsy reports, autopsy type photographs, high quality, color, 8 x 10, 5 x 7.

Photo number 1 showed an alien being on an autopsy table which is a metal table with runnels and traps underneath to trap fluid and feces. Body appeared to be a little short of 4 feet. Table was about 7 foot. No clothing on body, no genitalia, body completely heterous, head was rounded cranium, slightly enlarged, eyes almond shaped, slits where nose would be, extremely small mouth, receeding chin line, holes where ears would be. Photo was taken at angle, side view, looking at body from 45$^{o}$ elevation, left hand was visible, head was facing to left, body was right to left position (head on right, feet on left), eyes were closed appeared oriental-looking and almond shaped, left hand slight longer than normal, wrist coming down just about 2 to 3 inches above the knees. Wrists appeared to be articulated in a fashion that allowed a double joint with 3 digit fingers. Wrist was very slender. There was no thumb. A palm was almost non-existent. The three fingers were direct extension from the wrist.

Color of the skin was bluish gray, dark bluish gray. At base of the body there was a darker color, indicating body was dead for some time. Body fluid or blood had settled to base of body. This indicated that body had been examined before beginning autopsy.

Picture showed beginning stages of autopsy, following standard procedure, body was slit from crotch to just under chin and green viscuous liquid was in evidence. There were internal organs but these could not be identified. Photos thereafter concerned specific areas of internal organs of what appeared as small cluster of a multi-valve heart or at least 2 hearts within the cadaver. No accurate description of autopsy report or what was found within corpse accompanying photos. Indication that there was no stomach or digestive track per se. Later analysis showed that fluid within body was chlorophyl-based liquid which apparently dealt with photosynthesis or similar process. The report theorized that nourishment was taken in through mouth, however since there is no digestive track or anything of this nature, the waste products were excreted through skin.

One section of report did specify that cadavers were extremely odorous, but this could be accounted for by either deterioration or a number of things, but theory was that waste was excreted through pores of skin. They could only theorize in report because there was no xenobiology.

A report by Dr. J. Allen Hynek was recalled vividly which indicated that he had also studied the information provided by this particular case and that he felt that it was indeed a genuine UFO capture and subsequently the alien was part of UFO. Dr. Hynek was non-committal but did however sign the report. Also indicated in report that he did not view bodies personally, but viewed photographs and accompanying reports from autopsies.

Other photos dealt with a number of bodies which were vivisectioned in various ways. At one point, a head was removed from body and photographed and autopsy was performed on head. The cranium was opened and brain matter was photographed and evident. Interesting thing about photo was that there was a ridgebone or dividing partition-type bone running directly through center of skull, from front to back, as though dividing two brains, one from the other. This seemed apparent from the picture. The skin was completly removed from cranial structure and the skull was layed bare as much as possible.

At one point the skull was cut directly in half and photo showed under developed esophagus and nasal cavaties. No clear photo of eye orbs as we know them, just photos of complete vivisection of skull itself.

Numerous photos of flesh of the being starting with cutaneous and subcutaneous microphotographic plates. Appeared to be cellular studies done under microscope and electron microscope type photos. Extreme magnification of tissue samples.

This concluded Bill English statement which was transcribed from 2 casette tapes. I obtained this handwritten memorandum in August of 1987 from Paul Bennewitz during my visit with him in Albuquerque. In September of 1988 I received a call from Bill English. I asked for a chance to meet him and discuss the Grudge 13 report. He said that this could be arranged but that the meeting would have to be on his terms for security reasons. He explained that there had been several attempts on his life by persons unknown since he had made the casette tapes about 6 years ago. We arranged a meeting at a small airport in Virginia on September 16. I was to sit in the lobby with my black flight bag and for identification purposes I told Bill what I would be wearing. I had no telephone number for Bill.

As I walked in the small airport lobby after a 3 hour drive from Richmond I immediately noticed 2 gentlemen who seemed 'out of place' for this locale. Both were wearing pin striped 3 piece suits, both had on dark glasses. One was a black gentlemen. One was stationed inside the lobby door looking out at the parking lot, one was leaning up against an airline counter. I sat down and after a few minutes was approached by a tall, bearded man in jeans and a heavy jacket. He asked if I wanted to have a drink. We walked outside and he introduced himself as Bill English. We drove in Bills car into t own to a local bar. About 5 minutes after we ordered and had started to talk, the men I had seen at the airport came into the bar and sat down. We left for Bills house and never saw the men again for the next 2 days.

During the next 2 days I stayed with Bill and his wife and 2 children in a small trailer in the middle of a field at his farm. I asked him endless questions concerning the Grudge 13 document, how he happened to see it, what happened to him after he saw it and literally thousands of questions about the content of the document. My impression of Bill English was that he was totally honest, that he stood behind his statements and recollection of the Grudge 13 papers, that he was a devoted husband and father to his wifes 2 children. That Bill English was ready to come forward and enter into any debate regarding the legitimacy of the document and his recollections thereof. Of Bills compassion for his father and his fathers feelings concerning Bill and the reasons for their occasional disagreements. I have tremendous respect for Bill and what he has tried to do in getting this information out to the public. It has been at tremendous personal risk not to mention the ridicule by sponsered agents such at Bill Moore who has stated that the Grudge 13 papers are a fraud.

What follows is additional information about the Grudge 13 papers that I obtained from Bill during my visit. In addition to the following Bill painstakingly drew many sketches of the photos of different types of flying saucers, the equipment obtained from them including a sketch of the football sized nuclear generator and sketches of the autopsy photos.

From my notes taken during our 2 day meeting: Bill described a photo taken of 3 live aliens. Very clear photo, aliens standing against white tile wall, looking confused as if they had been shoved, were looking in different directions.

Report said that aliens had contacted a U.S. Intelligence Agency for initial 2 meetings, one at Holloman one at Homestead.

U.S. Air Force relocation personnel (for persons involved in close encounters) were referred to in report as 'Men in Black'.

Major Cunningham was initially accused of murdering Sgt. Jonathon P. Lovette. Charges were later dropped.

Bill Englishs' place of employment in England was RAF Security Services Command, RAF Chicksands.

Entire Grudge 13 report was written as if report was geared toward preparation of defenses.

Report told of ultrasonic weapons found in Germany at the end of WW 2 that could shatter 4" thick armour.

Report told of sensitive military and industrial areas at which personnel experienced missing time.

Report told about missing time experienced with personnel associated with North American X-15 rocket plane project.

Report stated that there were 17 different extraterrestrial species accounted for up to the time of the report.

Extraterrestrials were referred to as A.L.F.'s, Alien Life Forms in the report.

Report referred to one UFO that was recovered and test flown. The UFO blew up as the 2 Air Force pilot aboard attempted to leave the atmosphere. English recalls the date as the mid 50's.

Report refers to flying saucer program as Project 'Red Light' and that a secret installation had been constructed in the middle of the Atomic Energy Commission testing ground in Nevada.

At the time of the report 11 alien cadavers were being kept at Wright-Petterson Air Force Base.

That additional alien cadavers were being stored at 4 to 5 other medical institutions.

That 2 flying saucers of extraterrestrial origin had been tested in the wind tunnel at Langley, Va.

That at the time of the report one disc was being stored at McDill Air Force Base in Florida.

That at the time of the report, 1 damaged disc was at Eglin Air Force Base in Florida.

That at the time of the report there had been 2 UFO incidents at Ft. Riley, Kansas.

That at the time of the report a detachment of the Alpha recovery team was based at Randolph Air Force Base..

The report discussed civilian and military personnel who had been terminated 'to eliminate potentially dangerous elements to the national security'.

That Gen. James Doolittle had been mentioned several times in the report with the notation that "His (Doolittles') predictions might be correct." There was no indication of what those predictions might have been.

A short segment containing the quotation, "By presidential order, certain aspects of research had been undertaken."

This report about Bill English and the Grudge 13 papers was prepared by John Lear, 1414 Hollywood Blvd. Las Vegas, Nevada 89110, telephone number 702-438-8181, on October 7, 1988.

JUNE 13, 1987

Dear Sirs,

Although I missed your very recent radio and tv shows, a friend suggested .hat I write this letter and share my information with you. I am fifty year of age engineer that has worked in the private sector, as well as with the government.

From 1975 to 1980, I was involved with several investigations having to do with E.T. material. Even though the project was very well covered, I am still very much surprised that Project Pluto and results have not surfaced yet.

In as much as the project was handled by others, there was no question that .he government was in full control. For security purposes, Project Pluto had five levels. Those who investigated one level had nothing to do with .he next, and would only turn in the results of data of these findings to .he next level, then go on to another area.

No one that I knew ever had the results of two levels at the same time. There was only one very rare exception to the rule which took place in 975, and was infact my very first assignment with the project. I was employed by a non-government firm that of course was directly involved with he government, and probably fronted for them on the projects.

 would assume that eventually government records could be made available o the general public, but not from the private sector. I'm not really sure. In any event, several others and myself were rushed to a rather remote place in upstate Pennsylvannia.

We were informed that every thing was top secret, and had to remain that way. We were even housed in a hotel close by, and security people were ssigned to us. Some type of aircraft had crashed in this area, and the overnment felt that it would be easier and faster to do all of their nvestigation right there rather than to move the remains of the wreck, and whatever evidence the soil may contain.

The wreck site was rather difficult to get to, however, we turned it into a onstruction site, clearing the area, and building two small and one very arge metal pre-fab buildings over and around the wreck. Heavy equipment, materials, and workers were flown in and out on a daily basis.

We were moved from the hotel to some mobile homes that were brought in for us, and many more top level people who joined us. I might add that the ocal people who still lived some distance from the site, were led to believe that a large private corporation was preparing to build an electrical power supply for the area. But it was off limits to everyone in the area.

We were some of the first ones's on the scene other than lots of security people. The wreck had already been covered by very large canvas blankets, and large nets were tented over head to protect the site from any possible air traffic. I did manage to get a very good look at the wreck on several occasions. My first thoughts were that it may have been an experimental air craft of our government, or perhaps the government of another.

It was later suggested to us that it was a new type of air craft of a foreign government, and it was a super hush - hush project. That air craft was nothing like I have ever seen as probably ever will again.

The crash site was also something quite different. The disturbed soil was about a hundred feet in diameter, although the craft was much larger in length. I only saw what appeared to be about two- thirds of the rear end, and even that was about ten feet below the surface. When it crashed on about a 30 degree angle, it pushed all the earth back away from the craft itself. Almost as if the hole were made first, and then something half the size was put in place.

My best thought of this rather strange hole is that some kind of magnetic field had pushed all the earth away from the craft at impact. It was reasonable to assume that I was looking down at the rear end of the air craft, yet there was nothing to indicate that it had any kind of engine as we know it. Not even one little opening.

I don't really like to use the term cigar, but since I could not see the front part, it certainly appeared to have once been shaped like a large cigar. That's my best description.

If it was a craft from a foreign government, then we are in big trouble. I actually held one small portion of the wreck in my hand. Incidently, there was only a very small reading of radio waves in the area. The area was quite safe. There was on the other hand, a great deal of free magnetic energy in that area. It was very difficult using our instruments. It was very difficult just to establish the correct time. Every wrist watch was a different time.

The piece of physical evidence that I held in my hand, was a material that I really can't identify. It may have been torn from the front of the craft when it crashed. A few of us compared thoughts as to what it might be, but no one was really certain. None of us had ever seen any thing like it before. It was about one square foot and about an inch thick. It weighed almost nothing, and one had the feeling that it may blow away if you let go of it and the wind increased.

It was the same color and texture of the large portion, so it was safe to assume that it was part of the shell of the craft. It weighed no where near enough to be any metal that we had ever seen. It even weighed less than any plastic that I had seen of a similar size.

I tried to scratch it with a pocket knife, and even cut away a small piece of the edge, but the knife did nothing to it. The surface was clear as glass, and stronger than any thing we had ever seen. It was like trying to scratch the surface of glass with a feather. Of course, we had to turn it into the security people.

After the site was secure, the first groups that included myself were taken away. There was a very thorough strip search prior to us being given jumpsuits, and put into a truck for the transportation to a waiting plane. We were taken to another area and debriefed before we were allowed to return to our normal way of life.

About three months later, a few of us returned to the site to remove the buildings, fill up the hole, and generally put the area back into the same shape as it may have been prior to the crash. We went through the same type of security search and debriefing as we had done the first time. Whatever was left of the craft had been removed and sent to -unknown -

Almost one year to the day, I was sent to another crash site. Everything was a repeat of the first time, except that there were six of us. Four of us were part of the first crash site, and the other two were new. This time the air craft was buried so deep into the lower side of a hill that we could not get a good look at it.

The security arrangements were just about the same, and we constructed similar buildings around it. It was very close to a rerun of the first crash site. Only this time we were told, "as a matter of fact," that it was a top secret experimental air craft that had crashed. I could however, manage to see the rear end of the craft. It appeared to be the same type as the first. The code name of the project was Pluto, as it was the first also. Incidently, that was in upstate New York, in 1976. I do not know if there were any "people" or life forms aboard.

Several years later, I had an occasion to be in the area of site # one, and I managed to stop in the cocktail lounge of hotel # one. The bartender only recognized me because he brought in our first room service the first night we stayed there. There was no room service there, but he made his one and only exception to the rule for us. He asked me lots of questions which of course had no answers for, nor would I give any. He told me that he heard that there were lots of medical people on the site. He thought that rather odd for an electric power station. He assumed that there must have been some kind of an accident, or lots of waste material in the area.We let it go at that.

It appears that security was very good, and no one had any idea that an air craft had crashed there. I suspect that the air craft was fifty feet in diameter and as long as two hundred feet. I could be wrong in the length. As I recall the under portion of air craft # one had more of a flat surface. It was difficult to see, but I do recall the difference in the portion of the under surface that I could see.

There were also a few interesting grooves on the top and side areas about twenty feet long. We had speculated that either a steering fin had been attached, or a place where it could slide through from the inside, similar to the type of system used to lower wheels on any air craft. First speculation!

In 1978, I was again sent to a crash site. We arrived the day after the security people. This time the air craft landed in a lake in upstate Pennsylvannia. We went through the same motions, and built several buildings on the edge of the lake to house the craft, once it was removed from the water. Lots of Navy equipment was flown in, and there were divers everywhere. The same magnetic field was present as in the first two incidents. There was no air craft.

I spent three weeks there in the event that the buildings had to be adjusted. It seems that the divers had located the exact spot that the air craft had rested on the bottom, but it was gone. There was lots of evidence on the beach that something very large had crashed into the lake causing the water of the lake to splash ashore, over thirty feet, and what was normally a rather clean lake, was suddenly a very large mudhole. After three weeks, I left and was subjected to the same type of security as the first two times.

I didn't have to return to dismantle the pre-fab buildings. I would think that it was done by others very soon there after. There was some thoughts at first that the craft may have been buried under the bottom of the lake, but by this time, we knew enough about the craft to know if that were the case. It was not - it just vanished. Perhaps it was not damaged and managed to fly away. That may sound silly, but I believe that it is a reasonable conclusion. There was some damage to the immediate area. Six large electrical transformers,and some other equipment were burnt out and had to be replaced by the electric company. The government took the electrical equipment and had it flown somewhere else.

In 1979, I was sent to the shores of southern Texas. The same type of situation, All the evidence led us to believe that whatever it was, it landed in the water and flew away.

I understand that over twenty men actually saw it go into the water, but the days that followed bore no fruit. The Navy divers had a good deal of evidence that some thing has made a very large recent gash on the bottom in about seventy feet of water.

The very same magnetic field was present, and every thing electrical in the immediate area was burnt out. By the end of 1979, I was sent back to the very same lake in Northern Pennsylvannia. It was a duplicate incident as the first time we were there. It had landed in the lake and was gone. The same electrical items were again destroy, and the same magnetic field was evident. I really have no physical evidence to prove one way or another the identification of the air craft. I can only examine what I have experience and wonder! My opinion is another story.

I don't really believe that the air craft belongs to our Government or any other government on this earth. From 1975 to present, we would certainly have seen some kind of revolutionary change in our air craft. To date, I still have not seen any material to even slightly match the very first piece of physical evidence that I had examined. That alone, would have made a fantastic change in the material we use today. No corporation or government could keep that kind of material quality under cover for over twelve years. If they had invented it.

After twelve years we probably don't even know what it is, or how to make it. I am positive that at the very least, they have two of the air craft hidden some where, and probably have learned very little from them, other than they exists. How ever, the company that I was associated with has made some gigantic leaps forward in electromagnetic forces. Perhaps they did learn something from it after all. If we wish to assume that these air craft are not from this earth, and are from way out there in space, then my goodness, the planet must be full of visitors. The air traffic alone, must be fantastic. It seems to me that who ever they are they have found it easier to land in the water rather than on our dry earth. Perhaps it was designed to land on water or a very flat surface.

I have never really had any feelings one way or another about E.T's. I have elected to deal with hard evidence only, that was prior to 1975. For those few years afterwards, I could not help but interject some opinions into my brain.

As I would rather deal with hard evidence only, I am forced to put all of this on a seale, and take a good hard look at the tilting of the seales. There is far too much here to ignore. I must confess that I had some what leaned towards the experimental air craft story. But as the years past, it became evident that was only a cover story. Too much time has past, and our air craft is pretty much the same. There is no doubt in my mind that we as well as others, are constantly experimenting with new air craft, however at this late date, i am reasonably certain that those crash sites were not made by anything that we are familiar with, and then again, I still kind of reserve that possibility. As you can see, I have many mixed feeling about it.

In addition, i have no way of knowing if I had been on every crash site that occurred. there may have been many more during that period and many more since then.

I really don't know if any one had ever been removed from the two wrecks, that I had personally seen. Perhaps they were only mechanical flights. Perhaps the medical people were only there - just in case. And/or to test the wreck for any form of unknown bacteria prior to removing it. Their being present is not really evidence that a life form was found. It could go either way.

I just cannot imagine our government or any other keeping it such a secret, if infact, they were not from this earth. It really serves no purpose that I can understand. also appears to me that if they were from somewhere else that they mean us no harm. I would suspect that after all these years, if they meant us harm, we would most certainly know about it by now.

Even if they were only mechanical flights, the fact that they could get here at all...so many times, is certainly a feat in itself, and worthy of publication.

If the fact that they managed to get here at all, and the physical evidence, the material that I examined is any indication of how intelligent they are, then I would feel safe in assuming that they have left us in the stone age. On a personal level, I have no fear of meeting or contacting such a being. Infact, the very first time I saw the craft, the thought had entered my mind. I didn't expect a being like Frankenstein to come walking out. And for a short time I had wondered what I would do if suddenly a door opened and some form of life came out. What the heck! If it didn't look too bad I may have walked up and said hello just as I would to anyone else who may visit me.

I would think that I would be more afraid of picking up some unknown form of bacteria than I would be of the life form itself. Well, today we can pick up AIDS...so, as I put the germ fear aside. Yes. I would certainly try to be friendly once the first wave of fear passed me by. What I fear more than any visitor is that some farmer is going to get them with a shot gun and do more damage than we can or want to handle. Also, some cowboy policeman trying to shoot his first space man. Because of that I should think that our government would try to educate us as to the proper way to handle any such situation. That little bit of awareness and education may save our planet from destruction. If there is clear evidence that we are being visited by intelligent life forms, then the heads of our government are by far crazier than I had imagined by trying to keep it a secret. The damage of hostile action on our part may not be repairable.

I'm sorry but I am not familiar with your group, but my friend was very impressed by your speaker on TV as well as the radio. Because of that I am trying to share whatever information and evidence that I have which is in fact all first hand data. I have illustrated the evidence and information as it happened, and made note of where I speculated.

There are many items that I have not included in this letter, only because this could turn into forty or fifty pages. At some time in the future, if you wish, I will take my time and write every detail that I can remember. I'll also put it on tape for clarification.

I was told that you plan to open another branch in the future in the Philadelphia area? If that's the case I would certainly be interested in some form of association with your group. I belong to no other and never had any desire to, however, I understand that you are serious people, and worthy of respect. I regard the opinion of my friend very highly. He is a professor of physics, and himself a very serious person. I would appreciate your sending me some literature about your group, and your plans if any to enter the Philadelphia area. I think that you have selected a very good location. There are many very serious people there and a good solid investigation group would be quite welcome. I'm certain that once you entered the area the support group would be fantastic. If you selected Philadelphia, then the assured that you picked the right city for another branch.

Incidently, my experience in the E.T. world ended in 1980, when I changed positions. Have you had any reports of material that I examined belonging to an air craft from others? And the ever present magnetic field, do you have any reports from others similar to that? I have heard of others saying that they have seen a cigar shaped air craft, and I feel rather silly. Perhaps that's not the word. But, to the best of my knowledge and sight, it appeared to be just that. A cigar shaped craft. Please note that in both cases, I had never seen the front of the craft. I can only assume that the design was constant. I'll close for now and hope to hear from you,

I remain,

December 29, 1987

John Lear, a captain for a major US Airline has flown over 160 different types of aircraft in over 50 different countries. He holds 17 world speed record in the Lear Jet and is the only pilot ever to hold every airline certificate issued by the Federal Aviation Administration. Mr. Lear has flown missions worldwide for the CIA and other government agencies. A former Nevada State Senator candidate, he is the son of William P. Lear, designer of the Lear Jet executive airplane, the 8-track stereo, and founder of Lear Siegler Corporation. Lear became interested in the subject of UFO's 13 months ago after talking with United States Air Force Personnel who had witnessed a UFO landing at Bentwaters AFB, near London, England, and three small aliens walking up to the Wing Commander.

"The sun does not revolve around the Earth"
"The United States Government has been in business with little gray extraterrestrials for about 20 years"

The first truth stated here got Giordano Bruno burned at the stake in AD 1600 for daring to propose that it was real. The second truth has gotten far more people killed trying to state it publicly than will ever be known.

But the truth must be told. The fact that the Earth revolves around the sun was successfully suppressed by the church for over 200 years. It ...tually cause a major upheaval in the church, ...ernment, and thought. A realignment of social and traditional values. That was in the 1800's.

Now, about 400 years after the first truth was pronounced we must again face the shocking facts. The "horrible truth" the government has been hiding from us over 40 years. Unfortunately, the "horrible truth" is far more horrible than the government ever imagined.

In its effort to protect democracy, our government sold us to the aliens. And here is how it happened. But before I begin, I'd like to offer a word in the defense of those who bargained us away. They had the best of intentions.

Germany may have recovered a flying saucer as early as 1939. General James H. Doolittle went to Sweden in 1946 to investigate reports of 'ghost rockets' (UFO's) 1000 of which had been sighted over a 7 month period.

The "horrible truth" was known by only a very few persons: They were indeed ugly little creatures, shaped like praying mantises and who were more advanced than us by perhaps a billion years. Of the original group that were the first to learn the "horrible truth". several committed suicide. the most prominent of which was Defense Secretary James V. Forrestal who jumped to his death from a 16th story hospital window. Secretary Forrestal's medical records are sealed to this day.

President Truman quickly put a lid on the secret and turned the screws so tight that the general public still thinks that flying saucers are a joke. Have I ever got a surprise for them.

In 1947, President Truman established a group of 12 of the top military scientific personnel of their time. They were known as MJ-12. Although the group exists today, none of the original members are still alive. The last one to die was Gordon Gray, former Secretary of the Army, in 1984. As each member passed away, the group itself appointed a new member to fill the position. There is some speculation that the group known as MJ-12 expanded to at least several more members.

There were several more saucer crashes in the late 1940's, one in Roswell, New Mexico, one in Aztec, New Mexico, and one near Laredo, Texas, about 30 miles inside the Mexican border.

Consider, if you will, the position of the United States Government at that time. They proudly thought of themselves as the most powerful nation on Earth, having recently produced the atomic bomb, and achievement so stupendous, it would take Russia 4 years to catch up, and only with the help of traitors to Democracy. They had built a jet aircraft that had exceeded the speed of sound in flight. They had built jet bombers with intercontinental range that could carry weapons of enormous destruction. The post war era, and the future seemed bright. Now imagine what it was like for those same leaders, all of whom had witnessed the panic of Orson Wells' radio broadcast, "The War of the Worlds", in 1938. Thousands of Americans panicked at a realistically presented invasion of Earth by beings from another planet. Imagine their horror as they actually viewed the dead bodies of these frightening looking little creatures with enormous eyes, reptilian skin and claw like fingers. Imagine their shock as they attempted to determine how these strange "saucers" were powered and could discover no part even remotely similar to components they were familiar with: no cylinders or pistons, no vacuum tubes or turbines or hydraulic actuators. It is only when you fully understand the overwhelming helplessness the government was faced with in the late 40's that you can comprehend their perceived need for a total, thorough and sweeping cover up, to include the use of "deadly force".

The cover-up was so successful that as late as 1985 a senior scientist with the Jet Propulsion Laboratory in Pasadena, California, Dr. Al Hibbs, would look at a video tape of an enormous flying saucer and state the record, "I'm not going to assign anything to that (UFO) phenomena without a lot more data". Dr. Hibbs was looking at the naked emperor and saying, "He certainly looks naked, but that doesn't prove he's naked."

In July of 1952, a panicked government watched helplessly as squadron of "flying saucers" flew over Washington, D.C., and buzzed the White House, the Capitol Building, and the Pentagon. It took all the imagination and intimidation the government could muster to force that incident out of the memory of the public.

Thousands of sightings occurred during the Korean war and several more sauces were retrieved by the Air Force. Some were stored at Wright- Patterson Air Force Base, some were stored at Air Force bases near the location of the crash sight.

One saucer was so enormous and the logistic problems in transportation so enormous that it was buried at the crash sight and remains there today. The stories are legendary on transporting crashed saucers over long distances, moving only at night, purchasing complete farms, slashing through forests, blocking major highways, sometimes driving 2 and 3 lo-boys in tandem with and extraterrestrial load a hundred feet in diameter.

On April 30, 1964, the first communication between these aliens and the U.S. Government took place at Holloman Air Force Base in New Mexico. 3 saucers landed at a prearranged area and a meeting was held between the aliens and intelligence officers of the U.S. Government.

During the period of 1969-1971, MJ-12 representing the U.S. Government made a deal with these creatures, called EBE's (Extraterrestrial Biological Entities, named by Detley Bronk, original MJ-12 member and 6th President of Johns Hopkins University). The "deal" was that in exchange for "technology" that they would provide to us, we agreed to "ignore" the abductions that were going on and suppress information on the cattle mutilations. The EBE's assured MJ-12 that the abductions (usually lasting about 2 hours) were merely the ongoing monitoring of developing civilizations.

In fact, the purposes for the abductions turned out to be:

(1) The insertion of a 3mm spherical device through the nasal cavity of the abductee into the brain. the device is used for the biological monitoring, tracking, and control of the abductee.

(2) Implementation of Posthypnotic Suggestion to carry out a specific activity during a specific time period, the actuation of which will occur within the next 2 to 5 years.

(3) Termination of some people so that they could function as living sources for biological material and substances.

(4) Termination of individuals who represent a threat to the continuation of their activity.

(5) Effect genetic engineering experiments.

(6) Impregnation of human females and early termination of pregnancies to secure the crossbreed infant.

The U.S. Government was not initially aware of the far reaching consequences of their "deal". They were led to believe that the abductions were essentially benign and since they figured the abductions would probably go on anyway whether they agreed or not, they merely insisted that a current list of abductees be submitted, on a periodic basis, to MJ-12 and the National Security Council. Does this sound incredible? An actual list of abductees sent to the National Security Council? Read on, because I have news for you.

The EBE's have a genetic disorder in that their digestive system is atrophied and not functional. Some speculate that they were involved in some type of accident or nuclear war, or possibly on the back side of and evolutionary genetic curve. In order to sustain themselves they use an enzyme or hormonal secretion obtained from the tissue that they extract from humans and animals. (Note: Cows and Humans are genetically similar. In the event of a national disaster, cow's blood can be used by humans.)

The secretions obtained are then mixed with hydrogen peroxide and applied on the skin by spreading or dipping parts of their bodies in the solution. The body absorbs the solution, then excretes the waste back through the skin. The cattle mutilations that were prevalent throughout the period from 1973 to 1983 and publicly noted through newspaper and magazine stories and included a documentary produced by Linda Howe for the Denver CBS affiliate KMGH-TV, were for the collection of these tissues by the aliens. The mutilations included genitals taken, rectums cored out to the colon, eyes, tongue, and throat all surgically removed with extreme precision. In some cases the incisions were made by cutting between the cells, a process we are not yet capable of performing in the field. In many of the mutilations there was no blood found at all in the carcass, yet there was no vascular collapse of the internal organs. This has been also noted in the human mutilations, one of the first of which was Sgt. Jonathan P. Louette at the White Sands Missile Test Range in 1956, who was found three days after an Air Force Major had witnessed his abduction by a "disk shaped" object at 0300 while on a search for missile debris downrange. His genitals had been removed, rectum cored out in a surgically precise "plug" up to the colon, eyes removed and all blood removed with, again, no vascular collapse. From some of the evidence it is apparent that this surgery is accomplished, in most cases, while the victim, animal or human, is still alive.

The various parts of the body are taken to various underground laboratories, one of which is known to be near the small New Mexico town of Dulce. This jointly occupied (CIA-Alien) facility has been described as enormous, with huge tiled walls that "go on forever". Witnesses have reported huge vats filled with amber liquid with parts of human bodies being stirred inside.

After the initial agreement, Groom Lake, one of this nations most secret test centers, was closed for a period of about a year, sometime between about 1972 and 1974, and a huge underground facility was constructed for and with the help of the EBE's. The "bargained for" technology was set in place but could only be operated by the EBE's themselves. Needless to say, the advanced technology could not be used against the EBE's themselves, even if needed.

During the period between 1979 and 1983 it became increasingly obvious to MJ-12 that things were not going as planned. It became known that many more people (in the thousands) were being abducted than were listed on the official abduction lists. In addition it became obvious that some, not all, but some of the nation's missing children had been used for secretions and other parts required by the aliens.

In 1979 there was an altercation of sorts at the Dulce laboratory. A special armed forces unit was called in to try and free a number of our people trapped in the facility, who had become aware of what was really going on. According to one source, 66 of the soldiers were killed and our people were not freed.

By 1984, MJ-12 must have been in stark terror at the mistake they had made in dealing with the EBE's. They had subtly promoted "Close Encounters of the Third Kind" and "E.T." to get the public used to "odd looking" aliens that were compassionate, benevolent and very much our "space brothers". MJ-12 "sold" the EBE's to the public, and were now faced with the fact that quite the opposite was true. In addition, a plan was formulated in 1968 to make the public aware of the existence of aliens on earth over the next 20 years to be culminated with several documentaries to be released during 1985-1987 period of time. These documentaries would explain the history and intentions of the EBE's. The discovery of the "Grand Deception" put the entire plans, hopes and dreams of MJ-12 into utter confusion and panic.

Meeting at the "Country Club", a remote lodge with private golf course, comfortable sleeping and working quarters, and its own private airstrip built by and exclusively for the member of MJ-12, it was a factional fight of what to do now. Part of MJ-12 wanted to confess the whole scheme and shambles it had become to the public, beg their forgiveness and ask for their support. The other part (and majority) of MJ-12 argued that there was no way they could do that, that the situation was untenable and there was no use in exciting the public with the "horrible truth" and that the best plan was to continue the development of a weapon that could be used against the EBE's under the guise of "SDI", the Strategic Defense Initiative, which had nothing whatsoever to do with a defense for inbound Russian nuclear missiles. As these words are being written, Dr. Edward Teller, "father" of the H-Bomb is personally in the test tunnels of the Nevada Test Site, driving his workers and associates in the words of one, "like a man possessed". And well he should, for Dr. Teller is a member of MJ-12 along with Dr. Kissenger, Admiral Bobby Inman, and possibly Admiral Poindexter, to name a few of the current members of MJ-12.

Before the "Grand Deception" was discovered and according to a meticulous plan of metered release of information to the public, several documentaries and video tapes were made. William Moore, a Burbank, California, based UFO researcher who wrote "The Roswell Incident", a book published in 1980 that detailed the crash, recovery and subsequent cover-up of a UFO with 4 alien bodies, has a video tape of 2 newsmen interviewing a military officer associated with MJ-12. This military officer answers questions relating to the history of MJ-12 and the cover-up, the recovery of a number of flying saucers and the existence of a live alien (one of 3 living aliens captured and designated, or named, EBE-1, EBE-2, and EBE-3, being held in a facility designated as YY-II at Los Alamos, New Mexico. The only other facility of this type, which is electromagnetically secure, is at Edwards Air Force Base in Mojave, California). The officer names as previously mentioned plus a few others: Harold Brown, Richard Helms, Gen. Vernon Walters, JPL's Dr. Lew Allen and Dr. Theodore von Karman, to name a few of the current and past members of MJ-12.

The officer also relates the fact that the EBE's claim to have created Christ. The EBE's have a type of recording device that has recorded all of Earth's history and can display it in the form of a hologram. This hologram can be filmed but because of the way holograms work does not come out very clear on movie film or video tape. The crucifixion of Christ on the Mount of Olives has allegedly been put on film to show the public. The EBE's claim to have created Christ, which, in view of the "Grand Deception", could be an effort to disrupt traditional values for undetermined reasons.

Another video tape allegedly in existence is an interview with an EBE. Since EBE's communicate telepathically, and Air Force Colonel serves as an interpreter. Just before the recent stock market correction in October of 1987, several newsmen, including Bill Moore, had been invited to Washington, D.C., to personally film the EBE in a similar type interview, and distribute the film to the public. Apparently, because of the correction in the market, it was felt the timing was not propitious. In any case, it certainly seems like an odd method to inform the public of extraterrestrials, but it would be in keeping with the actions of a panicked organization who at this point in time doesn't know which way to turn.

Moore is also in possession of more Aquarius documents, a few pages of which leaked out several years ago and detailed the supersecret NSA project which had been denied by them until just recently. In a letter to Senator John Glenn, NSA's Director of Policy, Julia B. Wetzel, wrote, "Apparently there is or was an Air Force project with that name (Aquarius) which dealt with UFO's. Coincidently, there is also an NSA project by that name." NSA's project Aquarius deals specifically with the "communications wit the aliens" (the EBE's). Within the Aquarius program was project "Snowbird", a project to test-fly a recovered alien aircraft at Groom Lake, Nevada. This project continues today at that location. In the words of an individual who works at Groom Lake, "Our people are much better at taking things apart than they are at putting them back together."

Moore, who claims he has a contact with MJ-12, feels that they have been stringing him along, slipping him documents and providing him leads, promising to go public with some of the information on extraterrestrials by the end of 1987.

Certain of Moore's statements lead one to believe that Moore himself is a government agent working for MJ-12, not to be strung along, but string along ever hopeful UFOlogists that the truth is just around the corner. Consider:

1. Moore states emphatically that he is not a government agent, although when Lee Graham (a Southern California based UFOlogist) was investigated by DIS (Defense Investigative Service) for possession of classified documents received from Moore, Moore himself was not.

2. Moore states emphatically that the cattle mutilations of 1973-1983 were a hoax by Linda Howe (producer of "A Strange Harvest") to create publicity for herself. He cites the book "Mute Evidence" as the bottom line of the hoax. "Mute Evidence" was a government sponsored book to explain the mutilations in conventional terms.

3. Moore states that the U.S.A.F. Academy physics book, "Introductory Space Science", vol. II chapter 13, entitled "Unidentified Flying Objects", which describes four of the most commonly seen aliens (one of which is the EBE) was written by Lt. Col. Edward R. Therkelson and Major Donald B. Carpenter, Air Force personnel who did not know what they were talking about and were merely siting "crackpot" references. He, Moore, states that the book was withdrawn to excise the chapter.

If the government felt they were being forced to acknowledge the existence of aliens on Earth because of the overwhelming evidence such as the October and November sightings in Wytheville, Va., and recently released books such as "Night Siege" (Hynek, J. Allen;Imbrogno, Phillip J.;Pratt, Bob:Night Siege, Ballantine Books, Random House, New York), and taking into consideration the "grand deception" and obviously hostile intentions of the EBE's, it might be expedient for MJ-12 to admit the EBE's but conceal the information on the mutilations and abductions. If MJ-12 and Moore were in some kind of agreement then it would be beneficial to Moore to tow the party line. For example, MJ-12 would say..."here are some more genuine documents...but remember...no talking about the mutilations or abductions". This would be beneficial to Moore as it would supply the evidence to support his theory that E.T.'s exist but deny the truths about the E.T.'s. However, if Moore was indeed working for MJ-12, he would follow the party line anyway...admitting the E.T.'s but pooh poohing the mutilations and abductions. If working alone, Moore might not even be aware of the "grand deception".

Time will tell. It is possible that Moore will go ahead and release the video interview with the military officer around the first of the year, as he has promised. From MJ-12's point of view, the public would be exposed to the information without really having to believe it because Moore is essentially not as credible a source as, say, the President of the United States. After a few months of digestion and discussion, a more credible source could emerge with a statement that yes in fact the interview was essentially factual. This scenario would cushion somewhat the blow to the public. If, however, Moore does not release the tape by, say, February 1 of 1988, but comes instead with a story similar to: "MJ-12 has informed me that they are definitely planning a release of all information by October of 88. I have seen the plan and have seen the guarantee that this will happen, so I have decided to withhold the release of my video tape at this time as it may cause some problems with MJ-12's plans." This would in effect buy more time for MJ-12 and time is what they desperately need.

Now you ask, "Why haven't I heard about any of this?" Who do you think you would hear it from? Dan Rather? Tom Brokaw? Sam Donaldson? Wrong. These people just read the news, they don't find it. They have ladies who call and interview witnesses and verify statements on stories coming over the wire (either AP or UPI). It's not like Dan Rather would go down to Wytheville, Virginia, and dig into why there were 4 THOUSAND reported sightings in October and November of 1987. Better that Tom Brokaw or someone else should risk their credibility on this type of story. Tom Brokaw? Tom wants Sam Donaldson to risk his credibility. No one, but no one, is going to risk their neck on such outlandish ideas, regardless of how many people report sightings of 900 foot objects running them off the road. In the case of the Wytheville sightings, dozens of vans with NASA lettered on the side failed to interest newsmen. And those that asked questions were informed that NASA was doing a weather survey.

Well then, you ask, what about our scientists? What about Carl Sagan? Isaac Asimov? Arthur C. Clarke? Wouldn't they have known? If Carl Sagan knows then he is committing a great fraud through the solicitation of memberships in the Planetary Society, "to search for extraterrestrial intelligence". Another charade into which the U.S. Government dumps million of dollar every year is the radiotelescope in Arecibo, Puerto Rico, operated by Cornell University with - guess who? - Carl Sagan. Cornell is ostensibly searching for signals from Outer Space, a sign maybe, that somebody is out there. It is hard to believe that relatively intelligent astronomers like Sagan could be so ignorant.

What about Isaac Asimov? Surely the most prolific science fiction writer of all time would have guessed by now that there must be an enormous cover-up? Maybe, but if he knows he's not saying. Perhaps he's afraid that Foundation and Empire will turn out to be inaccurate.

What about Arthur C. Clarke? Surely the most technically accurate of Science Fiction writers with very close ties to NASA would have at least a hint of what's really going on. Again, if so he isn't talking. In a recent Science Fiction survey, Clarke estimates that contact with extraterrestrial intelligent life would not occur before the 21st Century.

If the government won't tell us the truth and the major networks won't even give it serious consideration, then what is the big picture, anyway? Are the EBE's, having done a hundred thousand or more abductions (possibly millions worldwide), built an untold number of secret underground bases (Groom Lake, Nevada; Sunspot, Datil, Roswell, and Pine Town, New Mexico, just to name a few) getting ready to return to wherever they came from? Or, form the obvious preparations are we to assume that they are getting ready for a big move? Or is the more sinister and most probable situation that the invasion is essentially complete and it is all over but the screaming?

A well planned invasion of Earth for it's resources and benefits would not begin with mass landings of ray-gun equipped aliens. A properly planned and executed invasion by a civilization thousands and probably hundreds of thousands of years in advance of us would most likely be complete before even a handful of people, say 12?, realized what was happening. No fuss, no muss. The best advice I can give you is this: Next time you see a flying saucer and are awed by its obvious display of technology and gorgeous lights of pure color - RUN LIKE HELL!

COSMIC TOP SECRET

THE DULCE PAPERS

The Dulce papers were comprised of 25 black and white photos, a video tape with no dialogue and a set of papers that included technical information of the alleged jointly occuppied (U.S.-Alien) facility 1 kilometer beneath the Archuletta Mesa near Dulce, New Mexico. Several persons were given the above package to hold for safekeeping. Most of those given the package were shown what the package contained but were not technically oriented and knew very little about what they were looking at. The following was written by one of these persons about what the papers contained. This person described the scenes that the video tape showed and made the attached pencil drawings of some of the photos. What you see is what you get; I can't decipher what is written or drawn anymore than you can. I pass these papers on only in the interest of getting to the truth. From other information I have I believe the information contained herein is true. I believe the facility exists and is currently operational. I also believe that there are 4 additional facilities of the same type, one located a few miles to the southeast of Groom Lake, Nevada. What is the truth? Only God, MJ-12 and the aliens know for sure.

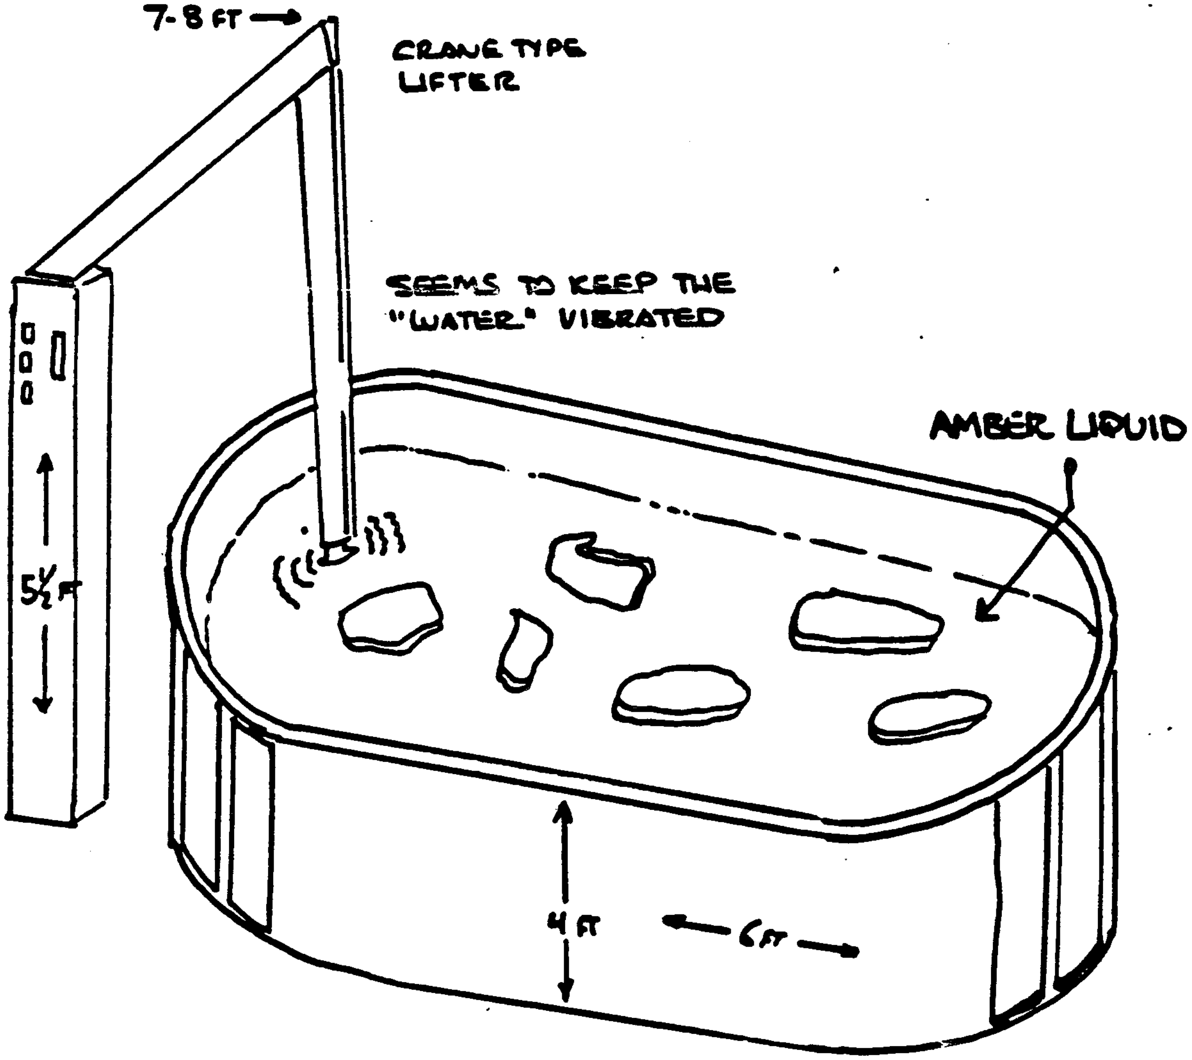

Dulce papers: Lots of papers-documents that discuss copper and molybdenum, also papers about magnesium and potassium, but mostly about copper. Lots of 'medical terms' that I don't understand. A sheet of paper with charts and strange diagrams. Papers that discuss ultra violet light and gamma rays. Papers that discuss color and black and white and how to avoid detection through use of certain colors. In addition to these papers there are about 25 pictures, black and white, plus one video tape with no dialogue, all taken inside of the Dulce facility. These papers tell what the aliens are after and how the blood (taken from the cows) is used. Aliens seem to absorb atoms to 'eat'. Aliens put hands in blood, sort of like a sponge, for nourishment. Its not just food they want, the DNA in cattles and humans is being altered. The 'Type One' creature is a lab animal. "They" know how to change the atoms to create a temporary "almost human being". It is made with animal tissue and depends on a computer to simulate memory, a memory the computer has withdrawn from another human being. The 'almost human being' is slightly slow and clumsy. Real humans are used for training, to experiment and to breed with these "almost humans". Some humans are kidnapped and used completely (even atoms). Some are kept in large tubes, and are kept alive in an amber liquid. Some humans are brainwashed and used to distort the truth. Certain male humans have a high sperm count and are kept alive. Their sperm is used to alter the DNA and create a non-gender being called "Type Two". That sperm is grown some way and altered again, put in large wombs, many destroyed, certain are altered again and then put in separate wombs. They resemble 'ugly humans' when growing but look normal when fully grown which takes only a few months from fetus size. They have a short life span, less than a year. Some female humans are used for breeding. Countless women have had a sudden miscarriage after about 3 months pregnancy. Some never knew they were pregnant. Others remember contact some way. The fetus is used to mix the DNA in types one and two. The atomic makeup in that fetus is half human, half "almost human" and would not survive in the mothers womb. It is taken at 3 months and grown elsewhere.

Mystery object amid the chromosomes

SIR—The very tiny object shown below, much like a fragmented crossword in appearance, was recently found in one of our routine chromosome preparations for prenatal diagnosis following amniocentesis. But what is it?

Is it a man-made device? Packing text as binary coded information on the miniature scale (the scale bar is 10μm) would seem advantageous. Or is it a naturally occurring substance? None of the possibilities we have been able to think of would seem to be appropriate for amniotic fluid, so if anybody is able to suggest an answer to this mystery we would like to have it. We are as intrigued as we are ignorant.

Prospects for rabies control by vaccination

SIR—The successful vaccination of foxes against rabies using a recombinant vaccinia virus expressing rabies G glycoprotein[1] is an exciting advance and one can only look forward to field trials with great anticipation. But R.M. Anderson's News and Views summary[2] of this work contained some omissions and errors.

Anderson states: "... the instability of the attenuated strains and the possibility of reversion to full virulence have prevented their use in natural habitats". One awaits data on the stability of the vaccinia recombinant but for the past several years, thousands of doses of live attenuated rabies vaccines have been released in Switzerland, West Germany and Ontario, Canada. Not only have these releases apparently been effective in preventing the spread (Switzerland) or reducing the incidence (Germany) of rabies, but the trials have been conducted without any evidence of reversion to virulence. Given the hurdles that face us in obtaining approval for field trials of any recombinant DNA products and the continuing severe global threat of rabies, use of attenuated live-virus vaccines is likely to continue for many years.

Anderson's analysis of the proportion of a wild fox population that must be vaccinated in order to interrupt or prevent a rabies epidemic is based on a model; clearly, his predictions are only as good as the data entering the model and its structure. None of the several rabies models has been adequately field tested. When they are, we may get indications that suppression (if not eradication) of rabies may be obtainable with much lower proportions of immune individuals than is supposed.

Body temperature and the specific heat of water

SIR—The majority of homoiothermic animals maintain their body temperatures, during non-hibernation, within a few degrees of 36°C. Various explanations for this have been advanced, most centering on the temperature-dependent change in rate constants of enzyme-mediated chemical reactions. These explanations appear to beg the question, why 36°C? Why not 25°C or 48°C? Is it possible that the enzyme systems of cells evolved as a result of being encouraged to work at 36°C rather than the reverse? If so, the 36°C setpoint assumes some importance and a reason for its occurrence in 'warm blooded' organisms must be sought.

The reason seems to be found in the table recording the specific heat of water of Kaye and Laby's Tables of Physical and Chemical Constants (page 55, 14th edn, Longman, London, 1973). As usual the key to much of life's mystery lies in the extraordinary behaviour of water. As plotted in the figure, the relationship between the specific heat of water and temperature reveals that at 35°C the specific heat of water is at its minimum value of 4.1779 J g$^{-1}$ °C$^{-1}$.

In the case of living organisms the significance of this strange behaviour of water is immediately obvious. An organism functioning at this temperature will find it necessary to generate or dissipate the minimum amount of heat energy in order to maintain its temperature constant. From the point of view of the organism's energy economy this temperature is clearly the most efficient at which to function. It seems likely that since the environmental temperatures on Earth are, with few exceptions, lower than 35°C, organisms which have been able to set their working temperatures at a point just slightly above the temperature at which the specific heat of water is at its minimum value have thrived. Some of your readers may care to elaborate further on the implications of this observation.

FRP is follicle regulatory protein

SIR—Confusion may be caused by the use of FRP as the acronym for the FSH releasing protein in follicular fluid described by Vale et al. (Nature 321, 776–779; 1986). Since first reporting the presence of a follicle regulatory protein in the ovary in 1982[1] we have referred to it as FRP in numerous publications, for example ref. 2. FRP, which has a role in both ovarian and testicular physiology as a paracrine and autocrine modulator of gonadal response to gonadotropins, is biochemically similar to Vale's protein and the two may even eventually turn out to be the same. However until and unless unless they do, one FRP is surely enough.

AN EBE KNOWN ASA "GREY"

The following material comes from people who KNOW the Dulce (Underground) Base exists. They are people who worked in the Labs; Abductees taken to the Base; people who assisted in the construction; Intelligence Personnel (NSA;CIA;ETC.) and UFO/Inner-Earth Researchers.
This information is meant for those who are seriously interested in the Dulce Base. For your own protection, be advised to "USE CAUTION" while investigating this Complex.

An ongoing investigation :

" THE DULCE BASE "

by Jason Bishop III

This facility is a "GENETICS LAB" and is connected to Los Alamos, via a Tube-Shuttle. Part of their research is related to the Genetic Effects of Radiation (Mutations and Human Genetics). Its' research also includes other"Intelligent Species" (Alien biological Life Form "Entities").
In the revised September 1950 edition of THE EFFECTS OF ATOMIC WEAPONS, prepared for and in cooperation with The U.S. Department of Defence and The U.S. Atomic Energy Commission, under the direction of The Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory, we read about how "complete Underground placement of Bases is desirable". On page #381 : "There are apparently no fundamental difficulties in construction and operating Underground various types of important Facilities. Such facilities may be placed in a suitable existing mine or a site may be excavated for the purpose".

CAUGHT IN THE GAME

Centuries ago, Surface People (some say The Illuminati) entered into a Pact with an "Alien Nation"(Hidden within the Earth). The U.S. Government, in 1933, agreed to trade Animals and Humans in exchange for High-Tech Knowledge, and to allow them to use (undisturbed) UNDERGROUND BASES, in the Western U.S.A. A Special Group was formed to deal with the Alien Beings. In the 1940's, "Alien Life Forms"(ALF) began shifting their focus of opperations, from Central and South America, to the U.S.A.

The Continental Divide is vital to these "Entities". Part of this has to do with Magnetics (Substrata Rock) and high Energy States (Plasma).
[See : BEYOND THE FOUR DIMENSIONS (Reconciling Physics, Parapsychology and UFOs) by Karl Brunstein. Also : NUCLEAR EVOLUTION (Discovery of the Rainbow Body) by Christopher Hills.]
* This area has a very high concentration of Lightning Activity; Underground Waterways and Cavern Systems; Fields of Atomospheric IONs; Etc.

WHOs' PLANET IS THIS ?

These Aliens consider themselves "Native Terrans".
They are an Ancient Race (decendent from a Reptilian Humanoid Species which cross-bred with Sapient Humans). They are untrustworthy manipulator Mercenary Agents for another Extraterrestrial Culture(The DRACO) whom are returning to Earth (their ancient "Outpost") to use it as a staging area.
But, these Alien Cultures are in conflict over Whos' Agenda will be followed for This Planet. All the while Mental Control is being used to keep Humans "in place", especially since the Forties.

The DULCE Complex is a Joint U.S. Government/Alien Base. It was NOT the first built with The Aliens (others are in Colorado, NV, AZ, Etc.)

THE SECRET "ACTIVITY"

Paul Benewitz reports, about his study into the Dulce area; "Troups went in and out of there every summer, starting in '47. The natives do recall that. They also built a road - right in front of the people of Dulce and trucks went in an out for a long period. That road was later blocked and destroyed.. ...The signs on the trucks were 'Smith'Corp. out of Paragosa Springs, Colo. No such Corp. exists now - no record exists....I believe the Base - at least the first one was being built then undercover of a lumbering project ....problem - they NEVER hauled logs. Only BIG Equipment".

* R & D and the MILITARY INDUSTRIAL COMPLEX

THE RAND CORP. became involved and did a study, for the Base. Most of the Lakes near Dulce were made, Via Government grants 'for' the Indians.

NAVAJO DAM is the main source for conventional electric power, with a second source in El Vado (also, an Entrance).

Note : If RAND is the mother of "THINK TANKS", then the "FORD Foundation" must be considered the father.

RAND secrecy is not confined to 'Reports', but on occasion extends to Conferences and Meetings. On page #645 of The PROJECT RAND, Proceedings of the DEEP UNDERGROUND CONSTRUCTION SYMPOSIUM (March 1959) we read; "Just as airplanes, ships and automobiles have given man mastery of the surface of the Earth, Tunnel-Boring Machines...will give him access to the Subterranean World".

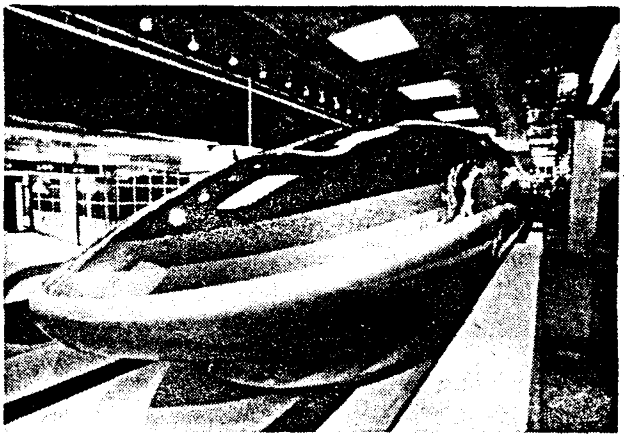

Note : The Sept. 1983 issue of "OMNI" (pg.#80) has a color drawing of "The SUBTERRENE", the Los Alamos nuclear-powered tunnel machine that burrows through the rock,deep underground, by heating whatever stone it encounters into molten rock (magma), which cools after the Subterrene has moved on. The result is a tunnel with a smooth, glazed lining. These underground tubes are used by electro-magnetically powered "Subshuttle Vehicles",which can travel at great speeds. They connect the "Hidden Empire" Sub-City complexes. Also, the top-secret project code-named : "Noah's Ark", uses "Tube-shuttles" in connection with a system of over 100 'Bunkers' and 'Bolt Holes which have been established at various places on Earth. With other Bases inside the Moon and Mars. Many of these underground Cities are complete with streets, sidewalks, lakes, small electric cars, apartments, offices, and shopping malls.

There were over 650 attendees to the 1959 RAND Symposium. Most were representatives of the Corporate-Industrial State, like : The General Electric Company; AT&T; Hughes Aircraft ; Northrop Corp.; Sandia Corp.; Stanford Research Institute; Walsh Construction Company; The Bechtel Corporation; Colorado School of Mines; etc.

Bechtel(pronounced BECK-tul) is a supersecret international corporate octopus, founded in 1898. Some say the firm is really a "SHADOW GOVERNMENT" - a working arm of the CIA. It is the largest Construction and Engineering outfit, in the USA and the World (and some say, beyond).

The most important posts in USA Government are held by former Bechtel Officers. They are part of "The WEB" (an interconnected control system) which links the Tri-Lateralist plans, the C.F.R., the Orders of "Illuminism"(Cult of the All-seeing Eye) and other interlocking groups.

"SURVIVING THE FUTURE"

The DULCE FACILITY consists of a Central "HUB", the Security Section, (also some photo labs). The deeper you go, the stronger the Security. This is a Multi-leveled Complex. There are over 3000 cameras at various High-Security locations (Exits and Labs).
There are over 100 Secret Exits near and around Dulce. Many around Archuleta Mesa, others to the south around Dulce Lake and even as far east as Lindrith.

* Deep sections of the Complex connect into natural Cavern Systems.

A person who worked at the Base, who had an "ULTRA 7" Clearance, reports : "There may be more than seven Levels, but I only know of seven. Most of the Aliens are on 5-6-7 Levels. Alien housing is Level Five."

* 21st CENTURY POWER : "BIO-TECH"

We are leaving the Era of expendable resources, like Oil based products. The Power of the Future is Re-newable resources..."Biologically" Engineered. The Dulce Genetic Research was originally funded under the cloak of "BLACK BUDGET" Secrecy. (Billions $ $ $)
They were interested in intelligent "Disposable Biology"(Humanoids), to do the dangerous Atomic(Plutoium) Rocket and Saucer experiments.
We Cloned "our" own little Humanoids. Via a process perfected in the Bio-Genetic Research Center of the World, Los Alamos ! Now, we have our own disposable slave-race. Like the Alien "Greys"(EBES), the U.S. Government clandestindly impregnated females, then removed the Hybrid fetus,(after about 3 months)and then excellerated their growth in the Lab. Biogenetic(DNA Manipulation) programming is instilled - they are "Implanted" and controlled at a distance through regular RF(Radio Frequency) transmissions. Many humans are also being "Implanted" with Brain Transceivers. These act as telepathic "Channels" and telemetric brain manipulation devices. The network-net was set-up by DARPA(Advanced Research Project Agency). Two of the procedures were, R.H.I.C.(Radio-Hypnotic Intracerebral Control) and E.D.O.M.(Electronic Dissolution Of Memory). The brain transceiver is inserted into the head through the nose. These devices are used in the Soviet Union and the United States, as well as Sweden. The Swedish Prime Minister Palme gave the National Swedish Police Board the right(in 1973)to insert brain transmitters into the heads of human beings COVERTLY !
They also developed ELF and E.M. wave propagation equipment(RAYS) which affects the nerves and can cause nausea, fatique, irritability, even death. This is esentially the same as Richard Shaver's Cavern "Telaug" Mech. This research into biodynamic relationships within organisms ("BIOLOGICAL PLASMA") has produced a RAY that can change the "genetic structure" and "HEAL". Shaver's Cavern "BEN-Mech" could HEAL !

WARNING : MANIPULATION AND CONTROL

* FEAR, FRAUD and FAVOR... The Pentagon, the CIA,NSA,DEA,FBI,NSC,etc. seek to capitalize on the Beliefs of the American Public. The Secret Government is getting ready to 'stage' a Contact-Landing with "ALIENS", in the near future. This way they can "CONTROL" the release of Alien related Propaganda. We will be told of an Inter-stellar Conflict.
But...what looks real, may be "FAKE". What is disinformation ?

* Is your attention being diverted by the Strategy of a "SHADOW PLAN"?

Berkeley, Los Alamos Labs Chosen to Explore Makeup of Human Genome

OVERT AND COVERT RESEARCH

As U.S. Energy Secretary, John Herrington named the Lawrence Berkeley Laboratory and New Mexico's Los Alamos National Laboratory to house new advanced genetic research centers as part of a Project to decipher the Human Genome. The Genome holds the genetically coded instructions that guide the transformation of a single cell - a fertilized egg - into a Biological Being. "The Human Genome Project may well have the greatest direct impact on humanity of any scientific initiative before us today", said David Shirley, Director of the Berkeley Laboratory.

Covertly, this research has been going on for years, at DULCE LABS.

Level #6 is privately called "Night-mare Hall", it holds the Genetic Labs. Reports from workers who have seen bizarre experimentation, are as follows : "I have seen multi-legged 'humans' that look like half-human/half-octopus. Also Reptilian-humans, and furry creatures that have hands like humans and cries like a baby, it mimics human words... also huge mixture of Lizard-humans in cages". There are fish, seals, birds and mice that can barely be considered those species. There are several cages (and vats)of Winged-humanoids, grotesque Bat like creatures ...but 3½ to 7 ft. tall. Gargoyle-like Beings and Draco-Reptoids.

Level #7 is worse, row after row of thousands of humans and human-mixtures in cold storage. Here too are embryo storage vats of Humanoids, in various stages of development.

"I frequently encountered humans in cages, usually dazed or drugged, but sometimes they cried and begged for help. We were told they were hopelessly insane, and involved in high risk drug tests to cure insanity. We were told to never try to speak to them at all. At the beginning we believed that story. Finally in 1978, a small group of workers discovered the truth. It began the Dulce Wars".(and a secret resistance Unit was formed) Note : There are over 18,000 "Aliens" at the Dulce Base

In late 1979, there was a confrontation (over weapons), alot of Scientists and Military personnel were KILLED. The Base was closed for a while...But, it IS currently active. Note : Human and animal abductions (for their Blood and other parts) slowed in the mid-1980s, when the Livermore Berkeley Labs began production of artifical blood for Dulce.

William Cooper states; "A clash occured where in 66 people, of our people, from the National Recon Group, the DELTA Group, which is responsible for Security of all Alien connected Projects, were killed."

The DELTA Group (within the Intelligence Support Activity) have been seen with badges which have a black Triangle on a red background.

Δ DELTA is the fourth letter of the Greek alphabet. It has the form of a triangle, and fiqures prominently in certain Masonic Signs.

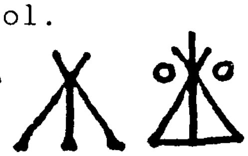

* Each Base has its own Symbol. The DULCE Base symbol is a triangle with the greek letter "Tau"(T) within it and then the symbol is inverted, so the triangle points down.

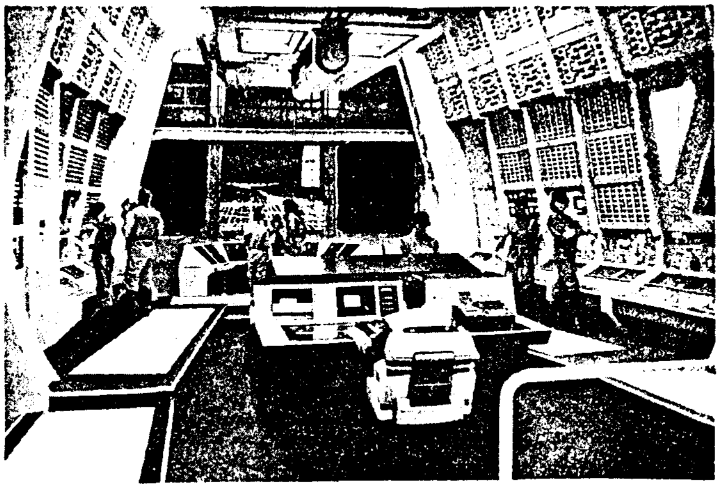

* The Insignia of "a triagle and 3 lateral lines" has been seen on "Saucer(transport)Craft", The Tri-Lateral Symbol.

* Other symbols mark landing sites and Alien Craft.

INSIDE THE DULCE BASE

Security Officers wear jumpsuits, with the Dulce Symbol on the front upper left side. The standard hand weapon, at Dulce, is a "Flash Gun", which is good against Humans and Aliens. The ID card (used in card slots, for the doors and elevators) has the Dulce Symbol above the ID photo. "Government Honchos" use cards with the Great Seal of the U.S. on it. "The Cult of the All-Seeing Eye"(The NEW WORLD ORDER) 13 "666" The Phoenix Empire....."9" "ILLUMINISM"..."One out of many" *

After the Second Level, everyone is weighed, in the nude, then given a Uniform, "Visitors" are given an 'off white' uniform. In front of ALL sensitive areas are scales built under the doorway, by the door control. The persons card must match with the weight and code or the door won't open. Any discrepancy in weight(any change over three pounds) will summon Security. No one is allowed to carry anything into or out of sensitive areas. All supplies are put thru a Security conveyor system. The Alien Symbol language appears alot at the Facility.

During the construction of the Facility (which was done in stages, over many years) the Aliens assisted in the Design and Construction materials. Many of the things assembled by the workers, were of a Technology they could not understand, yet...it would function when fully put together. Example : The elevators have no cables. They are controlled magnetically. The Magnetic system is inside the walls. There are no conventional electrical controls. All is controlled by advanced Magnetics. That includes a magnetically induced(phosphoresient) Illumination System. There are no regular Light Bulbs. All EXITS are magnetically controlled. Note : It has been reported that, "If you place a large magnet on an entrance, it will affect an immediate interruption. They will have to come and reset the system."

THE TOWN OF DULCE

The area around Dulce has had a high number of reported Animal Mutilations. The Government and the Aliens used the animals for Environmental tests, Psychological Warfare on people, etc. The Aliens also wanted large amounts of Blood for Genetic, Nutritional and other reasons.

In the Book,"ETs & UFOs - THEY NEED US, WE DON'T NEED THEM" by Virgil "Posty" Armstrong, he reports how his friends (Bob & Sharon) stopped for the night in Dulce and went out to dinner. "They overheard some local residents openly and vociferously discussing Extraterrestrial Abduction of townspeople for purposes of experimentation." The ET's were taking unwilling human guinea pigs from the general populace of Dulce an Implanting Devices in their heads and bodies. The townspeople were frightened and angry but didn't feel that they had any recourse since the ET's had our Governments knowledge and approval.

Recently, participants in a "field investigation" of the area near Archuletta Mesa, were confronted by two small hovering 'Spheres'. They all became suddenly ill and had to leave the area.

"The MONITORS" : ABDUCTIONS

In the Fifties, the EBES("Greys") began taking large numbers of humans for experiments. By the Sixties, the rate was speeded up and they began getting careless (they didn't care). By the Seventies, their true colors were very obvious, but the "Special Group" of the Government still kept covering up for them. By the Eighties, the Government realizied there was no defense against the "Greys". So...programs were inacted to prepare the Public for open contact with non-human "Alien" Beings.

The "Greys" and the "Reptoids" are in league with each other. But, their relationship is in a state of tension.

The "Greys" only know enemy is the Reptilian Race, and they are on their way to Earth. (Inside a Planetoid)

Some forces, in the Government, want the Public to be aware of what is happening. Other forces (The Collaborators) want to continue making "what ever deals necessary" for an Elite few to survive the conflicts.

The Future could bring a Fascist "WORLD ORDER" or a transformation of Human Consciousness(Awareness). The struggle is NOW...your active assistance is needed. Prepare ! We must preserve Humanity on Earth.

* MIND MANIPULATION EXPERIMENTS

The DULCE Base has studied Mind Control Implants; Bio-Psi Units; ELF Devices capable of Mood, sleep and heartbeat control; etc.

D.A.R.P.A.(Defence Advanced Research Projects Agency) is using these Technologies to manipulate people. They establish 'The Projects', set priorities, coordinate efforts and guide the many participants in these undertakings. Related Projects are studied at Sandia Base by "The JASON Group"(of 55 Scientists). They have secretly harnessed the Dark Side of Technology and hidden the benifical Technology from the Public.

Other Projects take place at "Area #51" in Nevada..."DREAMLAND"[Data Repository Establishment and Maintenance Land]; ELMINT [ELectro-Magnetic Intelligence]; CODE EMPIRE; CODE EVA; PROGRAM HIS [Hybrid Intelligence System]; BW/CW; IRIS [Infrared Intruder Systems]; BI-PASS; REP-TILES; etc.

The studies on LEVEL #4, at DULCE, include Human-Aura research, as well as all aspects of Dream, Hypnosis, Telepathy, etc. They know how to manipulate the BIOPLASMIC BODY (of Man). They can lower your heart beat, with Deep Sleep "DELTA WAVES", induce a static shock, then re-program, Via a Brain-Computer link. They can introduce data and programed reactions into your Mind (Information impregnation - the "Dream Library").

We are entering an ERA of the Technologicalization of Psychic Powers.

The development of techniques to enhance man/machine communications; Nano-tech; Bio-tech micro-machines; PSI-War; E.D.O.M.(Electronic Dissolution Of Memory); R.H.I.C.(Radio-Hypnotic Intra-Cerebral Control); and various forms of behavior control (Via chemical agents, ultra-sonics, optical and other EM radiations). The Physics of "Consciousness".

BETTER LIVING THROUGH BIO-TECH ?

The development of "BIO-TECHNOLOGIES" will mean a revolutionary change in the Life of every Human Being now on Earth !

WARNING ! Fascism is "Corporatism"

We have passed the point of no return, in our interaction with the "Alien" Beings. We are guaranteed "A Crisis" which will persist until the final REVELATION (or conflict). The crisis is here, Global and real. We must mitigate or transform the nature of the disasters to come and come they will. Knowing is half the battle. Read the book, "THE COSMIC CONSPIRACY" by Stan Deyo.

THE PHANTOM EMPIRE : ABOVE THE LAW

The Dulce Base is run by a "Board". The Chairman of the Board is JOHN HERRINGTON. JIM BAKER (of Tenn.) is the CIA link to. Dulce. House Speaker JIM WRIGHT, D-Texas(the Nation's third-highest office) is Treasurer at Dulce. There is currently a power struggle going on. As Rep. William Thomas, R-Calif.,put it...Part of Jim Wright's problem is;"He fails to understand what's equitable and fair. It's the arrogance of power." Even amoung his fellow Democrats, many find Wright to be "uncomfortably aloof". Wright's operating style leaves him vulnerable.

Most meetings of "The Dulce Board" are held in Denver and Taos(N.M.). Former New Mexico Senator Harrison "Last man on the Moon" Schmitt has full knowledge of Dulce. He was one of 7 Astronauts to tour the Base. In 1979, he held an "Animal Mutilation" conferance in Albuquerque,N.M. This was used to locate researchers and determine what they had learned about the links between the "Mute" operations and the Alien/Government.

Senator BRIAN(Nevada) knows about the "ULTRA" Secrets at "Dreamland" and Dulce. So do many others in the Government...this is what the UFO researchers are up against...so BE CAREFUL...they have KILLED to keep this info Secret. You now know more than they want you to know. They also have underwater Bases off the coast of Florida and Peru.

More detailed information will be released in the near future; photos, video tapes; documents, etc. Watch out for Agents amoung you now. In the 1930's, "DIVISION FIVE" of the FBI knew about the "Aliens". A Fascist cabal, within this country, had John Kennedy assassinated. Look to the links, within the larger Umbrella...the "WEB" of a fascist totalitarian secret police state...within the Pentagon; JCS; DIA; FBI (Division Five); DISC/DIS and the CIA. Note : The DEFENCE INVESTIGATIVE SERVICES Insignia is a composite of the Sun's Rays, a ROSE, and a Dagger, symbolizing "The Search for Information, Trustworthiness and Danger". Others links are Nazi scientists(who had contact with the "Aliens"); the S.S.; Satanists; Permindex; Exxon; the Mafia; NBC; etc. This links with Caves used for "Initiation Rites"(All over the world) ...ancient Vaults; Retreats; Alien Bases and INNER-EARTH CIVILIZATIONS.

U.S. + ALIEN UNDERGROUND BASES & TUNNELS (PARTIAL SOUTHWEST)

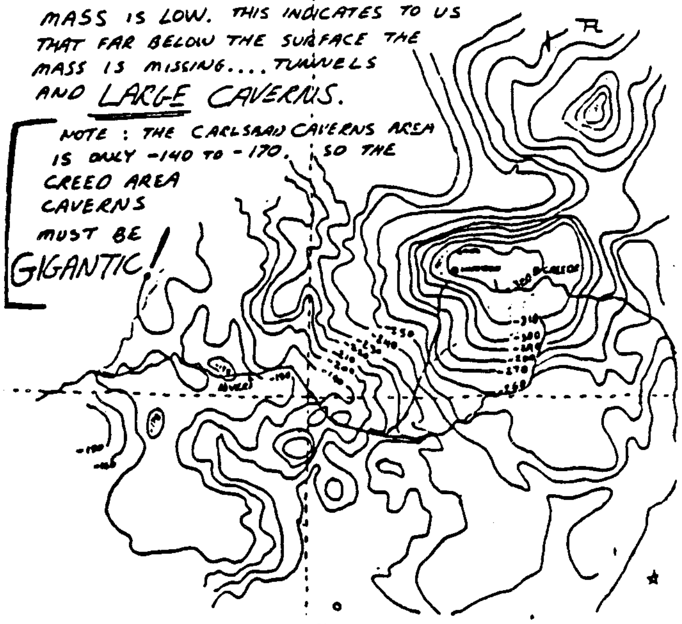

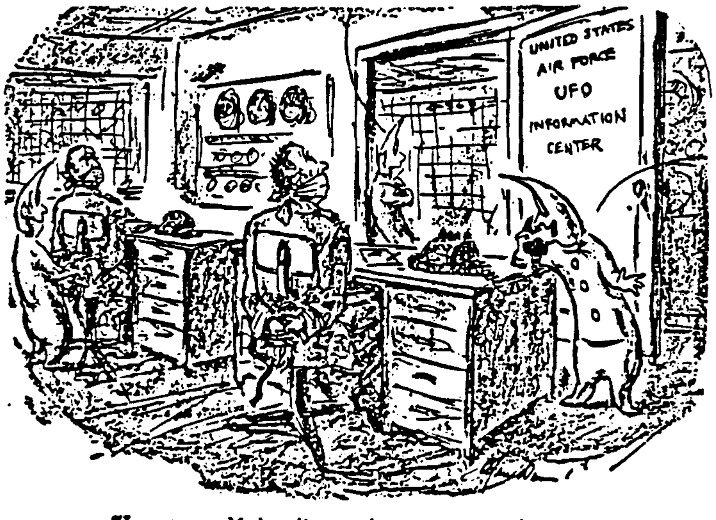

THIS TIME LET'S MAKE THE SCAR IN THE SHAPE OF TEXAS AND SEE IF HE CAN FIGURE OUT HOW HE GOT IT!

ACCORDING TO U.S. GEOLOGICAL SURVEY, GRAVITY ANOMALY MAP OF THE UNITED STATES... NORMAL GRAVITY IS 0 ... THE AVERAGE GRAVITY ON THE EASTERN HALF OF THE U.S.A IS ABOUT -50 ... THE AVERAGE ON THE WESTERN HALF IS ABOUT -150... THE TWO LOWEST GRAVITY ANOMALY AREAS IN THE U.S.A. ARE IN COLORADO. THE AREA FROM SILVERTON TO CREED IS THE LOWEST GRAVITY PULL AREA.... MEANING THE MASS IS LOW. THIS INDICATES TO US THAT FAR BELOW THE SURFACE THE MASS IS MISSING.... TUNNELS AND LARGE CAVERNS.

NOTE: THE CARLSBAD CAVERNS AREA IS ONLY -140 TO -170. SO THE CREED AREA CAVERNS MUST BE GIGANTIC!

CREED COLORADO APPEARS TO BE ONE OF THE END POINTS TO TUNNELS FROM DULCE BASE. OTHER TUNNELS FROM DULCE GO TO TAOS, SANTA FE, GROOM LAKE BASE, DATIL BASE, AND OTHER AREAS.

"I assure you, Madam, if any such creatures as you describe really existed, we would be the first to know about it."

FURTHER DRAWINGS OF UNDERGROUND EXPERIENCES OF CHRISTA TILTON

( All drawings copywrite 1987/88 )
Christa Tilton

On the original drawings, handwritten notes were inscribed. These notes were printed in very small writing and would be too hard to read. We have, instead, used a numbering key system and have listed the notes relative to the numbers they apply to.

(1) Holographic Screen
(2) Table with Instruments
(3) White-Grey beings who helped the doctor
(4) Maijan, the doctor. Light blue suit, one piece. Black boots, black belt.
(5) Steel bars and catwalk
(6) Sounds of liquid circulating
(7) Guages
(8) Flexible tubing that expanded with pressure.
(9) Clear liquid inside tubing.
(10) Cream-colored tank with seams
(11) Book with symbols they made me review
(12) Horrible chemical smell in the air that burns the nose.

( All drawings are copywrited 1987, Christa Tilton)

(1) Television monitors
(2) Chairs with high backs and headrest. There were grooves in the floor so the chairs could move from side to side.
(3) Holographic screen with starmap
(4) Leather seats with head and footrests, grey in color.
(5) Dressing room
(6) Instrumentation
(7) Bright light
(8) Used to test reflexes
(9) Clear tubing
(10) Head and neck brace
(11) Guages and buttons
(12) Holes in bottom of exam table.
(13) Huge black boxes
(14) Way to exit level
(15) Huge frieght elevator for heavy equipment and scout craft.
(16) Seven levels in this area
(17) Badge is scanned here for clearance to another area
(18) Computerized Identification camera
(19) Camera/scanner
(20) Escalator system for going to a lower level
(21) Blond alien hybrid, six feet tall, showing me a glowing pyramid.
(22) My guide in the facility

(8) Guard stationed 24 hours

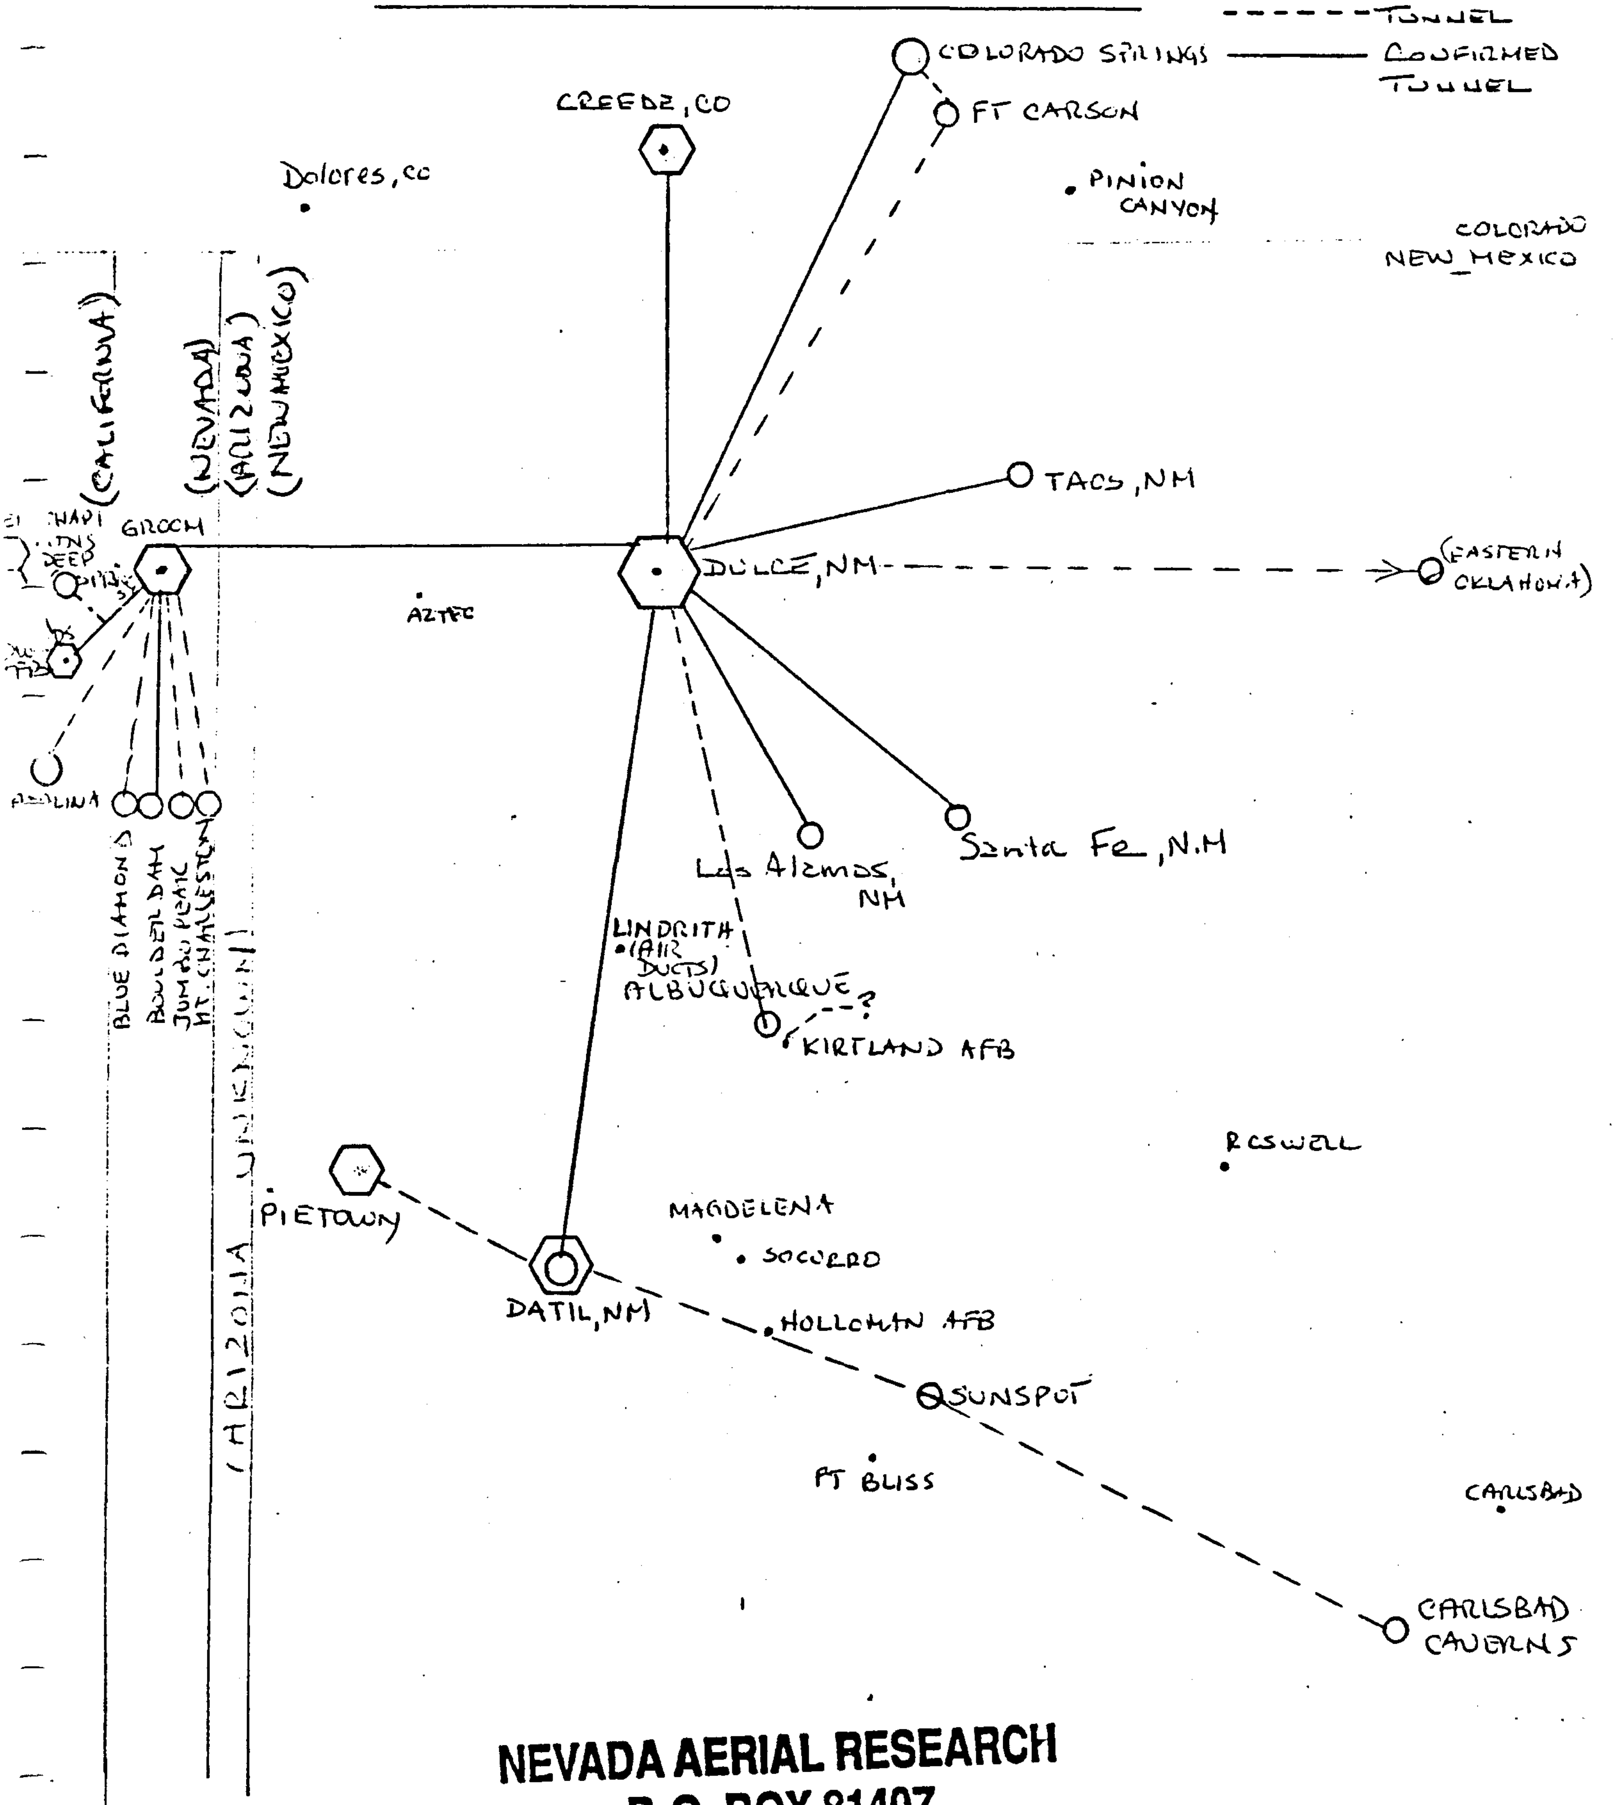

Sketched after regressions with Budd Hopkins in 1987. This is only part of a large room with many incubators. The woman with black hair urged me not to go close to the incubators. It had to do with a special lighting there. I was shown another child of mine who looked to be around 3-4 years old. I was t...

there was a different donor for this child. They would not allow me to ... with this child. I was allowed to ... her and told I would see her again. ... felt no emotional bond to the child.

"I had a touch of the flu last February, and that funny ache in my thumb still flares up when it's damp, but, thanks to the diet and exercise program you recommended, I feel better all around since the last abduction."

IT'L NEVER WORK. HIS MOTHER HAS BEEN TRYING THAT FOR YEARS!
